Pastoral Perspective

SAYING YES - FOR REAL

WRITTEN BY FR. JOHN FOLEY, SJ

God at times appeals to our self-interest in order to get us to do what is right. In other words he uses our self-interest to reach beyond our self-interest, so to speak. We are shown this in the first reading, where we find a straight-out argument between the people and God. The people claim that "The Lord's way is not fair!"

Earlier they had quoted the famous saying, "The parents eat sour grapes, but the children's teeth are set on edge" (Ez 18:2). Apparently they are arguing that sin should be attributed to their fathers or mothers, but not to them. Therefore God is punishing them unjustly.

God replies: Hear now, house of Israel: Is it my way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair?

He shows them that punishment comes to those who actually commit an iniquity, not to those who just happen to be born of the parents of the iniquity. "It is your own actions that matter. If you sin, it is fair that I punish you. If you do virtue, it is fair that I give you life."

Jesus takes it one step further in the Gospel. We hear a parable about a man being asked by his father to go work in the vineyard. The man says, rudely, "I will not." Surely he would be counted as one of the sinful people described above. Or maybe he just had a headache, or was not a morning person, or whatever. But when his father leaves the house, this one changes his mind and goes out to work hard on the grape vines.

He has a brother. The brother says in effect, "Yes, of course I will go out and do your will!" Isn't this exactly what God had been telling the people in the First Reading? I am sure the father in this parable was pleased, especially after the rude reply he had gotten from his other son. Of course, as we know, this brother too changed his mind. He did not bother to go at all.

This second brother's selfish interests were served by saying "yes, yes" to his father. It made him look good. But he did not trouble himself to actually do what he promised. Self-interest did not get him to do good, but only to seem to do good.

St. Paul says to look at what Christ did (Second Reading) if we want true motivation, as well as encouragement, solace, participation in the Spirit, compassion, and mercy.

Then we will not act out of selfishness, but will serve others humbly, as he did. This is the ultimate motivation in Christianity.

Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus, Who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped.

Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this God greatly exalted him.

Self-interested motives are not the only ones. Let us just look at Christ—when we are at prayer and at Mass—and let him form us in humility. Let God make us good.

CONTEMPLATION AND POLITICAL ACTION: AN IGNATIAN GUIDE TO CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

The Jesuit Conference of Canada and the United States reflects on our Gospel call to promote the common good in the public square.

While the document's authors know that many Catholics are reluctant to mix faith and politics, they hope that its approach will resonate with that audience. The guide does not include lists of political positions to take as a Catholic, but it suggests opportunities for personal engagement through reflection questions, prayer prompts and anecdotes.

Contributor Father Penton explains that "faithful Catholics support different candidates and policies. To us, that's not a reason to not engage in politics. That's a reason to be more reflective, to be more prayerful, to enter into dialogue about how our faith informs our politics. It is not a reason to retreat from politics."

Click here to download the guide: <https://www.jesuits.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/08/CivicEngagement-v10.pdf>

POLITICAL ENGAGEMENT IS OUR RESPONSIBILITY: LEARN ABOUT THE ISSUES!

In their statement on Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the U.S. Catholic bishops lift up various issues of different moral weight and urgency. Some issues they mention include: "protecting the unborn, refugees and immigrant families; fighting racism and religious intolerance; aiding those impacted by poverty and conflict; preserving the family; and caring for our common home." RACIAL JUSTICE RESOURCES

This new column will feature resources in support of our mission to live a faith that does justice.

USCCB AD HOC COMMITTEE AGAINST RACISM

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has recently redesigned their website and has added a robust Ad Hoc Committee Against Racism which seeks "to teach about and to witness the intrinsic dignity of the human person as an antidote to the grave sin of racism."

From their website: https://www.usccb.org/committees/ad-hoc-committee-against-racism:

"Racism is a sin: a sin that divides the human family, blots out the image of God among specific members of that family, and violates the fundamental human dignity of those called to be children of the same Father." (Brothers and Sisters to Us, 1979). Racism lives in a particular and pernicious way in the United States, in part because of the complex history of slavery in the country, and the beliefs and policies that sustained it. African Americans have suffered intensely from those who have committed, and continue to commit, the sin of racism. But racism has also ravaged the lives and livelihoods of many other groups of people, and its targets and destructive manifestations are ever-evolving.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Ad Hoc Committee Against Racism seeks to teach about and to witness to the intrinsic dignity of the human person as an antidote to the grave sin of racism. The Committee explores and implements concrete solutions to address the racism that still pervades our society and our Church today, and works in collaborative ways to strengthen the response of all people to this evil.

WOMEN OF THE HEART

“CONTINUING THE JOURNEY IN HOPE”

THURS, OCT 8 | 10:15 AM

Women of every age are invited to connect, be inspired, and celebrate our faith with one another. Using a virtual format, we'll gather the second Thursday of each month through May, from 10:15 AM to 12:00 noon.

Given the state of our world at this time, and also because we had to abruptly bring last spring's program to a halt because of Covid-19, we will return to last year's theme entitled, "Continuing the Journey in Hope."

Our first semester will explore echoes of hope in Scripture and in Christology. Our presenters will be Sister Maribeth Howell, O.P., Professor Emeritus of Aquinas Institute of Theology, and Sister Patricia Walter, O.P., retired Theology Professor of Siena Heights University.

We will devote the second semester to exploring the theme: "Women - Bearers of Hope," using Sister Barbara Reid's book, "Wisdom's Feast: An Invitation to Feminist Interpretation of the Scriptures." Sister Carol Johannes, O.P. and Nancy Bordley will be facilitating these gatherings.

Come and join us for what promises to be a rich and rewarding experience. We will be gathering via Zoom on the following dates. Please feel free to join us for as many sessions as your schedule allows.

- November 12
- December 10
- January 14
- February 11
- March 11
- April 8
- May 13

Julie Mussio jmussio@smspnewman.org with any questions. She will be coordinating the Zoom gatherings so please forward to her your email address if you are new to Women of the Heart or have an updated email address.

35TH ANNUAL RED MASS

TUES, OCT 6 | 5:15 PM

LIVE STREAMED FROM ST. MARY CATHEDRAL

You are cordially invited to attend and participate in the Catholic Lawyers Guild-sponsored 35th Annual Red Mass, on Tuesday, Oct 6 at 5:15 PM, at St. Mary Cathedral, Bishop Earl Boyea, main celebrant.

This year the prestigious Thomas Moore Award will be given to FR. THOMAS M. FIRESTONE via live stream at the Diocese of Lansing YouTube page <https://preview.tinyurl.com/y4numrm8>.

For nearly nine centuries, the celebration of the Red Mass has served to invoke the blessing of the Holy Spirit on the works of the courts in the new term.

Due to Covid, there will be no dinner reception following the Mass.

Fr. Firestone was born in Ida, Michigan. He was ordained for the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, received a Masters of Divinity and a Masters of Religious Education. Fr. Firestone was assigned as chaplain at the Abbey of Regina Laudis. He has worked on behalf of the Bishops of the Heartland Association in trying to maintain family farms. He received a Masters of Science from Michigan State University in Agriculture and a JD from Thomas M. Cooley Law School. He founded Alma Redemptoris Mater, which is an interface between religious and diocesan priesthood.

In 2014 Bishop Boyea assigned him to be the pastor for the Catholic Community of Flint which included four parishes. In 2015, he created a community of diocesan priests to work with the people of Flint. They engage with the people of the city and try to embrace each relationship given through the Holy Spirit. Due to the water crisis they placed the city under the patronage of Holy Mary Mother of Flint. In 2016, Bishop Boyea approved this title and icon.

MISSION COOPERATIVE APPEAL

“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” (Mt 28:19)

Each year the Parishes of the Diocese of Lansing are invited to participate in the Mission Cooperative Appeal Program during the summer months.

THE PURPOSE OF THE MCP IS TWO-FOLD:

First, many Mission Dioceses, Religious Congregations, and Lay Organizations, serving in the missions, receive a chance to personally appeal for prayer and financial support from our Parishes.

Secondly, as Catholics we have the opportunity to increase Missionary Awareness, and to learn about mission life today.

The visiting Missionary offers the opportunity for the people to reflect on their vital role in the universal mission of the Church to spread the Gospel and the need to strengthen their concern for their brothers and sisters around the world as a part of their baptismal call.

In light of the worldwide pandemic, for the safety of all concerned, it was decided that we would not be inviting guest missionary speakers into the parishes this year. However, we do not want those in the most dire need to suffer as a result of this decision. The impoverished people of God, in countries all around the world, have also been deeply affected by the pandemic and continue to need our help and prayers.

The Department of Communications has developed a short video message in lieu of a face to face speaker:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Xhw1iGjSGAE>

We hope that this message will encourage you, if you are able at this time, to pray for and donate toward our longstanding, core mission groups. All funds collected will be combined and divided equally among these groups.

For your convenience the option to make a donation online is available through the Diocese of Lansing website <https://www.dioceseoflansing.org/make-a-gift>.

Please join us in the continued support of our Missioners and the tremendous work of Christ Jesus that they undertake.

OUR MISSION

St. Mary Student Parish is a welcoming, Inclusive, caring, and diverse Catholic community, uniting residents and students.

We are Christ-centered with the Eucharist as the source of holiness in our vibrant liturgical life.

Inspired by Ignatian spirituality, we live a faith that does justice, reaching out to the marginalized.

As an apostolic parish, we are committed to ongoing formation of Christian witness, discipleship, and leadership.

Sunday Readings

SEPTEMBER 27, 2020

TWENTY SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Ez	18:25-28
Psalm	Ps	25:4-9
Reading II	Phil	2:1-11
Gospel	Mt	21:28-32

Jesus was obedient to the Father, even to death on a cross. We need never fear if we turn away from the path of virtue for the Lord is ever ready to forgive us, if we but repent. Remember, the Lord's compassion and kindness are from of old.

OCTOBER 4, 2020

TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Is	5:1-7
Psalm	Ps	80:9, 12-16, 19-20
Reading II	Phil	4:6-9
Gospel	Mt	21:33-43

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel. At vintage time the master will return to receive the harvest. May we bear fruit in plenty. And be pleasing in his sight by living lives that are marked by love and respect.
