FORGIVE

“Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus answered, “I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times.”

MATTHEW 18:21-22

“Si mi hermano me ofende, ¿cuántas veces tengo que perdonarlo? ¿Hasta siete veces?” Jesús le contestó: “No sólo hasta siete, sino hasta setenta veces siete”.

MATEO 18, 21-22

Pastoral Perspective

EMPHASIZING EMPATHY

BY BRENDAN DAILEY, ALUM, PARISHIONER AND YOUNG PROFESSIONAL

I write these thoughts at the conclusion of yet another tumultuous week, during a tumultuous year. This particular week witnessed Jacob Blake, a black man in Kenosha, Wisconsin, get shot seven times in the back by a police officer. The ensuing protests quickly turned chaotic when a white minor and self-professed vigilante brought his assault rifle across state lines and shot three protestors, killing two of them. These are heavy events that seamlessly connect to the bizarre and grotesque tapestry 2020 has woven. With this being an election year on top of everything else, op-eds, punditry, and self-righteous snark await us, vying for our attention on nearly any news or social media site you might choose. I don't have to tell you how divisive things feel this year - we all feel it.

My Facebook newsfeed these days consists almost exclusively of folks who more or less see the world through the same political lenses as I do, but one recent post made me pause: "If you are even thinking of voting for X, unfriend me immediately." Now, I'm not writing this to criticize the post's author. I understand the anger and fear contained within those words. But I think it exemplifies a great problem we face today, particularly (though far from exclusively) in social media - a lack of empathy. I know, I sound naive. "There's no reasoning with those people," you think to yourself. Sometimes, there really isn't! I know that. All too often though, I think we fail to try to understand the reasons behind why a person thinks the way they do, and instead we stew, we sharpen our knives, and try to craft just the right response to put them in their place.

I'm not suggesting every political idea has merit, or that every notion needs to be tolerated. Nor am I even suggesting that we have to engage with everyone that has a different position than we do. What I am suggesting though, is that we stop disparaging others just because their life experience and mindset place importance on different things than we each individually do. While we might disagree with someone, even vehemently so, that doesn't change the fact that they remain a human person - not just some avatar - who is loved by God. So while it may be healthy and in our best interest to ignore a comment and not respond, or even block someone from our newsfeeds, we need to do so without ignoring their humanity, without relegating them to being some caricature of "the other side", and instead recognize that their opinions and beliefs come from somewhere genuine, rather than some deep-seated urge to drive you up a wall.

In today's readings, both Sirach and Jesus (by way of Matthew) put the importance of forgiveness in the spotlight. "Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins?", Sirach writes. And in the Gospel, Jesus petitions us, not just to forgive, but to forgive "your brother from the heart." What I read in these lines is that empathy is the first necessary step toward being able to forgive another. When we lose the desire (or ability) to empathize with people, especially those we disagree with, we lose the ability to find any sort of common ground, and we fail to see other people as "like ourselves", as our brothers and sisters. Instead we paint them as something else, something unworthy of our attention, time, care, love, and forgiveness. And as these scriptures tell us, if we begin to "refuse mercy" to our brothers and sisters in Christ, we may ultimately be unable to request forgiveness for ourselves.

As we begin a new week, let's try to get back into the habit of empathizing with one another and treating others as our neighbors, especially those we disagree with, in our in-person and online interactions. Maybe if we all had a little more empathy for one another, Jacob Blake wouldn't be paralyzed, an Illinois minor wouldn't have silenced two lives forever, and our election years would be a little more tolerable. Or, maybe I'm just overly optimistic from watching through The West Wing. Either way, I think it's worth a shot.

Graduate Student/Young Professionals

A WELCOME MESSAGE FROM THE GRAD/YP LEAD TEAM

We want to take the opportunity today to extend a welcome to the wide range of graduate students and young adults, either returning or arriving this year: Graduate Students, PostDocs, Visiting Scholars, and Young Professionals who are joining us.

The Graduate Students and Young Professionals (Grad/YP) Group offers you a home here at St. Mary Student Parish. We host a variety of both spiritual and social events throughout the year, offering opportunities for prayer, conversation, networking, and strengthening our spiritual lives through friendship and community.

Like everyone, we have had to re-think and re-invent some new ways to be together this year, but we hope that, recognizing that we are all in this together, we can still be a source of support and respite from the larger stresses of life and work—even if virtually—through this most unusual time.

The Grad/YP Group is led by seven members of our community along with Fr. Joe Wagner, SJ, from the parish staff. We invite you to check out some of our planned activities listed to the right, sign-up to receive our monthly (or so) news bulletin if you haven't already, and contact us to introduce yourself, ask any questions you might, or share ideas for how we might strengthen our group at this time.

Finally, please join us for our first virtual Mass and Dinner event on Monday evening, September 14th, at 7:00 pm. You can find more information below and on our webpage: <https://www.stmarystudentparish.org/parish-life/grad-student-young-professional/>

We are glad you found us, and we wish you a good, safe, grace-filled academic year.

Faith Doing Justice

PARISH POLICY ON DISTRIBUTION OF CAMPAIGN MATERIALS

During this election season, our parish will be utilizing materials from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops on Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship <https://www.usccb.org/offices/justice-peace-human-development/forming-consciences-faithful-citizenship> and Civilize It <https://www.wearesaltandlight.org/civilize-it>.

These materials are non-partisan and seek to help Catholics engage in the political process with an informed conscience, as our faith calls us to do. Distribution of other election-related materials on church property will not be permitted. Among other activities, posting flyers or signs, passing out campaign literature, and leaving unauthorized materials anywhere in the building, are prohibited. We appreciate your compliance with this policy.

2020 CENSUS

The 2020 U.S. Census timeline has again been shifted in order to better protect the health and safety of the general public and the U.S. Census Bureau employees during the COVID-19 pandemic. Michiganders have until September 31, 2020 to respond.

Visit <https://my2020census.gov/> now to fill out the 2020 Census, which will take approximately ten minutes to complete. The process is safe, secure, and confidential, and your response will help direct how billions of federal funds for local communities are distributed over the next decade.

This revised timeline was put into effect on August 3, 2020, but was not widely circulated. Please note that materials previously published by Michigan Catholic do not reflect this update. However, there is still an urgent need to increase participation to:

- determine the state's representation in Congress for the next decade.
- influence the way legislative lines are drawn at the federal and state levels.
- inform emergency preparedness and public safety plans across Michigan.
- guide how federal funding is distributed to communities for local needs.

Please visit <http://www.micatholic.org/advocacy/2020-census/> for more information on the importance of the census, but be aware the response date has not been updated to reflect the new deadline of September 31, 2020.

RACIAL JUSTICE RESOURCES

This new column will feature resources in support of our mission to live a faith that does justice.

Reflection from USCCB on 1 Corinthians 12: 12-14, 16-21, 24-26 <https://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/racism/upload/scripture-reflection-unity.pdf>

Racism is an evil that divides our neighborhoods, our cities, and our country. Like an illness that weakens a physical body, racism weakens the Body of Christ. Any act of racism is a sin that harms both the perpetrator and the victim and denies the dignity of both.

Here are some questions we can use to examine our participation in racism through our thoughts, attitudes, actions and inactions:

1. Have I fully loved God and fully loved my neighbor as myself?
2. Have I caused pain to others by my actions or my words that offended my brother or my sister?
3. Have I done enough to inform myself about the evil of racism, its roots, and its historical and contemporary manifestations? Have I opened my heart to see how unequal access to economic opportunity, jobs, housing, and education on the basis of skin color, race, or ethnicity, has denied and continues to deny the equal dignity of others?
4. Is there a root of racism within me that blurs my vision of who my neighbor is?
5. Have I ever witnessed an occasion when someone experienced personal, institutional, systematic or social racism and I did or said nothing, leaving the victim to address their pain alone?
6. Have I ever been in a situation when someone experienced personal, institutional, systematic or social racism—and I helped to cause their pain, acting contrary to love of God and love of neighbor?
7. Have I ever supported or aided a person who experienced personal, institutional, systematic or social racism and paid a price for it? How did I react? Did my faith grow? Am I willing to grow even more in faith through my actions?
8. How am I called to respond to the evil of racism?

DISCERNING THE WILL OF GOD RETREAT WITH FR. GALLAGHER

SEPT 25-27

The weekend of Sept 25-27, the Diocese of Lansing will be hosting a virtual retreat with Fr. Timothy Gallagher. This retreat will provide practical application in discernment of various life decisions with the foundation of Ignatian spirituality of the Discernment of Spirits.

Attendees can tune in virtually from their homes or from the St. Francis Retreat Center (to still participate virtually but have additional parts including: Mass, spiritual direction, Examen and other prayers forms, etc.). See the Diocese of Lansing website for further details and to register (link below). Cost $30 virtual only or $115 virtually while at the retreat center.

See the website <https://www.dioceseoflansing.org/event/ignatian> or this Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/events/345010159837811/> for more details.

Thank you to those who have already contributed to this year's Diocesan Services Appeal. Our parish goal for 2020 is $97,785. If you are still prayerfully considering your contribution, more information can be found online at <https://www.dioceseoflansing.org/DSA>.

DSA is about so much more than money. DSA helps us all, as donors and beneficiaries, to move along the path of discipleship. Together, we can follow the Lord and witness to the salvation given to us in Jesus Christ.

How can we move along the path of discipleship together?

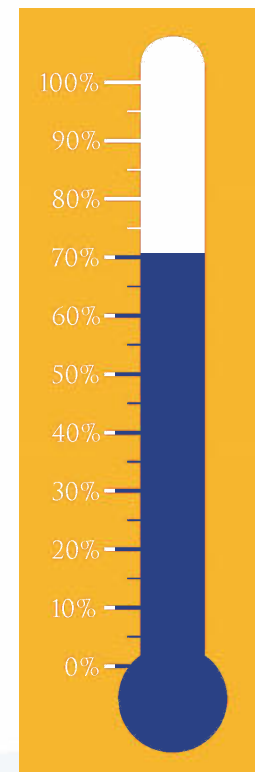

We can support our seminarians to get the best training they can have to be good and holy leaders of our church. We can care for our senior priests who have dedicated a life of service to the church and its people.

We can serve those people who are helping God's people who are most in need. We can assure that Catholic Charities has the resources required to make a difference in their lives, to provide the hope and help they need.

We can make sure that our parish staff and parish schools have professional resources available. We can't do everything on our own here at our parish. We need the expertise of worship, and finance, and legal, and human resources professionals at the diocese that serve and support our parish ministries and operations.

Let's join together to make sure our seminarians, our clergy, our Catholic Charities workers, and our parish staff, catechists and educators and all who are engaged in the life of the church have the resources they need to do their jobs well, and help us form a strong Catholic community of disciples here at our parish.

AMDG THANK YOU!

Shortly before we temporarily closed our parish last March, we added the Latin phrase "Ad maiorem Dei gloriam" along with its English translation "For the greater glory of God" to our lobby. Located above the elevator doors, this phrase welcomes all who enter our doors.

Often abbreviated as AMDG, the origin of the phrase is attributed to St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, who intended it to serve as a cornerstone sentiment of the society's religious philosophy. With these words, we are reminded to live our lives for the greater glory of God and called to honor, praise, and thank the God who created the world for goodness, unity, and love.

We would like to extend our deepest gratitude to a local donor who would like to remain anonymous for this wonderful contribution to our atrium.

BAPTISM CLASS—ENGLISH

OUR MISSION

St. Mary Student Parish is a welcoming, Inclusive, caring, and diverse Catholic community, uniting residents and students.

We are Christ-centered with the Eucharist as the source of holiness in our vibrant liturgical life.

Inspired by Ignatian spirituality, we live a faith that does justice, reaching out to the marginalized.

As an apostolic parish, we are committed to ongoing formation of Christian witness, discipleship, and leadership.

Sunday Readings

SEPTEMBER 13, 2020

TWENTY FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

| | | |
|------------|-----|--------------|
| Reading I | Ez | 33:7-9 |
| Psalm | Ps | 95: 1-2, 6-9 |
| Reading II | Rom | 13: 8-10 |
| Gospel | Mt | 18: 15-20 |

May our hearts not be hardened, but may we turn from our sin. In our love for one another, we may be called to confront our brother and sister for the wrong they may be doing.

SEPTEMBER 20, 2020

TWENTY FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

|------------|------|---------------------|
| Reading I | Is | 55:6-9 |
| Psalm | Ps | 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18 |
| Reading II | Phil | 1:20c-24, 27a |
| Gospel | Mt | 20:1-16a |

How different are the Lord's ways from our own! Gracious and good to all, the Lord is equally generous in compassion and love to both those who are quick to respond to his invitation, as well as those who are slow to hear his call. May the Lord Jesus always be our life.
