EVERYTHING I'VE EVER WANTED

By Brittany Tobias,
Communications
Director

"I can do all things in him who strengthens me. Still, it was kind of you to share in my distress." PHIL 4:13-14

Settling into our fourth year here in Ann Arbor, friends and family still routinely ask how we are enjoying life in Ann Arbor. No doubt, it's a big change from the hustle and bustle of the urban city life we left behind in Chicago. I respond to those inquiries with joy, citing the ease of life here.

My commute is about 7 minutes by car, or perhaps about 30 minutes on foot, walking with my husband and goldendoodle Ruby (she goes to work with him everyday). We have a two-car garage, a messy garden, and incredibly supportive neighbors.

While the day to day stress has certainly subsided, each new year comes with it's own set of challenges. It seems like you've just accomplished the greatest thing you'll ever do, and friends and family ask for more.

When are you starting your first job?
When are you going to find somebody and settle down? When are you going to have kids?

When. The clock is ticking.

This past year has been no exception. I wrote a guest pastoral perspective last December that briefly referenced our personal longing for a child, and how for us, a child was coming that Advent: Jesus.

I needed to let go of the notion that I was in control. Like Mary, who embraced here destiny, responding with "May it be done to me according to your word."

As much as I try to, I can't plan the remainder of my life. What happens will happen - on God's time, and I need to learn patience, even in distress.

We are expecting our first child at the end of November. Notably, we are due on my husband's birthday! With all of the ups and downs on this road, we have decided to wait until birth to discover if God has given us a boy or a girl. Any healthy, happy baby is an answer to our prayers.

This weekend, the second reading gives me so much hope. I can do all things. But not alone. I can do all things in HIM who strengthens me.

There were times when I wanted to give up. And, there were many of you who shared your stories and gave your support. It was truly kind of you, the face of God, to share in my distress.

What I tell those I know closely, is that this is not how I dreamt it up. Ann Arbor was never a consideration, until I met my wolverine husband. Coming from the for-profit business world I never envisioned I'd be - loving - working at church.

But at the same time, I tell them I have everything I've ever wanted. And it's the truth.

BIG READ IS BACK!

Join St. Mary in the 2017-2018 Big Read! This year we will be reading Racial Justice and the Catholic Church written by Bryan Massingale, president of the Catholic Theological Society of America and professor of moral theology. The parish will be hosting various events related to Our Big Read and will be writing a weekly blog with reflections based on each chapter of the book. Books are available in the office; we ask that a donation be made to help defray the cost.

Save the date for an event the evening of November 9th at St. Mary that will touch on some of the themes from the book and also recap the Ignatian Family Teach-In for Justice. Contact Britten bmegargle@smspnewman.org for more information.

GRAD/YP EVENTS

Ben and Jim will help you think about past decisions and give you three methods of making a decision, per St. Ignatius, as well as several Ignatian spiritual principles to help you in making a decision "in Our Lord," as Ignatius might say.

ROOTED

Sign up ends

Tuesday, Oct 17th.

Are you tired of the expectations of others, school, media, society, etc.? Do you feel as though there is no time for prayer amidst school and work? Do you feel the pressure to succeed in all you do? Do you feel like you have to do all things and be all things to all people? We cannot do it all. And God doesn't want us to. This Fall Retreat will provide students a safe haven away from school along with the skills to address the outside pressures they are facing in order to refocus and re-center on what is most important, our relationship with God. Cost of retreat is $75. If you should need financial assistance, please contact Jenny jline@smspnewman.org.

EUCHRE TOURNNEY

FRI, OCT 27 | 7:00 PM

Bring your A-game for the first annual St. Mary's Euchre Tournament! We will start at 7:00 with a 30-minute Euchre tutorial for anybody who has little or no experience. During this time, experienced players are welcome to help teach, or can get a practice round in. At 7:30, we will start a pool play event in which we will randomly select people to play with each other. There will be four rounds of this, each time with a new partner. Following this, the top 8 players will move on to the final round.

THUR, OCT 19 | 5:10 PM

St. Ignatius told his fellow Jesuits to “go forth and set the world on fire” Our undergraduate-led ministry draws its inspiration from Ignatius with a dual purpose: to welcome students into the parish, bringing them together as an undergraduate community through celebrating mass, sharing a meal, and allowing you to engage with faith as it interacts in their everyday lives as college students.

Ig.nite meets every Thursday of the academic year (except holidays) for a student-led 5:10 PM mass in the church followed by a meal, some guided conversation, and socializing. The evening typically wraps up by 7 PM.

Faith Doing Justice

DIAG DAY

THURS, OCT 19 | 1-5 PM

As part of the "Share the Journey" campaign for immigrants and refugees, St. Mary Student Parish is hosting a Diag Day for anyone to come write letters to their representatives in support of the Dream Act.

Backed by the US Catholic Bishops and the Jesuits, this legislation gives people who are immigrants the dignity and respect we are called to give every human being. It is also a needed first step to protect young people who are woven into our communities, yet who are highly vulnerable to deportation and family separation. This event is open to everyone.

We will be providing letters for people to personalize or to write their own. Stand for justice and show your support to our immigrant brothers and sisters by coming out!

SAFEHOUSE

PRESENTATION (in Spanish)

ST. MARY'S DISCUSSION GROUP

SUN, OCT 15 | 3:00-5:00 PM
DONNELLY HALL

TOPIC OF DISCUSSION: AN INTRODUCTION TO MINDFULNESS

Mindfulness is the simple but powerful act of bringing one's attention to the present moment, intentionally and without judgment. Studies show that practicing mindfulness leads to many benefits including improvements in attention, emotional regulation, self-awareness, empathy, and general health and well-being. We will discuss what mindfulness is, how it's practiced, and the benefits and neuroscience behind it. We will also practice mindfulness directly with a couple of guided meditations, and we'll end with suggestions for living more mindfully.

Our meeting will be led by Grace Helms Kotre, MSW. Grace is a Certified Mindfulness Instructor and shares mindfulness with children and adults through her organization, Power to Be, LLC. She and her family are also long-time members of the St. Mary's community.

For more information, or to be added to our email list, contact Sherry Warden at 734-663-8818 or sswarden@umich.edu

BAPTISM CLASS

10/30, 11/27, 12/11- attend one class

St. Mary Student Parish holds a baptism class, in English and Spanish, for new parents one Monday evening each month at 7:00 pm. Parents who are preparing to have their child baptized in the Catholic faith should pick up materials for the discussion from the Parish Office at least one week prior to the meeting they plan to attend. The baptism preparation packet contains articles and discussion questions for parents and godparents. It also contains a Baptism Registration form which must be filled out prior to class.

At the discussion, parents (and godparents, if possible) will have an opportunity to ask questions about Catholic Baptism and schedule their baptism in the Church. If you've attended a baptism class before, we don't require you to attend another. Saturday baptisms are private ceremonies usually celebrated by the deacon.

CENTERING PRAYER

MONDAYS | 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by his Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God. Centering Prayer is an intentional openness to, or practice of "waiting" on God, encouraging the building of a more intimate relationship with Jesus and the movement of the Holy Spirit. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer.

The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction. The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. All are welcome.

OCTOBER 15

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Isaiah	25:6-10a
Psalm	Psalms	23:1-6
Reading II	Philippians	4:12-14, 19-20
Gospel	Matthew	22:1-14

The Lord invites us to a banquet, one of the favorite images of messianic times. This banquet is spread before us and can fully satisfy our needs, yet how often have we refused the Lord's invitation to share in the riches prepared for us?

OCTOBER 22

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Isaiah	45:1, 4-6
Psalm	Psalms	96:1, 3-5, 7-10
Reading II	1 Thess	1:1-5b
Gospel	Matthew	22:15-21

The Lord is king and there is no other. We are to render to God, therefore, fitting praise and service, as is God's due. God's word to us, in turn, is a matter of power and strength, to be lived with conviction of heart.
