“You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives.” - Lk 21:17-19

“Todos los odiarán por causa mía. Sin embargo, no caerá ningún cabello de la cabeza de ustedes. Si se mantienen firmes, conseguirán la vida”. - Lc 21, 17-19

Pastoral Perspective

DON'T WAIT FOR THE KINGDOM

BY BRITTANY TOBIAS, COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR

Today's gospel from Luke is frightening. The story occurs near the end of Jesus' earthly ministry and so it is appropriate for the end of the liturgical year.

As they stood in one of the courtyards of the Temple, Jesus heard one of the disciples marvel at the beauty of the magnificent structure, the heart of their religion and community. Hearing his words Jesus turned and said:

As for these things that you see, the day will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down. [Luke 21:6]

You can imagine the disciples shock on hearing Jesus make such a sobering prediction. The Temple was enormous and looked like it would last forever - a mix of the Taj Mahal in India, St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, and the Great Sophia Mosque in Istanbul.

The gospel's reference to the glory of the Temple is a reminder that many of us live in the midst of beautiful structures. We worship in a beautiful sanctuary. Many historic university buildings are intricate and charming. We can easily say, with the disciples, look at the large and beautiful stones!

But the lovely human-made structures that surround us must never be the ultimate focus for your life and mine. It is not the buildings but the people who gather in them that are precious to us.

A few weeks ago, Fr. Jim preached that it is easier to stay home, warm in our beds, than come to mass. But we have made the choice to be here, gathered as one. Together, we are more significant than any building or structure. Together, we celebrate our belief that God is building us into the Body of Christ.

Buildings and structures may come and go, but the Body of Christ remains.

Today we heard Jesus tell us that the kingdom of God is near. But until that moment comes, I think Jesus is more interested in having us see the significant signs here on earth, than signs in the heavens. Not the signs in the sun and the moon and the stars, but signs in you and me and all of us.

We are not called to see signs, but to be signs. Signs of God's kingdom in the here & now. I know this because I've finally been drawn out of postpartum hibernation and have brought my 4-month old daughter Josie to mass a few times since returning to work.

I saw Jesus in the moms who shared knowing smiles when Josie was fussing her way to sleep during a baptism. Jesus was the friends who rushed to greet me after mass and meet my little girl, or those who asked about my 2-year old son, who is noticeably not at mass, but at home with my husband. Jesus is in my colleagues that listen as I tell them I'm struggling to find balance, being a wife, mother, colleague, and friend - and feeling as though I'm doing all of them poorly.

So, yes, the buildings may fall and we may feel as though we've lost our focus. But look around - your neighbors, your friends - and make your community your focus. Share a smile, offer a hand. Don't wait for the kingdom. Jesus is here today.

NOVEMBER REMEMBRANCES

Together we celebrated All Saints' Day, All Souls' Day, and Day of the Dead or El Día de los Muertos. It is during these celebrations that we honor and remember those we have loved and lost. We recall how they have touched our lives and left this world with the hope and promise of eternal life. This is a great opportunity for everybody in our parish to remember our loved ones in community. We invite you to write the names of those you want to remember on the bulletin board in the atrium, and bring a photograph or item to place on the Altar of the Dead.

Following in the footsteps of our patron Mary, SMSSP celebrates our Feast Day of Service by saying yes to God's call to live out a faith that does justice so that God and the kingdom may again become incarnate, breaking forth into the life of our community with power.

ST. MARY'S DISCUSSION GROUP

SUN, DEC 15 | 3:00-5:00PM

Heaven - paradise - demon - devil - angel - satan - purgatory - soul - apocalypse - prayer - hell - miracle. What do these words mean to you now? How do you define them? How has your understanding of these ideas / concepts changed over the years? Does prayer 'work'? One definition of paradise is "a heavenly beautiful place on this earth". What are places or moments of paradise for you? Come share your thoughts, reflections, and ideas on these concepts. We will meet in Donnelly Hall at 3pm for cookies and conversation and begin the discussion at 3:15.

For more information, contact Sherry Warden at sswarden@umich.edu or 734-646-0721

INTO THE LIGHT

SATURDAY MORNINGS DURING ADVENT

Into the Light is a fellowship group that has been meeting on Saturday mornings during Advent and Lent since the 1970's. Ours is a "Road to Emmaus" style of gathering -- a communion service using the Sunday readings and distributed Host followed by a break fast with a potluck, and round-the-table sharing of brief reflections on the readings. We share our spiritual & life journeys towards the celebration of Christmas through prayer, the Eucharist, and companionship. All are welcome.

This Advent the group will meet at 9:00AM at the Newman Center (Thompson Street doors). on November 30, December 7, 14, and 21.

CENTERING PRAYER

MONDAYS | 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by His Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God. The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. All are welcome.

PARISH BIBLE STUDY

The Strange Ezekiel Wins!

One Old Testament book begins with a description so unearthly, some suggest the prophet who authored it saw a UFO! Want to learn more? St. Mary's Bible Study--after a brief comparison of the major prophets--has decided to pursue a deeper look at the strange book of Ezekiel. Please join us when we kick off our study of Ezekiel Mon. Nov. 4 from 7-8:30pm. (We've already discussed how this prophet refers to his people as prostitutes in his effort to change their evil ways. Odd, very odd....)

Questions? Call Kathy Ann at 734-668-7437. Hope to see you on an upcoming Monday!

CATHOLIC THINKERS BOOK CLUB

2ND TUESDAY OF THE MONTH | 7-8:30 PM

All are welcome and encouraged to participate in The St Mary Student Parish Catholic Thinkers Book Club. The books we will be reading and discussing are listed below. The books will be available for purchase from Literati Bookstore.

DECEMBER 10 - Heretics and Heroes. Thomas Cahill. This book is Volume VI of a series of histories written by Cahill. It takes a broader view of the times of the reformation and includes the "humanism of the Renaissance and the radical religious altercations of the Reformation".

JANUARY 14 - Trent: What Happened at the Council. John O'Malley. As you might remember O'Malley is the author of Vatican II which we read and enjoyed, so this should be good. Also this book is on the heels of our reformation reading and as more knowledgeable folks (Liz) pointed out, Trent addressed the reformation so we will get the church response as well.

FEBRUARY 11 - Vatican I: The Council and the Making of the Ultra Montane Church. Also by O'Malley. This completes the council cycle and brings us to the 19th century and what might be considered the (almost) contemporary church.

MARCH 10 AND APRIL 14 - Pope Francis: Untying the Knots. The Struggle for the Soul of Catholicism. Paul Vallely. This book brings us to the 21st Century and the contemporary church. This book comes highly recommended by member Thinkers and as it is two books in one (!) we will read this over a two-month period.

Contact John Paglione jgpone@sbcglobal.net if you are not already on the Book Club e mail list and wish to be included please send an email to John.

THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

Note: This Fall, our Small Church Communities are spending extra time in prayer and in studying God's Word together. We are including some "Thoughts for the Week" to help everyone in the parish lift their hearts in prayer as well.

"I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking." -- Luke 21: 17

At various times, Jesus warned the disciples that they would be persecuted. Here, in the last discourse, he repeats the same warning, but offers them hope ("not a hair of your head will be lost.")

Jesus also tells his disciples (and all of us) that we are to "persevere" in this life, trying always to live like Christ, and to witness to his good works. Suffering is not the whole of our lives, "Resurrection is the deeper and more abiding truth." (John Shea)

Note: If you'd like to join a Small Church Community, please sign up for next session, which will be held during Lent (beginning Feb. 16). More info will be coming in January.

To see more reflections and prayers relating to the Sunday readings, you can access the SCC study materials on our parish website:

WEDDING BANNES

November 23—Erin Cobain & Paul Swiecicki

Parish News & Events

IG.NITE SPONSORSHIP

St. Ignatius told his followers to "go set the world on fire". Our undergraduate ministry draws its inspiration from Ignatius with welcoming students into the parish, bringing them together in the Eucharist, sharing a meal together, and engaging them with our faith and how our faith makes a difference on our everyday lives.

Ig.nite meets every Thursday with Mass at 5:10 PM followed by a meal and brief testimony of faith. We typically wrap things up by 7:00 PM. We are looking for parish sponsors of these evenings. Typically we have 200 students and the cost of the evening is $800. If you would like to sponsor an evening and come along with your family to be part of the evening, we would love to have you join us.

Thanks for your generous support.

CAREER MENTORING PROGRAM

The Parish Council is excited to announce a new program that will provide an opportunity for resident and student parish members to come together and discuss careers with a spiritual perspective. This month, we will invite resident parishioners to sign-up to serve as mentors. In January, we will register interested students. By February we plan to assign mentoring pairs. We anticipate mentors and students meeting three times over the course of the year.

In addition to providing career guidance, we hope the mentoring pairs will explore questions such as:

- How should I prepare for the transition from school to professional life?
- How do you incorporate your spiritual beliefs into your career?
- How do you balance raising a family with work responsibilities, or when is the best time to start a family?

If you are a resident parishioner and would like the opportunity to mentor a student member of our parish, please visit our website to sign-up and submit your resume/CV: <https://www.stmarystudentparish.org/parish-life/career-mentoring-program/>

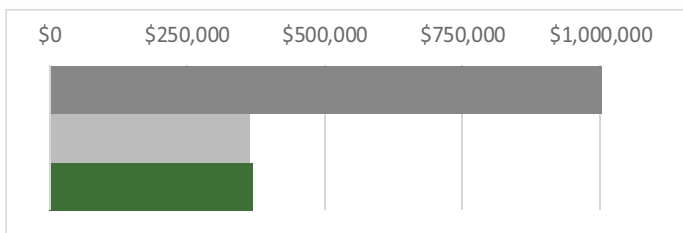

All vocations and levels of seniority are welcome, including retirees.

Please contact the Parish Council with any questions:

Sunday Readings

NOV 17 THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I Mal 3:19-20a
 Psalm Ps 98:5-9
 Reading II 2 Thes 3:7-12
 Gospel Lk 21:5-19

Jesus teaches that his disciples will be persecuted as a necessary prelude to the parousia. Through their perseverance, they will emerge victorious when the Lord comes again. As we await the Day, let us conscientiously fulfill our Christian obligations.

NOV 24 OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Reading I 2 Sm 5:1-3
 Psalm Ps 122:1-5
 Reading II Col 1:12-20
 Gospel Lk 23:35-43

In Hebron, David is hailed as king by all the tribes of Israel. Jesus is anointed king on the wood of his cross, a sign of paradox, of defeat yet final victory. Through his cross, we have passed from darkness into the kingdom of light.
