Pastoral Perspective

VOTING IS AN ACT OF LOVE

BY CECELIA RIVET, INTERN FOR FAITH DOING JUSTICE

As Catholics, we are called to be directly involved in politics. In a 2013 homily, Pope Francis said that “ good Catholics meddle in politics, offering the best of themselves, so that those who govern can govern... according to the Social Doctrine of the Church, politics is one of the highest forms of charity, because it serves the common good.” This quote is a powerful reminder of the ways in which voting and civic engagement allow us to love our neighbors.

From October 7th to 15th, students at St. Mary published a series of videos reflecting on Catholic Social Teaching and the election. This “Voting as an Act of Love” social media campaign highlighted the seven tenets of Catholic Social Teaching: Life and Dignity of the Human Person, Call to Family, Community and Participation, Rights and Responsibilities, Option for the Poor and Vulnerable, The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers, Care for God’s Creation, and Solidarity. We related each of these tenets to voting! This teaching reminds me of our Catholic intention to build a just society and our belief that every person has inherent dignity and a right to life because of that dignity. This reflection of Catholic Social Teaching empowers and inspires us to vote. In Chapter 25 of Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus calls us to feed the hungry, invite in the strangers, clothe the naked, and visit the imprisoned. Voting is a powerful way that we can do this! While we can feed the hungry through direct service, we go to the root of social issues and try to change systems and structures so people won’t go hungry anymore. I want to encourage you to reflect on the life of Jesus and our Catholic faith to vote for candidates that take into consideration the human dignity and right to life of all of our brothers and sisters: those who are undocumented, incarcerated, or most vulnerable to climate change.

Though love is patient and kind, engaging in politics is not. As you reflect on your call to vote as an act of love, I wanted to provide you with a pledge to commit to civil conversation. This pledge is a reminder to make room in your heart for those with whom you disagree. You can sign it here at this link: <https://www.wearesaltandlight.org/civilize-it>. Read the article below for the Pledge details.

Let us remember our call to recognize that each one of us is a beloved child of God during this election season! I encourage you to please vote in the coming week if you have not done so already. Vote with the hopes you have for the compassion needed by our human family in this nation and the world.

PLEDGE FOR CIVIL CONVERSATION

As Catholics, we have a long tradition of engagement in the political process as a means of putting our faith into action. We are called to bring the best of ourselves and our faith to the public square—and yet today, many shy away from such involvement because our national and local conversations are filled with vitriol and harsh language, often directed at people themselves.

When personal attacks replace honest debate, no one wins. This kind of attack, no matter the reason, only serves to further divide our communities. As Catholics, we must model a better way. We invite you to join the Civilize It campaign by taking the pledge below as a way to promote civility, love our neighbors, and build community.

Civilize It is about making room in your heart for those with whom you disagree. We are called to recognize that each one of us is a beloved child of God and to respond in love to that reality. Civilize It is a non-partisan call to focus on the dignity of all people, even when we disagree, and to put faith in action by bearing witness to a better way forward.

Take the pledge below as an individual, family, or community. Anyone and everyone can commit together to honoring human dignity through civil conversation.

I PLEDGE:

1. Civility—To recognize the human dignity of those with whom I disagree, treat others with respect, and rise above attacks when directed at me.
2. Clarity—To root my political viewpoints in the Gospel and a well formed conscience, which involves prayer, conversation, study and listening. I will stand up for my convictions and speak out when I witness language that disparages others' dignity, while also listening and seeking to understand others' experiences.
3. Compassion—To encounter others with a tone and posture which affirms that I honor the dignity of others and invites others to do the same. I will presume others' best intentions and listen to their stories with empathy. I will strive to understand before seeking to be understood.
