Pastoral Perspective

THE POWER OF AN OPEN HEART

BY RITA ZYBER, RCIA COORDINATOR

"Ask something of me and I will give it to you."

Most of us believe this, but why does it seem that God isn't listening sometimes? We don't always have an answer for that, but could it be that I'm the one who isn't listening?

If we have this kind of deep trust and open heart (as King Solomon requested in our First Reading today), we will be able to recognize and receive so many gifts and blessings from the Lord. Praying for the desire to know God and to live closer to God's ways helps us to feel happier and more blessed. With God, so much more is possible – more than we even know to ask for.

In my years of assisting with RCIA groups (people who want to explore the Catholic faith and possibly enter the Church), I have been so privileged to witness the power of an open heart.

Our candidates come in each year with doubts and questions. Somehow, through God's abundant gift of grace, they see God's love and God's constant activity in their lives. God is present, even in what they may be questioning or resisting. Their open hearts allow the grace to pour right in. They discover how to listen and receive what God wants to give them.

When Solomon asked for an understanding heart, he was also tapping in to those gifts of the Holy Spirit. He sought Wisdom, Understanding, Right Judgment – those things that would make him a selfless, and just leader. He put God and others first and that greatly pleased God.

Philosophy professor Eleanor Stump (Center for Liturgy Study at St. Louis University) says that Solomon's open heart made him very great among the kings of ancient Israel. "And yet what Christ gives to each one of his own people is greater than the gifts God gave to Solomon. To each person who opens to Christ, Christ gives the indwelling of the Holy Spirit."

I can't think of a better way to live more fully, more freely, and more abundantly. For reflection this week: In what area of my life, or of the world, is God calling me to have a more open heart? Would someone's life, or some situation change for the better if I had a more understanding heart?

If you, or someone you know, is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, or possibly joining the Church through RCIA this year, contact Rita Zyber or Fr. Joe Wagner.

EXPLORING THE FAITH THRU RCIA

Ever thought about becoming Catholic? First, pray and reflect a little on this step. What has God been trying to say to you? Then, give us a call to talk. Our RCIA gatherings help people explore the faith, and learn more about building a deeper relationship with God.

RCIA (the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults), helps those who are considering adult baptism into the Catholic faith, those who may want to convert from another Christian faith, and those adult Catholics who want to complete their Confirmation.

Gatherings will begin in September (though we are not sure yet of our format). In the meantime, give us a call, or send an email.

RACIAL JUSTICE RESOURCES

This new column will feature resources in support of our mission to live a faith that does justice.

Featured this week is an article from February 2020 from the Jesuits Midwest Website, highlighting JARS: Jesuit AntiRacism Solidarity.

"Members of the Jesuit Antiracism Sodality (JARS) began 2020 by spending seven days on a pilgrimage from New Orleans to Mobile, Selma, Montgomery, Birmingham and Atlanta. They visited historical sites and met with black Catholic leaders, dedicating themselves to JARS' mission priority of racial healing and reconciliation, as well as the Universal Apostolic Preferences.

The pilgrimage was just one initiative of JARS' efforts to address the issue of racism both within the Society and its works and institutions. Committed to continued dialogue and action, the group aims for exposure and education not only in relation to the racism of today, but to the history that shaped our current racial conditions and those who have come before us in the struggle for justice.

The January pilgrimage began in the historically Catholic city of New Orleans, with participants learning how Hurricane Katrina disproportionately impacted the black community in the city. The Jesuits visited the Lower Ninth Ward, one of the hardest-hit areas during the 2005 hurricane, and toured the nearby Whitney Plantation.

Although JARS was begun as an initiative of Midwest Jesuits in formation, it is now sponsored by the province and open to Jesuits at every stage of formation and beyond.

Last June, JARS assembled over 70 Jesuits to discuss how the Society of Jesus continues to be influenced by racism and to pray for guidance to grapple with that reality.

The JARS discussion last June included a time of silent prayer where Jesuits reflected on 1 John 1:5-10, "If we say, 'We are without sin,' we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us."
