Pastoral Perspective

WELCOME TO ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH!

BY FR JIM GARTLAND, PASTOR

Welcome back to our returning students, and a warm welcome to our new students. What are we welcoming you to? Our normal Welcome Week will look so different than past years. So too will your fall semester with most classes online and no Michigan football. A fall without football, who would have imagined?

We welcome you to be part of our mission here at St. Mary Student Parish. We are a welcoming, inclusive and diverse Catholic community. We hope all feel welcomed here. We're unique also in the sense that we strive to unite both students and residents, as both bless one another. Through a variety of events and programs we walk, work, and pray together.

Our mission is to evangelize, to allow people to encounter Christ and deepen their faith. The Eucharist is at the center of who we are and the source of holiness. Whether it is participating in mass with your roommates by watching one of our live-streamed Masses online, coming to one of our public Masses, praying with us at Adoration, or receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation, our prayer is that we come to know Christ, love Christ, and follow Christ intimately.

We also promote an Ignatian spirituality. Our spirituality is incarnational, believing God is laboring in the world.

We can find God in all things, in our studies, in our world, and in one another. Prayer is essential in discerning where and how God is calling us. Our faith also is shown in works, mercy is our life style with special attention to those who are marginalized, the poor, the homeless, the immigrant, and the refugee. Justice is a constitutive part of the Gospel and our mission at St. Mary Student Parish.

We are also a parish that believes our own conversion is ongoing. We are committed to gathering together in Small Christian Communities, Alternative Spring Break, and a variety of gatherings and events to deepen our faith and strengthen our community.

How we promote and enhance our mission this year will look different. Prayer and creativity are key. We hope you can come along and be part of St. Mary Student Parish. If you are a new student, please come by and introduce yourself. We would love to meet you. Let's pray for one another. May Jesus be with us, heal us, and lead us this coming year.

With prayers,

Fr. Jim

A MESSAGE FROM CAMPUS MINISTRY

Dear Students,

We are excited to have you back! But, this is mixed with some sadness, as we realize that in light of the pandemic it cannot be "business as usual" here at St. Mary. First, you should know that at least for the present time, in order to protect parishioners, staff and students, St. Mary is not able to open public spaces in the offices or Newman Center. The main office will be available to make appointments and for inquiries, but we encourage you to do what you can by phone or email as much as possible.

The good news is that the church will be open for personal prayer; we just ask that you wear a mask whenever you are in the building, and practice social distancing. We are currently open from 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM during the week but may change in the next few weeks. We will also be slowly opening up new opportunities to gather as safely as we can.

We look forward to seeing you soon, even if it is masked, and from a distance! Have a great week!

Catholic Campus Ministry*

LIVE-STREAMED MASS & COMMUNION DISTRIBUTION

You can watch our live-streamed masses on Sundays at 9:00 AM in English and 10:10 AM in Spanish. Recordings of the live-streamed masses are available anytime following the conclusion of the mass, so you can gather your housemates and all watch together at 9:00 PM if that works better for you!

We also distribute communion at the parish on Sundays from 11:30 AM-12:00 PM. You can come anytime in that window.

MASS RESERVATIONS

Students can make a reservation to attend our 5 PM Mass on Sundays or weekday masses. Attendance is limited to 50 people and you must have a reservation. Daily mass is currently scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays at 5:10 pm but may change over the next few weeks as we try our best to find a new normal. Check the mass reservations sign-up page for the latest schedule and to reserve your seat: <https://bit.ly/smsp-public-mass-reservation>

CAMPUS MINISTRY

With the help of your input, we will be offering "Newman Lounge 2.0," an opportunity to gather a couple of times a week in the arboretum. We will also be exploring ways of making the courtyard at the church available for use by small groups of students. We hope to begin these gatherings the week of September 7.

Campus Ministry will be organized this year with smaller group activities in mind. We will soon be inviting you to join small faith communities of 10 students each, which will be led by our student interns. These communities will serve as the foundation of many things we do this year.

IG.NITE

Ig.nite will continue on Thursday nights, with mass at 5:10 PM followed by the featured speaker or program beginning live online at 6:30 PM. We have invested in a new online platform which should make this a smoother experience than a Zoom call. Our first Ig.nite will be Thursday, September 10. Information on how to join us will be available in the next bulletin.

RETREATS AND OUTREACH

Our Fall Retreat is unlikely to happen as originally planned. We will be working on creating alternative retreat opportunities outdoors or online. We also encourage you to participate in the Retreat in Daily Life, which will begin sooner than usual this year, and extend through to Thanksgiving. Retreat in Daily Life registration will take place soon. Keep an eye out for more information.

As you can imagine, Outreach to new students will be more difficult this year. We welcome ideas that you have and ask you to share with us with the names and contact information for new students you know or encounter, and encourage you to wear your "Michigan Catholic" swag. T-shirts and sweatshirts which are available for purchase in the office. We have plenty of smaller sizes back in stock!

WOMEN OF THE HEART

“CONTINUING THE JOURNEY IN HOPE”

Women of every age are invited to connect, be inspired, and celebrate our faith with one another. Using a virtual format, we will gather the second Thursday of each month, from September through May, from 10:15 AM to 12:00 noon.

Given the state of our world at this time, and also because we had to abruptly bring last spring’s program to a halt because of Covid-19, we will return to last year’s theme entitled, “Continuing the Journey in Hope.”

Our first semester will explore echoes of hope in Scripture and in Christology. Our presenters will be Sister Maribeth Howell, O.P., Professor Emeritus of Aquinas Institute of Theology, and Sister Patricia Walter, O.P., retired Theology Professor of Siena Heights University.

We will devote the second semester to exploring the theme: “Women - Bearers of Hope,” using Sister Barbara Reid’s book, “Wisdom’s Feast: An Invitation to Feminist Interpretation of the Scriptures.” Sister Carol Johannes, O.P. and Nancy Bordley will be facilitating these gatherings.

Come and join us for what promises to be a rich and rewarding experience. We will be gathering via Zoom on the following dates. Please feel free to join us for as many sessions as your schedule allows.

- September 10
- October 8
- November 12
- December 10
- January 14
- February 11
- March 11
- April 8
- May 13

Please direct any questions to Julie Mussio jmussio@smspnewman.org. Julie will be coordinating the Zoom gatherings so please forward to her your email address if you are new to Women of the Heart or have an updated email address.

SMALL CHURCH COMMUNITIES— FALL SESSION

JOIN A SMALL GROUP

Small Church Communities (SCC) will begin meeting again for the Fall Session beginning the week of Sept. 14. Sign up for a small group to reflect and explore the Sunday readings, and to hear what God has been doing in the lives of your fellow parishioners.

Groups are open to all ages and will meet online at various days and times.

Because of public health restrictions, groups will not gather in person at the parish for this session.

Small groups will be an important way for us to stay connected as a parish, and to help support each other in these times of uncertainty and darkness.

Groups will meet once a week beginning the week of Sept. 14 through Nov. 9.

Registration begins Sunday, August 30 and closes on Wednesday, September 9. Click here to register: <http://bit.ly/SCC-fall-2020>

The class is required to be taken only once. It does not need to be repeated for additional children.

Class dates are: September 21, October 5 & 19 and November 2. Pre-registration is required. Please call the parish office to register: 734-663-0557 x 0.

EXAMEN FOR LIFE DURING COVID-19

from the Ignatian Solidarity Network

The Examen is a traditional method of prayerful awareness that is a bedrock in Ignatian spirituality and Jesuit education. It's a short, easy way to reflect on your day and become more mindful about where you are experiencing grace or goodness and where there is room in your actions and life for growth. Especially in times of uncertainty and rapid change, taking time to reflect becomes essential.

What people don't often realize is that the Examen is exceptionally flexible and adaptive. It can be used to review your day or it can be adapted to hone in on a specific issue or focus. So in light of the new set of circumstances many of us find ourselves in with COVID-19, it is helpful to adapt the Examen to this unique situation.

To pray the Examen for life during COVID-19, visit <https://ignatiansolidarity.net/blog/2020/03/14/examen-covid-19/>.

2020 CENSUS

The 2020 U.S. Census timeline has been shifted in order to better protect the health and safety of the general public and the U.S. Census Bureau employees during the COVID-19 pandemic. Michiganders now have until October 31, 2020 to respond. The Catholic Church in Michigan has promoted full participation in the count <http://www.micatholic.org/advocacy/2020-census/> because of the ramifications it has for individuals and local communities:

- The count influences legislative representation at all levels of government, where decisions about the common good and the most vulnerable are often made.
- The Catholic Church relies on an accurate census to more effectively serve those in need.
- Under-counting households leads to under-funding critical programs and services.

The Detroit News featured the Church's efforts <https://www.detroitnews.com/story/news/local/detroit-city/2020/05/28/faith-leaders-2020-census-census-sundays/5280266002/> to increase census participation in an article about the partnership between the faith community and Michigan's 2020 "Be Counted" campaign.

Visit <https://my2020census.gov/> now to fill out the 2020 Census, which will take approximately ten minutes to complete. The process is safe, secure, and confidential, and your response will help direct how billions of federal funds for local communities are distributed over the next decade.

RACIAL JUSTICE RESOURCES

This new column will feature resources in support of our mission to live a faith that does justice.

KNOW JUSTICE, KNOW PEACE: A JESUIT ANTIRACISM RETREAT

"But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us." 2 Corinthians 4:7

"Know Justice, Know Peace" is a four-week retreat hosted by The Jesuit Post during the month of August that seeks to assist Christians in their growth as antiracist followers of Jesus. It will consist of twelve short talks published in the form of videos and podcasts on TJP's media platforms.

As a Jesuit retreat, it follows the basic structure of the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius of Loyola, and provides varied tools to the participant along the way from the Jesuit Spiritual Tradition.

- Week One (beginning Aug 3) focuses on Sin and its consequences, in this case the sin we are examining is racism and the consequences is the oppression of Black Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC for short).
- Week 2 (beginning Aug 10) focuses on what it means to be a follower of Jesus and how antiracism is a necessary component of such discipleship.
- Week 3 (beginning Aug 17) contemplated the passion and death of Jesus and how we can see this in the unnecessary suffering and violence towards BIPOC. Finally,
- Week 4 (beginning Aug 24) focuses on the Resurrection of Jesus and thus examines where we can find hope in the struggle towards becoming an anti-racist society.

Visit <https://thejesuitpost.org/category/know-justice-know-peace/> to participate in this virtual retreat. Since all retreat materials (videos, written reflection, or podcast) are posted to this website, you can participate in the retreat at any time and go at your own pace. New videos and reflections were posted each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday so there are three unique topics and presenters contributing each week.

If you have been abused or victimized by someone representing the Catholic Church, we encourage you to come forward and speak out. Every diocese in the United States now has a victim assistance coordinator who is available to obtain support, to help make a formal complaint of abuse to the diocese, and to arrange a personal meeting with the bishop or his representative, if you desire.

The victim assistance coordinator for the Diocese of Lansing is: Cheryl Williams-Hecksel – 1-(888) 308-6252 or cwilliamshecksel@dioceseoflansing.org. In addition, you may also report through the law enforcement toll-free hotline at (844) 324-3374 (Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) or by email, aginvestigations@michigan.gov

Sunday Readings

AUGUST 30, 2020

TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I Jer 20:7-9
 Psalm Ps 63:2-6,8-9
 Reading II Rom 12:1-2
 Gospel Mt 16:21-27

Following the Lord means nothing less than the cross: offering ourselves with Jesus as a living sacrifice and not conforming ourselves to this world. Following him will entail derision and scorn, yet the Lord is our help.

TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I Ez 33:7-9
 Psalm Ps 95:1-2,6-9
 Reading II Rom 13:8-10
 Gospel Mt 18:15-20

May our hearts not be hardened, but may we turn from our sin. In our love for one another, we may be called to confront our brother and sister for the wrong they may be doing.

PLEASE THANK OUR SPONSORS!

THIS BULLETIN IS FURNISHED TO THE PARISH WITHOUT CHARGE.

The advertisements that appear completely defray all publishing costs with which the church would otherwise be burdened. Please patronize these sponsors as a thank you for their kind generosity.
