SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow. But I say to you, do not swear at all. Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes' and your 'No' mean 'No.'" —Mt 5:33-34a, 37

"Han oído ustedes que se dijo a los antiguos: No jurarás en falso y le cumplirás al Señor lo que le hayas prometido con juramento. Pero yo les digo: No juren de ninguna manera. Digan simplemente sí, cuando es sí; y no, cuando es no". —Mt 5, 33-34. 37

SMSP INTERN PROGRAM Written by Madison Jones, Outreach Intern

I remember the moment that the possibility of being an intern first came on my radar.

It was March of my freshman year. I was on the Ig.nite lead team and had given a personal reflection during the homily during that week's Ig.nite Mass. Afterwards, Linda Mifsud, who was a junior on the Ig.nite team at the time, came up to me and told me that I had done a great job, saying, "I kept thinking about what a great intern you would make."

Now at the time, I shrugged off her comment. Being an intern at a church wasn't really my thing and I assumed that she, and everyone else, were surprised to actually hear me say so much. You see, and it may be hard to believe now, but when I first came to St. Mary's my freshman year, I barely spoke to anyone. I didn't feel comfortable, I didn't feel like I belonged, and I simply didn't feel 'Catholic' enough.

Even though I was raised Catholic and my mom made sure that we attended Mass every single Sunday and on every single Holy Day of Obligation (and believe me, she knows them all), I never really held onto the identity of 'Catholic.' My dad and my older siblings aren't Catholic and have never thought about becoming Catholic. My mom, a public school teacher, is extremely pro-public schools and I attended inner-city public schools my entire life.

So while I lived being Catholic about as well as any other teenager can, a 'Catholic' identity never stuck to me. All of my friends knew I was Catholic, they knew why I had 'dirt' on my forehead every Ash Wednesday, and Lent every year was always a fun time for people to get invested in whether or not I would fail at my Lenten promise. And yet, for better or for worse, the label kind of just brushed off me.

To this day, I still don't quite feel like a 'Catholic' person. I would identify myself by my race, gender, and major before I ever got around to mentioning that I'm Catholic and I really don't think that being Catholic will ever be first on my list of things to know about Maddie. And you know what, that's okay! Being Catholic isn't a label, it's a way to live life. It's not a nametag or a way to identify yourself, it's a lotion that you rub into your skin every day that not only keeps your skin soft (moisturizing is so important y'all), but that soaks into your being and shapes how you go about your life.

And that's one of the (many) reasons that I love this internship so much. I will probably never have a 'Catholic' job... but I don't need to in order to live a Catholic life. And that's what this program has shown me; how to incorporate my faith into a career that most likely won't be faith-based. I am currently serving as the Outreach intern, which is not like the most 'Catholic' of ministries, but I can learn and find ways to live being Catholic through tweeting jokes about Ig.nite. Singing Christmas carols and handing out candy canes on campus is totally something Jesus and his disciples would have done. And that's the most beautiful thing this program could have given me; learning that the label of 'Catholic' is not important, living a Catholic life, in all spaces, is.

CENTERING PRAYER

Mondays | 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by his Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God. Centering Prayer is an intentional openness to, or practice of "waiting" on God, encouraging the building of a more intimate relationship with Jesus and the movement of the Holy Spirit. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer. The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction. The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. All are welcome.

We commit ourselves to being a community of care, support, formation, reconciliation, and witness to justice with and among gay and lesbian persons, parents, family members, and friends.

Our Parish Campaign

Witness to
HOPE
The Catholic Diocese of Lansing

Please Make Your Best Gift

To Strengthen Our Parish and Our Diocese

Let Joe Do it

An old adage we know too well. Imagine what our world would be like if Jesus had said those very words to the Father! In life, there are times when we are presented with the opportunity to make a difference in our lives and the lives of others, yet, sometimes we hesitate to meet the challenge and hope someone else will. The Witness to Hope campaign is one of these moments where we can change lives. The truth is that like Jesus to change lives it means it will take some sacrifice on our part.

Each of us in this parish community can not only enhance our own faith life, but also the faith life of our parishioners and fellow Catholics throughout our Diocese. Our parish is using its share of the funds raised for many important projects that already have been outlined. Meeting these needs will allow our community to be able to better serve all of us, and bring us all through ministry closer to Christ. To achieve all this, we need your support to make it happen. Your personal participation is the key! Your support is needed and is important to the success of this endeavor. So far, the average parish conducting Witness to Hope has had 30% of its people participate. It is our hope that our parish will surpass that level, as we are truly not an average parish!

In the coming weeks, we will hold several campaign gatherings and we hope that you will accept the invitation to attend. It is the sincere hope of our campaign leadership that each of you will prayerfully discern your level of support and make your best sacrifice to our campaign, which is all we ask – your best sacrifice, based on your other obligations. Reaching, even exceeding our goal, will make it possible for us to enhance our facilities, support our community and energize the Body of Christ throughout our Diocese.

“Charity Begins At Home”

Here’s another old adage to think about ... Charity does begin at home, which for us Catholics is not just at our parish. Our Catholic home is in every parish in our Diocese and every place where two or more are gathered in His name. Our Catholic home is in every town in our 10 counties, in the inner city, in our Catholic schools, in the seminaries, in the homes of retired clergy, and in every location throughout our community where Christ’s love is present.

The Witness to Hope campaign presents a unique opportunity not only to impact our lives but also the lives and faith journey of other Michiganders throughout our Diocese. This impact will be felt in future generations, profoundly and deeply. Let's show that we are committed to our faith and not wait for Joe to do it; let's work together to share Christ's love.

Why is the Diocese conducting this campaign?

The Catholic Diocese of Lansing is moving forward on a historic journey to raise $65 million in its first-ever comprehensive diocesan campaign called Witness to Hope. Based on the vision of Bishop Boyea's pastoral letter Go and Announce the Gospel of the Lord, this campaign will advance the ability of parishes to meet critical needs, and for the Diocese to fulfill the shared mission given to us by Jesus for years to come.

How were parish goals determined?

Each parish goal is based on the amount equal to total offertory for that parish in 2015. Parishes with exceptional local needs were able to set goals higher based on need and the results of a successful feasibility study.

What happens if we don't reach our goal?

If the parish does not reach its goal, there will be NO assessment to make up the difference. The parish is simply required to make a "good faith" effort.

How will I be asked to participate?

Every household in the parish will be invited to attend a gathering or meeting in home; or at the Church during the education period. You will receive a personal packet of information to allow you to continue to consider your gift and then act following a meeting.

Is my gift confidential?

Yes, the gift packet you received will be personal to you and your family, and will not be shared with any other members of the parish community.

How much should I give?

Each household will be asked for a gift range, not a specific amount. You will be asked to give this your prayerful consideration and make a Decision of Faith based on the spiritual principles that we should give out of gratitude for the gifts God has given us – out of Joy rather than obligation – and finally – out of Love as Christ showed His selfless love for all of us.

How will I be reminded about my payments?

The Diocese of Lansing is handling all the pledge redemption efforts at no cost to the parish and will send out regular reminders based on the frequency you request (monthly, quarterly or annually).

How will the parish receive its share?

Based on the actual funds collected during each quarter, beginning with the first dollar raised, the Diocese will send the parish a quarterly share check for its portion of the funds during the full redemption period.

Will we be conducting the Diocesan Service Appeal as well as Witness to Hope?

The DSA appeal will be suspended for 2017.

How long is the pledge period, and when will I receive my first pledge reminder?

Pledges can be made over a 5-year period, and parishioners may choose the beginning month and select whether to receive monthly, quarterly, or annual reminders.
