CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

OCTOBER 22, 2017
Twenty-Ninth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

29th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME 29° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?” Knowing their malice, Jesus said, “Why are you testing me, you hypocrites?” - Mt 22:17b-18

“¿Es lícito o no pagar el tributo al César?” Conociendo Jesús la malicia de sus intenciones, les contestó: “Hipócritas, ¿por qué tratan de sorprenderme?” - Mt 22, 17-18

SUPPORT OUR DREAMERS by Maria Ibarra-Frayre

Today's readings might be the perfect example of how dangerous it can be to have a narrow understanding of the Gospel, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

When it comes to immigration some people might be quick to say, that I - as an undocumented immigrant - should have given to Cesar (our government/ immigration) what belonged to Cesar. I should have "waited in line", I should have done it the right way, or my personal favorite - I should have just applied to be a U.S. citizen.

I have lived in the United States since I was 9 years, and after 18 years I still do not have a path to citizenship. I don't even have an application process, it doesn't exist. For millions of undocumented people like myself, there isn't a "Cesar" to pay. There is literally no way for me to apply to fix my status. There was a brief ray of hope in 2012 when President Obama announced an immigration relief program for undocumented youth who came to the U.S. as children – Deferred Action for Child Arrivals or DACA.

DACA wasn't extravagant, it only provided the bare necessities: a social security number, an ID/ driver's license, and the ability to live and work legally in the U.S. without fearing deportation. DACA also wasn't permanent and on September 5, Trump revoked DACA and gave Congress six months to come up with a solution. Over a month has gone by without any progress.

So what do we do when our "Cesar" is flawed? When it is actively hurting people? What do we do when our government deports the most vulnerable to countries devastated by violence and poverty? Luckily, the Second reading offers some insight, "For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction." Power is not a word that comes to mind when thinking about our faith, except perhaps when thinking of God as all-powerful. So then, if God is all powerful, and we ourselves are made in the image of God, we must also be powerful. This power is coming to us from the Gospel in order to help us act with conviction and strength to do what we know is right and just.

It is right and just to protect people, to offer them shelter and sanctuary when they are hurt. It is right and just to help a mom whose husband was just deported, or the unaccompanied minor who crossed the border escaping gang violence. And it is right and just to have a critical lens of our broken immigration system and to speak out against a government that oppresses and harms the most vulnerable. Just as God has chosen Israel as it's chosen people, we too must feel chosen to do what is right, to step up and protect our immigrant neighbors, even when it is inconvenient, even when it involves resistance and sacrifice.

Over 150 people have participated in SMSP's letter-writing campaign for Dreamers. Will you join us?
—see insert for ways to support the DACA youth and community.

BAPTISM CLASS

10/30, 11/27, 12/11- attend one class

St. Mary Student Parish holds a baptism class, in English and Spanish, for new parents one Monday evening each month at 7:00 pm. Parents who are preparing to have their child baptized in the Catholic faith should pick up materials for the discussion from the Parish Office at least one week prior to the meeting they plan to attend.

The baptism preparation packet contains articles and discussion questions for parents and godparents. It also contains a Baptism Registration form which must be filled out prior to class.

At the discussion, parents (and godparents, if possible) will have an opportunity to ask questions about Catholic Baptism and schedule their baptism in the Church. If you've attended a baptism class before, we don't require you to attend another. Saturday baptisms are private ceremonies usually celebrated by the deacon.

PRAY THE ROSARY

TUESDAYS AFTER THE 5:10 PM MASS

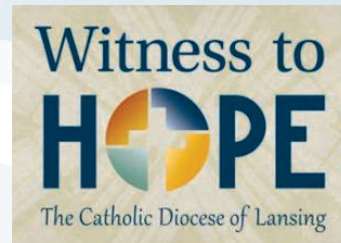

The Rosary is an ancient and powerful prayer of the church. Every Tuesday after the 5:10 mass, you are welcome to join us in a quiet and prayerful recitation of this blessed gift from our patroness, St Mary. Not able to come? Then we invite you to send us your prayer intentions--named or unnamed--to hold up during the weekly Rosary.

Email Toni Morales weena@umich.edu, or ask the St. Mary office staff 734.663.0557 to pass along your requests to us.

FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER, JOIN US FOR:

OCTOBER ROSARY DEVOTION

Join us for the October Rosary Devotion, we will come together to honor Mother Mary with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, the praying of the Holy Rosary, and Marian Songs. This will happen every Tuesday during the month of October from 6-6:45 in the church.

The Witness to Hope campaign invites transformational giving that brings profound blessings to those who give in line with their true ability—and great blessing to those who are served by the Church’s expanded ministry. Guided by faith, through personal prayer, those who contribute a legacy gift can inspire similar generosity from other faithful Catholics.

3 Spiritual Considerations to Guide Your Generosity:

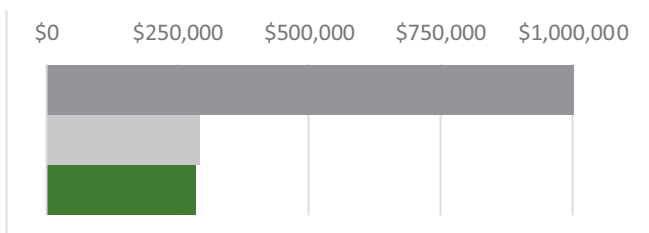

Gratitude Be motivated by gratitude to God, making a generous return to the Lord for all the blessings in your life.

Joy Give freely rather than from a sense of obligation, knowing that God loves a cheerful giver and that true generosity leads to joy.

Love Allow Jesus to fill your heart with His spirit of trust and selfless love for all those served by the Church’s ministry and mission.

FALL RESOLUTIONS TO SPARK YOUR MARRIAGE

Has your marriage fallen into a rut? Even good marriages go through the doldrums. The arrival of Fall, however, can bring new energy and purpose. Why not use this energy to reinvigorate your marriage? Here are four suggestions.

1. Read a book. Would you like to learn more about strengthening a new marriage, or dealing with the challenges of a long-established marriage? How about maximizing your time together, or raising faith-filled children?
2. Try something new—together. Sign up for a class, anything from yoga to current affairs. Set aside one night each week to cook a new dish. Plan a day trip to a nearby town or historic site you haven't yet seen.
3. Volunteer in the parish. Pope Saint John Paul II reminded married couples that their witness to love and life should extend beyond the immediate family. In focus groups with married couples, many participants said that volunteering in their parish helped to strengthen their marriage.
4. How about a Date Night? Don't wait for the New Year; make a Fall Resolution to have a regular Date Night. Take turns planning your date, or compile a list of things you'd like to do on your date and work through it. We've put together some ideas for no cost, low cost, outdoors and at-home dates. <http://www.foryourmarriage.org/marriage-resources/tips-and-advice/weekly-dating-ideas/>

CENTERING PRAYER

MONDAYS | 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by his Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God. Centering Prayer is an intentional openness to, or practice of "waiting" on God, encouraging the building of a more intimate relationship with Jesus and the movement of the Holy Spirit. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer.

The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction. The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. All are welcome.
