SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness.” —Mt 6:33a

“Por consiguiente, busquen primero el Reino de Dios y su justicia”. —Mt 6, 33

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

EVEN IN LENT, “BE JOYFUL!”

Each year during Lent, Orthodox Christians and Eastern Catholics undertake the Great Fast: they abstain from all meat and fish, all dairy products, eggs, alcohol, and sometimes oil. By adopting this special diet, they remind themselves of their unique relationship with God through Jesus Christ, who comes to us anew on Easter Sunday.

Two years ago, I participated in the Great Fast with an Orthodox friend of mine. It was a blessed and beautiful Lent, but also a difficult one. Since I have limited culinary imagination and skill, Easter was very welcome that spring.

This experience, however, has made me much more attentive to what Roman Catholics choose to do to mark Lent as a different, special, and penitential time. We are all familiar with “giving something up” and variations on it like trying new prayer styles or doing service. But we may not remember that we also omit key parts of the liturgy — no more alleluias until Easter, nor the angels’ announcement of the Savior’s birth: “Glory to God in the highest.”

Sometimes I wonder if these practices are enough to remind us that we’re in a season of recollection and repentance. Are skipping some words at mass and cutting midnight snacks sufficient to remind us that, without Jesus, we have no hope? Or that original sin continues to weigh us down in ways we don’t recognize?

While what we do for Lent is important, how we do it is equally and perhaps more important. That’s the heart of Jesus’ instructions to us in Ash Wednesday’s Gospel: do righteous deeds and give alms quietly, pray secretly, and fast cheerfully.

When I read Jesus’ instructions, I can’t help but remember that St. Paul reminds the nascent Christian community in Philippi to “Rejoice in the Lord always. I say it again: rejoice!” (Philippians 4:4). Is Paul commanding us to be joyful? Most certainly, Jesus is asking us not only to give glory to God in our actions, but also to attune our hearts to God’s constant joy in all we do. How could a child of God be dour or selfish about doing God’s will?

As Jesus reminds us, taking our Lenten observances seriously — like Eastern fasting — precludes being public and dramatic. Such modesty in our Roman Catholic observances may be particularly appropriate for us here in Ann Arbor, amidst the pressure to perform for others as “leaders and the best.”

Maybe our best Lenten observance would be to content ourselves with simply following Jesus, who gives us a task that is easy and a burden that is light (Matthew 11:30), especially when we’re inclined to place demands on ourselves.

So how and what is Jesus asking of us — here and now? He is asking us not to tire of living the Gospel, but to lead joyful lives in service of a God who only desires our greater fulfillment and our unselfish service to his people.

Dan Schutte has been composing music for worship for more than 40 years. Many of his most celebrated pieces, including "Here I am, Lord," "City of God," and "Table of Plenty," come from his years of collaboration with the St. Louis Jesuits.

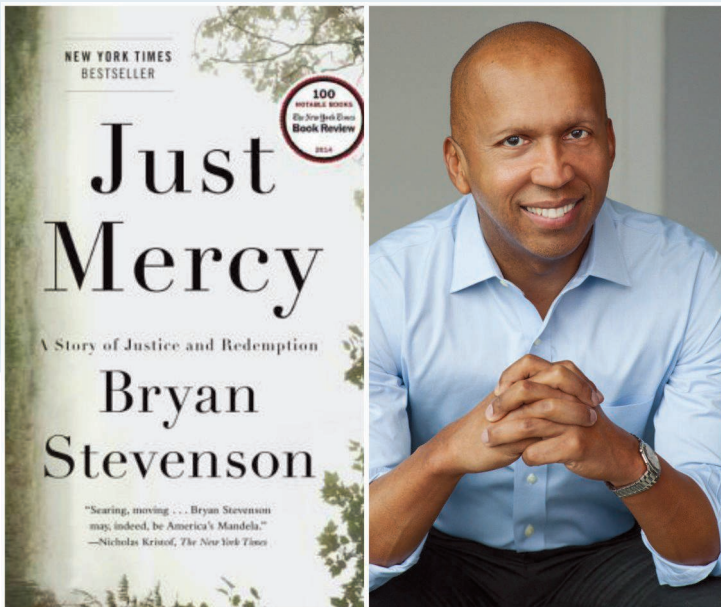

His more recent pieces still exhibit that enduring ability to reach into people's hearts and draw them into prayer. He is one of the best-known, most prolific, and influential composers of Catholic music for the liturgy.
