Pastoral Perspective

CELEBRATING ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA (But not too much)

BY JOSEPH F. WAGNER, SJ

At a recent gathering of Jesuits in Chicago, one of our younger guys is said to have remarked that St. Ignatius would roll over in his grave if he knew that his name is more often invoked by Jesuits than the name of Our Lord! I am sure that the comment was made both in humor and in all seriousness. Looking over a sample of my homilies, however, although I've often invoked Ignatius, I plead not guilty overall!

Still, I recognize the truth behind the joke. And it is all the more ironic, of course, because one of the hallmarks of Ignatius's spiritual teachings was that we are all to strive for interior freedom in living our spiritual lives. That is to say that we ought to be free of all attachments in placing ourselves at the service of God. And those attachments are anything that we erroneously come to believe are essential or of enormous importance to us in finding our happiness and peace in God. These include all our obvious obsessions and addictions, of course, but the attachments more difficult to recognize are the ones that we can develop toward entirely good things.

Sometimes we can become attached to certain forms or practices of prayer, not only finding them personally beneficial, but perhaps coming to decide that they are essential, both to ourselves and others. We rightly enjoy the celebration of family traditions, but if those traditions become attachments, we then make ourselves miserable when the time comes to accept that they cannot always be carried on. And, of course, even Jesuits can become so attached to the good we have found in the teachings of St. Ignatius, that we might inadvertently begin to see those teachings as ends in themselves rather than useful paths toward God.

A few years ago I gave a talk on attachments at a retreat I helped lead. Afterward, I received a two-page hand-written letter from one of the retreatants expressing his displeasure that my talk took place in a social gathering room rather than in the retreat center's chapel where, he was morally certain, such talks should take place! I'm pretty sure he missed the point of my talk!

St. Ignatius spent years of his life founding and leading the Society of Jesus. And yet, he was known to say that if some future pope ever ordered the Jesuits to disband, he would need only about fifteen minutes of prayer to come to peace with that decision, and then move on with this life. Now that is freedom!

This Wednesday, July 31st, we join the Universal Church in celebrating what we affectionately refer to as St. Ignatius Day, the memorial of St. Ignatius Loyola. This year I will celebrate it asking him to pray that we might all be led on paths of greater interior freedom to live the life to which God calls us.

Joseph F. Wagner, SJ

LETTER TO A SUFFERING CHURCH BY BISHOP ROBERT BARRON

Feeling hurt, angry, or demoralized about the sexual abuse crisis plaguing the Catholic Church? Bishop Barron has written a new book Letter to a Suffering Church for his fellow Catholics who feel, demoralized, scandalized, angry beyond words and ready to quit.

In this book he urges his brothers and sisters to stay and fight. The book is available for only $4.95 on www.sufferingchurchbook.com. We have purchased a few books and have placed them in the Loyola Room. Feel free to take one to read as we continue to pray for all victims of abuse. When you are done with the book we invite you to return it so others may read.

"...The Apostles were weak men who failed often but who were nevertheless called by Christ to go and sanctify others. They chose to rise up after their failures and continue the work that Jesus had left for them. Now, Christ needs new men to rise up and take on the same work he left for those original twelve. If you think you are called to the challenge of priesthood and want a life of joy and amazement at the power of God in you and through you for others, then it may be time to seriously discern in seminary."

Sunday Readings

JULY 28

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Gn	18:20-32
Psalm	Ps	Ps 138:1-3, 6-8
Reading II	Col	2:12-14
Gospel	Lk	11:1-13

In bargaining with God, Abraham demonstrates a real persistence in prayer. Jesus invites us to persist in prayer as well, to “ask...seek...knock”. May our prayer open us to God’s will, and so build up his strength within us. In baptism we have died with Christ, and have been raised to life with him.

AUGUST 4

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Ecc1	1:2, 2:21-23
Psalm	Ps	90:3-6, 12-14, 17
Reading II	Col	3:1-5, 9-11
Gospel	Lk	12:13-21

Listen carefully to the voice of the Lord: set your heart on what will last forever. We only fool ourselves if we believe that our possessions will bring us happiness and life. Instead, “grow rich in the sight of the Lord”.
