Pastoral Perspective

THE POWER OF ALTERNATIVE SPRING BREAK

BY SARAH LASATA, 2019 ASB COORDINATOR

In 2016, I travelled to Cranks Creek Kentucky and met a ninety-year-old woman who had fallen through her bathroom floor in the middle of the night. She had been stranded there until her son came to check on her and found her basically underneath her humble Appalachian home. I was sent on my Freshman year Alternative Spring Break to completely relay the foundation of this home so that Ms. Blevins, the ninety-year-old woman, could move around her home freely without fear of falling through her own floor. Entirely moved by this trip, I fell in love with St. Mary's Alternative Spring Break program.

After this first trip I spent a week living in community with individuals with developmental and intellectual disabilities in the L'Arche community of Clinton, Iowa. I then spent my junior year working with children and the urban poor in Chicago and look forward to a similar trip this year in Baltimore, Maryland. As cliché and simple as it may be of me to note, it was truly through just these three (so far) weeks that entirely transformed not only my college experience but the way in which I see and engage with "service."

I entered my first Alternative Spring Break trip with an open, but mildly pessimistic heart. I rode into the trip on the classic Mother Theresa quote, "We cannot all do great things. But we can do small things with great love." My interpretation of this was realizing that there was no way for me to change my idea of the world in a week, but I could at least show others Christ's love. This notion radically changed for me through my varying trips.

What I have come to realize as the purpose of the Alternative Spring Break program (at least to me) is to understand that it is not feasible to change the world, but rather students should expect to change a series of worlds.

Obviously, there is an intention to positively impact the communities that this program travels to, and this is done. I have seen firsthand the love, comfort, and solidarity afforded by these trips. What often can get glazed over, however is the lasting impact on the worlds of the participants and the communities that they travel back to. Before I went on Alternative Spring Break, the extent of my participation within the St. Mary community was limited to Sunday masses. Alternative Spring Break transformed my world through radically altering my college experience. I dove into the St. Mary community upon my return, participating in programs from Family Faith Formation to being an Ig.nite Intern. I saw many of those that travelled with me do the same.

The beauty of ASB is first and foremost seen through the service and the solidarity that it achieves with varying communities, but it also extends to the eternal influence it has on its participants, thus shaping and changing our own St. Mary community. The power of ASB is not limited to experience of one short week, but rather is seen through its influence in changing our worlds.

ASB BUCKET DRIVE THIS WEEKEND

Over 100 students will put their faith into action through our Alternative Spring Break (ASB) immersion program. They will serve people in rural areas and inner cities. They bring their passion and love to serve with the people of El Salvador and the Dominican Republic.

Wherever they go, they are prepared to encounter Christ in all they meet and to be transformed.

They are collecting donations after all the masses on Feb 10 to help defer the costs of the ASB program. This is the only fundraising event for ASB at St. Mary. Your prayers, support, and generosity are greatly appreciated.

WOMEN OF THE HEART

THURS, FEB 14 | 10:15 AM

On February 14, the discussion of Pope Francis' Call to Holiness continues. Sr. Carol will discuss chapter 3 of the document which Francis calls "The Great Criterion," (Matthew 25:31-46) by which Jesus, himself, describes love in action.

This passage from Matthew is often called the Last Judgment passage, and it's from this that the Church derives its list of the corporal works of mercy: To feed the hungry; To give drink to the thirsty; To clothe the naked; To shelter the homeless; To visit the imprisoned; To visit the sick; To bury the dead.

WARMING CENTER THANK YOU

For the last month, we have welcomed around 100 people to the warming center in Newman Hall each day. The warming center has been a true community center where everyone finds acceptance and openness, where their dignity is recognized and affirmed. We have poured thousands of cups of coffee and shared many meals but most importantly, burdens have been set down and stories have been listened to. A culture of inclusion has been created here.

Now the warming center will move locations to First Baptist and First Congregational Church. I encourage everyone to continue to serve the kingdom of God, to continue to welcome those without a home by visiting the new locations. Thank you to everyone who has visited the warming center this month, donated food, given to the gift registry, and opened their hearts to pay attention to the members of our community who society chooses to ignore. Thank you to Sheri, Karen, Seth, Joel, Lynn and everyone at M.I.S.S.I.O.N. Your dedication is inspiring. Finally, thank you to all our guests who have revealed Christ to us and shown us how to love.

GIFT REGISTRY THANK YOU

Here is an overall view of the project this year:

- 94 guests received 1-2 specifically requested items (most received two). This included a total of 175 requested items with only 2 items not being donated.
- 60 plus additional guests received 1-2 items from the general donations through the free store. Over 120 general items were donated for the free store (blankets, backpacks, clothing, socks, sleeping bags, toiletries,...). This included a generous communal donation from the Spanish Mass Community.
- 72 unique donors signed up through the online sign up genius with donors giving anywhere between 1 and 19 items.
- Approximately 21 volunteers from the SMSp community helped with sorting, bagging, and distributing these gifts.
- The guests were extremely grateful to receive these much needed items.

Thanks again for your support!
