Divine Mercy

2nd SUNDAY OF EASTER 2^o DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Jesus said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.” - Jn 20:27

Luego le dijo a Tomás: “Aquí están mis manos; acerca tu dedo. Trae acá tu mano, métela en mi costado y no sigas dudando, sino cree”. - Jn 20, 27

GRADUATION REFLECTION

BY SARAH LASATA , CLASS OF 2019, COLLEGE OF LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND THE ARTS

Four years ago, when I was in my first year at the University of Michigan, I used to collect these weekly bulletins. They sat on the desk in my tiny dorm room and reminded me of everything that I could get involved in at SMSP. These bulletins also served as a weird comfort as I made the transition into college. I looked forward all week to Sunday mass; it was something familiar, it reminded me of home. Sunday mass became the highlight of my week, and St. Mary gradually became the center of my college experience. This did not happen suddenly, I came for the mass but was eventually drawn further in by the programs and people of St. Mary.

For the duration of these past four years, St. Mary has meant absolutely everything to me. Growing up I attended a Catholic school, but have easily grown more in my faith and general personhood these past four years than ever before. I have the staff, students, and parishioners to thank for making SMSP a place that encourages such growth. During my time here, I participated in so much of what St. Mary has to offer, from Alternative Spring Break to Family Faith Formation and from the intern program to MAGIS, a weekly service placement. This involvement allowed me to grow so much in the ways that I work with others, lead, approach service, and so much more.

In all of the time that I spent at St. Mary I have loads to be thankful for, so many wonderful friends, so many powerful experiences, and so many fantastic opportunities. More than anything though, I am grateful for my relationship with God which has been fostered so well at St. Mary. I have learned to teach my faith through FFF. I have developed such a great understanding of my personal faith and prayer life through formation sessions and meeting with our fantastic Campus Ministers. And I have grown to yearn for a life centered around my faith through my faith-centered service opportunities. I thank anyone and everyone reading this for supporting my own and so many other students' spiritual development.

There is a lot of anxiety and fear that many graduating seniors are experiencing in this new time of transition. What scares many of us more than leaving U of M and St. Mary, however, is the thought of never having had this experience at all. St. Mary has produced a graduating class so strong in their faith and love for others. A class that I am so proud to be a part of. We all have so much to thank St. Mary, and more specifically to thank you for. It is the support and constant involvement of the parishioners that allows for this beautiful place to support so many students. So I stand with the SMSP graduating class of 2019 and thank you for the last four years. They have meant absolutely everything to us.

WITH GRATITUDE

Through the generosity of an artist and benefactor, Dan Kjos, the parish has received the gift of a new ciborium, the vessel used to contain the Blessed Sacrament in the tabernacle.

WOMEN OF THE HEART

THURS, MAY 9 | 10:15 AM

On May 9, we will wrap up our discussion of Pope Francis' apostolic exhortation, Rejoice and Be Glad. We will summarize our study of the document and discuss the importance of discernment, including the value of prayer, reflection, reading and the counsel of others. Discernment is needed when facing major decisions, but we also need it in our daily lives if we want to follow Christ more deeply. Join us as we sharpen our discernment tools and learn to better recognize how the Lord is calling us to live in today's world. Contact Patty pmmm@comcast.net or Phyllis pbmclaughlin@comcast.net

Summer @ SMSP

As summer plans are getting finalized, I keep hearing from more and more students that many of you are staying right here in Ann Arbor. We don't send these mass emails during the summer (Catholic Campus Community has 1,500 members!) BUT we want to keep in touch if you're around. We plan to meet up in the Arb, have casual game nights, and opportunities for faith sharing. So if you might stay in Ann Arbor this summer, go to <https://tinyurl.com/y5zydaws> and let us know!

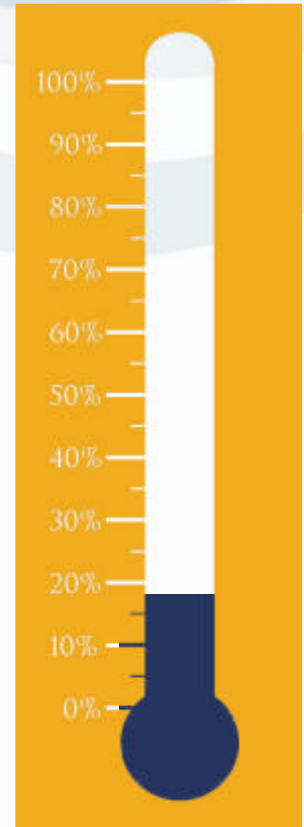

Alternatively, if you are graduating AND staying in Ann Arbor, you can join the grad/yp group. Their next monthly mass & dinner is Monday, May 13. To join the facebook event go to <https://www.facebook.com/events/1994677804173569/>
