

ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

MARCH 19, 2017
Third Sunday of Lent

3rd Sunday OF LENT

The woman said to him, “I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything.” —Jn 4:25

TRANSFORMED FOR LIFE

This week we asked two undergraduate students to reflect on their Alternative Spring Break experiences.

We worked with a number of different groups, but interacting with incarcerated individuals and the local community was the most powerful part for me. During our prison visits, I met kids like Elijah and Steven, who were only teenagers possibly facing life in prison or the death penalty, but still maintained hope.

We also frequently interacted with the Delores community, which primarily consists of immigrants. I've never witnessed a finer community. Their generosity and hospitality was remarkable, especially given the significant uncertainty surrounding their future.

My homestay with a local family undoubtedly demonstrated this. My host family's mother, Ana, gave our group so much even though they didn't have a lot.

There were a number of others who represented Christ and were beacons of hope along the way. Pastor of the Delores Mission, Fr. Ted, tirelessly serves his parish; Mike at Homeboy Industries represents hope for so many; and Richard and Javier at the men's jail who, despite long sentences, have committed to educating themselves. Javier is even learning law and serving as his own legal counsel. All of these individuals continue to serve as inspiration.

After my trip, how exactly to utilize this inspiration remained a question. Last week I had the privilege of listening to Bryan Stevenson, founder of the Equal Justice Initiative, outline a tremendous strategy for change. He said you have to get proximate, you must do uncomfortable things, you must maintain hope, and you need to change the narrative. So far, I have done the first three and I hope this reflection helps to accomplish the last one.

-written by Tyler Winterich, Los Angeles, CA ASB Participant

The timing of this trip was perfect. Refugees have been a hot topic and one I didn't understand well. While I felt that we should welcome them into America, I didn't have any understanding of the vastness of the situation. We learned that it takes 15 years on average for a refugee to be approved, and family members aren't always placed in the same country. In fact, only 1 percent of the world's refugees are ever placed in a final country. They say ASB is life changing and it'll break your heart, but I really had no idea.

We assisted in an adult ESL class working with refugees. I was working with Michael, a Cuban who was struggling to understand me. He turned to me with such hope in his eyes and said, "Do you speak Spanish?" Disappointed in myself and our country, I said "No, I don't". Afterwards, I turned to Evan, a fellow participant and said, "I want to drop out and teach ESL." We laughed it off, but it stuck with me. An entire community in our country speaks this language that I haven't bothered to learn. I've been so insensitive. I've learned French and German, but not Spanish, the second most spoken language in our country.

I knew from that moment that God was calling me to change some things in my life. And isn't that what ASB is about? Finding God in both the people you meet and yourself? For His world is hurting and it's up to us to take the gifts He has given us and use them.

-written by Emily Moll, Louisville, KY ASB Participant

The Ann Arbor marathon is Sunday, March 26th. Please note that many streets will be closed downtown which will affect early Sunday masses. Liberty, State, and William will be closed beginning 7:00 AM and will open as the marathon ends. This means you will not be able to drive to our church entrances. Please give yourself extra time to get to mass and plan to park in the University parking structure at Thompson & Jefferson, one block south of our parish.

Although William Street will be closed to traffic, you will be able to cross on foot to reach our parish. The Maynard parking structure will not be accessible until the afternoon.

"When I first came to St. Mary my freshman year, I didn't feel comfortable, I didn't feel like I belonged, and I simply didn't feel 'Catholic' enough.

Now, I still don't quite feel like a 'Catholic' person. But being Catholic isn't a label – it's a lifestyle.

And that's the most beautiful thing St. Mary Student Parish has given me."

IMMIGRATION STORYTELLING

Tues, Mar 21 | 7:00 PM in Newman Hall

Pope Francis has said "The Church without frontiers, Mother to all, spreads throughout the world a culture of acceptance and solidarity, in which no one is seen as useless, out of place, or disposable." Come and listen to the stories of immigration or share your own in an inclusive, supportive, and loving environment. Storytellers are not limited to the spoken word in sharing their stories. All forms such as various forms of art are welcomed. Also, if you would prefer to be anonymous, that option is available.

Contact Bill walt@smspnewman.org Jenny ozorj@umich.edu or Amy aketner@smspnewman.org for more information and/or if you are interested in sharing.

SOUL SISTER

Thurs, Mar 30 | 7:30 PM in Donnelly Hall

An original theatre piece of Edwina Gately's poem "Soul Sister: The Widow's Mite" will be presented at St. Mary Student Parish for one night only. This piece challenges us to look at the stark reality of poverty with eyes of faith. Conversations about poverty will follow.

SOUL SISTER will be directed by Bill Alt and performed by Carly Snyder, former SMSP intern for youth ministry and musical theatre major, with original music by Jeff Thiele, former SMSP intern for retreats. All are invited.

Here I Am, Lord

St. Mary Student Parish
Catholic Campus Ministry at the University of Michigan

presents a Lenten concert featuring

DAN SCHUTTE

FRIDAY, MARCH 24 | 7:30 PM

Dan Schutte has been composing music for worship for more than 40 years. Many of his most celebrated pieces, including "Here I am, Lord," "City of God," and "Table of Plenty," come from his years of collaboration with the St. Louis Jesuits.

His more recent pieces still exhibit that enduring ability to reach into people's hearts and draw them into prayer. The music of Dan Schutte continues to be a part of the standard repertoire for Christian worship worldwide. He is one of the best-known, most prolific, and influential composers of Catholic music for the liturgy.

This event is free & open to the public!

CROSSROADS 2017 EASTER MEAL

Volunteers, Easter Baskets and Donations Needed!

On Easter Sunday, April 16th, the St. Mary's community will prepare and serve dinner at Crossroads Soup Kitchen in downtown Detroit crossroadsofmichigan.org. Volunteering at this event is a great way to share in and celebrate the love of the Easter season with 1,000 Detroit community members and other St. Mary parishioners!

Volunteer at Crossroads on Easter Sunday:
+ 1st Shift: 8:00am-12:00pm (Meal Prep)
+ 2nd Shift: 11:15am-3:45pm (Serve Dinner)

If you would like to volunteer, please e-mail Amy at aketner@smspnewman.org with your preferred shift, whether you need a ride to Detroit, and (if you have a car) the number of additional people you can take with you to Crossroads. If you do not have e-mail, please give the above information and your phone number to the parish office.

We need Easter baskets and lots of candy!

Many children are guests at our Easter meal. Help us give each of them an Easter basket as a special gift from St. Mary! Please donate filled Easter baskets or basket making components (baskets, Easter grass, crayons, toiletries, chocolate bunnies, etc.).

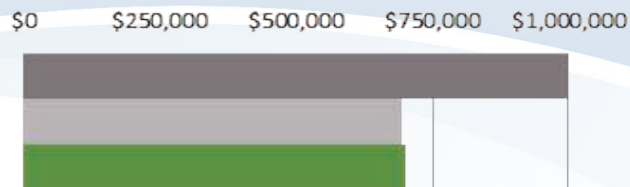

In addition to Easter baskets, each meal comes with a small bag of Easter candy. We would greatly appreciate candy donations—mini/fun size wrapped candies are best. Larger bars and unwrapped candy are difficult to bag, and can get messy. Please take your Easter basket and candy donations to the parish office by Monday, April 10th.

Make a donation.

Your financial support of this communal meal with our brothers and sisters in Detroit is what makes it happen. Please make checks payable to: St. Mary Student Parish and write "Crossroads Easter Meal" on the memo line. You can also donate on the St. Mary's website. Thank you, as always, for your tremendous generosity.

Diana Butler Bass is an author, speaker, and independent scholar specializing in American religion and culture. She holds a Ph.D. in religious studies from Duke University. Her work has been cited in the national media, including TIME Magazine, USA TODAY, and the Washington Post, and she has appeared on CNN, FOX, PBS, and NPR. Diana is the author of nine books

Sunday Readings

MARCH 19

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Reading I	Exodus	17:3-7
Psalms	Psalms	95:1-2, 6-9
Reading II	Romans	5:1-2, 5-8
Gospel	John	4:5-42

Jesus satisfies our thirst for eternal life. Through his Spirit his grace has been poured into our hearts. God satisfies the thirst of the Israelites whose hearts had become hardened and rebellious.

MARCH 26

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Reading I	Samuel	16:1b,6-7,10-13a
Psalms	Psalms	23:1-6
Reading II	Ephesians	5:8-14
Gospel	John	9:1-41

Samuel does not see as God sees in the choice of David, who is anointed with oil. As Jesus cures the blind man, so too are we brought from darkness into light through the grace of baptism.
