Parish Insight

SONGS I DON'T LIKE

BY FR JOE WAGNER, S.J.

Way back in 1990, Bette Midler recorded a song that became a major hit titled "From a Distance." Overall, the song was a harmless and sugary song about how, from a physical and metaphorical distance, the earth and all of us on it blend together with a harmony that permits us to see the possibility of peace and a shared belief in the common good. "From a distance, you look like my friend, even though we are at war," Midler crooned, reminiscent, perhaps, of John Lennon inviting us all to "imagine all the people livin' life in peace."

But John Lennon started off by asking us also to "imagine there's no heaven." Bette Midler, on the other hand, asserted the presence of God, but—and this was always my objection—"from a distance." From the very first time I heard that song back in 1990, I absolutely hated it! "God is watching us, watching us from a distance," Midler insisted, as I shouted in response, "No! No! No! God is not 'watching from a distance!'" God is here! Present among us! And not simply watching, but working, straining, loving, always present, always in our midst. Catholic author Fr. Ronald Rolheiser distinguishes between a theist, one who believes in a creator-God that has essentially left us on our own, and a Christian who believes in the incarnation. And through the incarnation, God took on human flesh to live among us, because we as human beings, can only experience God—experience anything, really—through touch, and taste, and sight, and sound, and smell.

Maybe what we most forget, though, is that the incarnation was not merely an event that took place 2000 years ago. The incarnation continues now, through all of us. After the resurrection and the ascension, Jesus continued his incarnate presence on the earth by making us his body. "Now you are the body of Christ, and individually parts of it," Paul tells us (1 Cor 12:27), but it would be a mistake for us to think of this as a metaphor. He means what he says: We are Christ's body now. Far from watching us "from a distance," God has blessed us with the gift of being the presence of Christ on earth now. "Christ has no body now but yours," famously wrote St. Teresa of Avila.

As we begin again the season of Advent and prepare to celebrate the incarnation, let's not make the mistake of thinking we're simply commemorating a singular event that occurred

2000 years ago. Instead, we celebrate a new era that began 2000 years ago and continues through this day, through us, in us, and for us. God is not watching us from a distance; God is inviting us to renew our own calling to be Christ's very presence in our world today. And our world today is in sore need of it.

St. Mary Student Parish

REGISTRATION CAMPAIGN OCT. 30-NOV. 30

Why register with St Mary?

- * Connection : The pastor and the staff get to know you better, welcome you and minister with you.
- * Access to parish information : This gives SMSP the ability to reach out to you and let you know about events, prayer and study opportunities and ways you can give back. You will have a greater awareness of the ministries, programs, sacraments and spiritual support.
- * Registered active members are eligible for sponsor/godparent validation.
- * The Diocese of Lansing will consider registration numbers when making decisions about “grouping” with other parishes. Moreover, staff and resources might be insufficiently allocated to or even removed from, so we need to know the true size and needs of the St Mary’s community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming and inclusive community. Knowing who is participating is vital to the success of this mission. Regardless of how you engage, we are so grateful for your presence here!

You can help us:

Through the month of November, we are having a registration drive.

Registration forms are on a table in the atrium.

You can also register using the QR code :

Into the Light is a fellowship group, a warm welcoming community, that has been meeting on Saturday mornings during Advent and Lent since the 1970's.

Ours is a "Road to Emmaus" style of gathering --a prayer service using the Sunday's readings and then break fast with a potluck, and round-the-table we each share brief reflections of what stood out in the readings. We share our spiritual and life journeys towards the celebration of Christmas through prayer and companionship. All are welcome. We will be meeting in person and have a zoom option this Advent season.

2021-2022 Summary for Annual Report

St. Mary operates on fiscal year of July 1 through June 30. We ended the 2021-2022 fiscal year with net income of $112,468, however that did include $11,881 from employee retention credits that we were eligible for due to the pandemic.

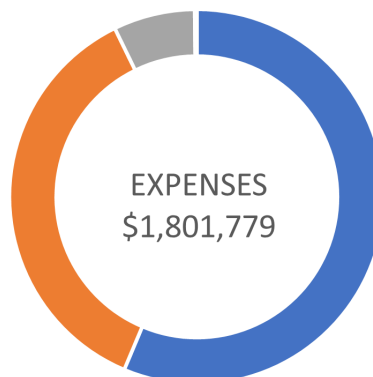

Revenue (not including the retention credits) was $100,588 lower than budget and overall expenses were $201,175 less than budget. Donations to Sunday offering and the annual fund were higher than budgeted while other sources of revenue were lower than budgeted. While the majority of savings in expenses can be attributed to lower staff costs, we also experienced savings in programming costs as we were not fully open for a good portion of the year due to COVID-19. We did spend some of these savings on replacing the oven/stove in the kitchen in Newman Hall and also replacing more our computers sooner than scheduled.

We are so appreciative to have had two fiscal years in a row with a positive net income (2020-2021 net income without the PPP loan forgiveness was $128,662). We were again grateful and humbled by the fact that donations to Sunday offering and the annual fund remained strong during the pandemic. We look forward to seeing what happens in the 2022-2023 fiscal year.

We are already enjoying offering more programming as it feels like we are establishing a new “normal” as students and parishioners return to St. Mary. Thank you!

- Sunday offerings - $1,065,348
- Annual Fund $402,323
- Campus Ministry Investment Distribution - $255,373
- Student fees & donations -$141,371
- Diocesan Hispanic Ministry Grant - $10,000
- Diocesan Campus Ministry Grant - $12,700
- Other Donations to Campus Ministry - $27,132

- Parish Programs - $1,015,086
- Campus Ministry - $656,628
- Diocesan assessments - $126,764

Sunday Readings

NOVEMBER 20 — Feast of Christ the King

Reading I	Sm	5:1-3
Psalm	Ps	122:1-5
Reading II	Col	1:12-20
Gospel	Lk	23:35-43

In Hebron, David is hailed as king of all the tribes of Israel. Jesus is anointed king on the wood of his cross, a sign of paradox, of defeat yet final victory. Through his cross we have passed from darkness into the kingdom of light.

NOVEMBER 27 — First Sunday of Advent

Reading I	Is	2:1-5
Psalm	Ps	122:1-9
Reading II	Rom	13:11-14
Gospel	Mt	24:37-44

Let us rejoice in the Lord's peace; let us live honorably as we await His return.
