CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

OCTOBER 8, 2017
Twenty-Seventh Sunday
in Ordinary Time

28th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME 28° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.’ The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests.” - Mt 22:9-10

“Salgan, pues, a los cruces de los caminos y conviden al banquete de bodas a todos los que encuentren’. Los criados salieron a los caminos y reunieron a todos los que encontraron, malos y buenos, y la sala del banquete se llenó de convidados”. - Mt 22, 9-10

THE ONE TRUE VOICE: reflection on fall undergrad retreat by Henry Burns, SMSP Retreat Intern

Voices. Our life is filled with countless voices, which are constantly trying to pull us in a thousand different directions. These voices could be coming from family members, friends, school, work, society, media, or any other aspect of life. These voices are telling us to say something, do something, or be someone in order to fit a certain narrative in our lives. School, for example, is telling us to study hard and be good students. This is certainly a noble pursuit, but what would happen if we only listened to the voice of school and neglected the other areas of our life? All these external voices, when listened to in excess, can be a distraction from our true purpose.

For example, many of my engineering classmates and I attended the Career Fair which took place a few weeks ago. I spent the entire preceding week going to networking events, polishing my resume, and applying to jobs online. I was at the Career Fair all day for each of the two days it was open, neglecting classes, time to talk with family, and even prayer life. As a result, in the days following the Career Fair, I felt confused, lost, disorganized, and unfulfilled. I had been focusing so much on listening to the people who were telling me the importance of securing a good internship that I had neglected to listen to the one true Voice that will always unconditionally love and take care of us, the Voice of God.

If God's Voice is the central force that is leading and guiding our lives, we will be fulfilled as we take part in a plan that is larger than ourselves. Our actions from listening to the Lord's Voice will carry over into all areas of our life. In order for this to occur, we must continually evaluate ourselves to make sure other voices are not ruling our lives. By having God at our center, which involves taking time to listen to His Voice, we are able to keep these other voices in check and discern which voices God is calling us to be attentive and obedient to. It is essential to take the time to listen to the Lord, so that if He calls us to go out and work in the vineyard as in the Gospel, we hear His Voice above all others and can then go out and put our faith into action.

I would like to invite all Undergrad Students to participate in the Fall Retreat coming up this month, during the weekend of October 20th-22nd. The Fall Retreat is a fantastic place to re-evaluate the outside voices in our lives and create space to refocus on spending time with ourselves and the Lord, while getting to know other students who are on that same journey of faith.

If you are interested or have any questions, please feel free to contact myself, Henry Burns burnshj@umich.edu or Jenny Line jline@smspnewman.org. Or read below to sign up!

THUR, OCT 12 | 5:10 PM

St. Ignatius told his fellow Jesuits to “go forth and set the world on fire” Our undergraduate-led ministry draws its inspiration from Ignatius with a dual purpose: to welcome students into the parish, bringing them together as an undergraduate community through celebrating mass, sharing a meal, and allowing you to engage with faith as it interacts in their everyday lives as college students.

Ig.nite meets every Thursday of the academic year (except holidays) for a student-led 5:10 PM mass in the church followed by a meal, some guided conversation, and socializing. The evening typically wraps up by 7:00 PM.

TONIGHT'S TOPIC: SHARE THE JOURNEY Pope Francis' initiative urging Catholics to understand and get to know refugees and migrants who have fled poverty, hunger, violence, persecution and the effects of climate change in their homeland." The campaign is calling for a week of prayer and action for migrants and refugees Oct. 7-13.

We will also practice mindfulness directly with a couple of guided meditations, and we'll end with suggestions for living more mindfully.

Our meeting will be led by Grace Helms Kotre, MSW. Grace is a Certified Mindfulness Instructor and shares mindfulness with children and adults through her organization, Power to Be, LLC.

She and her family are also long-time members of the St. Mary's community.

(Matthew 28:19) "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and the Holy Spirit."

Evangelization is considered the Church's essential mission. We must find creative new approaches to present the timeless truths of our faith and inspire people to live in and for Jesus Christ as a part of a vibrant faith community. The Holy Father also has called us to provide support for those who live on the margins of our world. Living the Gospel message to care for those in need is an important evangelization effort that must be continued. These funds will be provided in addition to existing support from the DSA.

CENTERING PRAYER

MONDAYS | 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by his Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God. Centering Prayer is an intentional openness to, or practice of "waiting" on God, encouraging the building of a more intimate relationship with Jesus and the movement of the Holy Spirit. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer.

The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction. The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. All are welcome.

OCTOBER 8

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Isaiah	5:1-7
Psalm	Psalms	80:9, 12-16, 19-20
Reading II	Philippians	4:6-9
Gospel	Matthew	21:33-43

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel. At vintage time the master will return to receive the harvest. May we bear fruit in plenty, and be pleasing to his sight by living lives that are marked by love and respect.

OCTOBER 15

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Isaiah	25:6-10a
Psalm	Psalms	23:1-6
Reading II	Philippians	4:12-14, 19-20
Gospel	Matthew	22:1-14

The Lord invites us to a banquet, one of the favorite images of messianic times. This banquet is spread before us and can fully satisfy our needs, yet how often have we refused the Lord's invitation to share in the riches prepared for us?
