CHRISTMAS REFLECTION

BY FR. MARK MOSSA, SJ - DIRECTOR OF CAMPUS MINISTRY

In my car, waiting to pick up groceries, Joni Mitchell announces herself on the radio. A soft introduction of “Jingle Bells” precedes the opening lines: “It’s coming on Christmas/They’re cutting down trees/They’re putting up reindeer/ And singing songs of joy and peace/Oh, I wish I had a river I could skate away on . . .”

A few days before, I had been asked to join a podcast later that week, where we would discuss our favorite Christmas songs. And, I realized at that moment that this would be one of them. Not because this was a long-time favorite of mine (though I’ve always liked it), but because it seems so suited to our moment. How many of us right now wish we had a river to skate away on, despite the spirit of Christmas building around us?

Indeed, as I began to consider the other songs that I might choose, I realized that my list was taking on a somber tone. “Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas” by Judy Garland or “2000 Miles” by the Pretenders came to mind—songs of loss and hope in the Christmas season. To add something more upbeat, I included “Santa Claus is Coming to Town” by Bruce Springsteen, definitely one of my all-time favorites. When I was younger, the Christmas season did not begin, until this one was played on the radio! Adding to that a medley of God “Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen” and “We Three Kings” by Barenaked Ladies and Sarah McLachlan would help lighten the mood, and bring us deeper into the Christmas mystery.

As we recorded the podcast, each of us realized that our choices all included a more somber note reflective of these times. Advent and Christmas are usually times when many feel loss more deeply, and it might be true this Christmas more than ever. And, that’s OK. If you think of that first Christmas story, it is a story fraught with tension and even danger, one in which the major players might even have wondered at times whether the promised miracle and its hopeful consequences might come to pass. “Mary Did You Know?” was another song that came to mind, a song that speaks of uncertainty, even in the midst of wonder.

Among the things that Christmas shows us, I think, is that all these things can co-exist. That we can feel loss deeply at this time, especially when for many of us our time with loved ones has been sacrificed out of concern for their safety, or our own. I can count on one hand the number of times that Christmas or the days surrounding it has not involved time with friends and family. But that will be the case for me this year. However, this also makes me more grateful for my brother Jesuits, with whom I can share that loss, and Christmas.

We recognize that Christmas, especially after observing the penitential season of Advent, is about mercy. Jesuit theologian James Keenan defines mercy as “the willingness to enter into the chaos of another.” Certainly, then, the birth of Jesus, the human incarnation of God, is the ultimate expression of that mercy. This Christmas, we are perhaps more conscious than ever of the precious gift of Jesus’ willingness to enter into our chaos. Especially noting their absence, we are also more appreciative of the gifts of friends and family. And, like that helpless child, born in a manger, maybe we have also been given the gift of humbly accepting our need for help, for human connection, and the fact, as Mother Teresa says, “that we belong to each other,” even if we wish we had a river we could skate away on.

During these difficult months of 2020, I have been grateful for the spirit of generosity that all our students and parishioners have shown. You have gone out of your way to express your gratitude, serve others, and to engender hope. In our St. Mary community, you might say the spirit of Christmas is ongoing. That is another thing that we can be grateful for, on Christmas, when Jesus is born anew in our hearts! Have a happy and blessed Christmas!

VIRTUAL ISN POSADAS

DECEMBER 16-24

The tradition of Las Posadas is a reenactment of the eve of the first Christmas, when Joseph and Mary searched for room at the inn, but none was to be found. A group of people travels from house to house singing and seeking shelter until they are welcomed inside to pray, eat, and celebrate.

While many Las Posadas celebrations will be canceled or amended due to the pandemic, the Ignatian Spirituality Network (ISN) invites you to join in Virtual Posadas from the safety of your home. We will not only honor the traditional celebration of Las Posadas, but also invite you into a daily experience of music, art, prayer, reflection, and action as we virtually journey with the migrants on the U.S-Mexico border in search of shelter and protection, just as the Holy Family did on Christmas Eve.

Join us: <https://ignatiansolidarity.net/virtual-posadas/>

Upon signing up, you will receive a short video each day via text or email, with Posadas song, prayer, and a learning or reflection activity. This is available in both English and Spanish.

VIRTUAL ST. MARY MEETS STATE REPS

THURS, JAN 7 | 7:00 PM

The St. Mary Immigration Team invites you to join us virtually in January with next term's State Representatives Felicia Brabec and Yusef Rabhi.

Our undocumented parishioners do not have access to a valid Michigan drivers license, so minor traffic violations often lead to deportation. Therefore, we will meet our state reps to discuss next steps in the campaign for driver's licenses for all, an effort supported by the Michigan Catholic Conference.

More generally, this meeting is an opportunity for our reps to get to know our St Mary community better, so we invite you to join us and bring your ideas and concerns to the table as well.

We will have a preliminary meeting with all interested parishioners on January 7 at 7:00 PM via Zoom.

Please email Kim Pulka pulkakim@umich.edu or Jack Gagnon rgagniii@umich.edu for more information or to receive the link.

DAYTIME WARMING CENTERS

During the winter months in Ann Arbor, the daytime warming center provides warm spaces for those needing shelter, warmth, and community. It is organized by Mission A2, Washtenaw County, and the collaborative efforts of local faith communities. The warming center will be at the following churches during the winter months:

- December - Journey of Faith (1900 Manchester Rd)
- January - First Baptist (517 East Washington)
- February - Zion Lutheran (1501 West Liberty)
- March - Lord of Light (801 South Forest)

Given this unusual year with Covid we have been asked to participate in the warming center in a different capacity than in previous years. We are invited to help with lunches on Mondays at 11:00AM during the month of January at First Baptist Church this year. We need 4 volunteers to provide lunches.

Please plan on bringing food for 30 guests. There will be someone to greet you in the parking lot at First Baptist Church to receive lunch at 11:00AM .

To volunteer, please email Brian Cerabona at bcerabona@smspnewman.org with the date you can bring lunch and the type of food you will be bringing.

Stay tuned for updates throughout the winter for ways to support and volunteer with the daytime warming center! Thank you for your help and support!

FEAST DAY THANK YOU

Thank you to all of our parishioners for supporting our parish feast day of service on December 5th! Our student interns Cecilia & Kaitlyn led a bilingual parish-wide rosary as part of Las Mananitas in the morning. In the afternoon, we had a food drive in collaboration with St. Thomas! Donations were for both Northside Community Center & Hope Clinic in Ypsilanti. Thank you to all who volunteered and donated! We had over 50 people donate! Thank you again and watch for more info about another food drive soon.

WOMEN OF THE HEART

“WOMEN - BEARERS OF HOPE”

THURS, JAN 14 | 10:15 AM

Women of every age are invited to connect, be inspired, and celebrate our faith with one another. Using a virtual format, we will gather the second Thursday of each month, from September through May, from 10:15 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Given the state of our world at this time, and also because we had to abruptly bring last spring's program to a halt because of Covid-19, we will return to last year's theme entitled, "Continuing the Journey in Hope."

We will devote the winter/spring semester to exploring the theme: "Women - Bearers of Hope," using Sister Barbara Reid's book, "Wisdom's Feast: An Invitation to Feminist Interpretation of the Scriptures." Sister Carol Johannes, O.P. and Nancy Bordley will be facilitating these gatherings.

Come and join us for what promises to be a rich and rewarding experience. We will be gathering via Zoom on the following dates. Please feel free to join us for as many sessions as your schedule allows; February 11, March 11, April 8, and May 13. Please direct any questions to Julie Mussio at jmussio@smspnewman.org. Julie will be coordinating the Zoom gatherings so please forward to her your email address if you are new to Women of the Heart or have an updated email address.

PRAYING THROUGH ADVENT

Praying through Advent – and Christmas

"For nothing will be impossible for God." (Luke 1: 37)

On the final Sunday of Advent we see the faithful example of our Blessed Mother – the young girl who says yes to God's surprising plan for saving the world. Mary shows us what complete trust in God looks like, and the angel sends us an important message, too: God always gives us what we need to accomplish great things.

Prayer

Holy Mary, Mother of God, I thank you for showing me how to respond fully to God's plan for me, and for the world. I ask you to intercede for me today, to point me on the path that leads to a deeper relationship with your Son.

I ask God to grant me the freedom and openness to say yes to God's surprising ways. I pray that my fears and doubts will never get in the way of a generous response to God.

Mary, gentle and loving, pray for us. Amen

Advent Meditation Materials

This season, we hope you'll take some time to light a weekly Advent candle, remembering with gratitude and hope that Christ is always our light, even in these times of confusion and darkness. To help with deeper prayer and meditation, we've created weekly Advent materials for our Small Church Communities, and made them available for everyone to access.

You'll find reflections and prayers for the Sunday readings on our parish website. <https://www.stmarystudentparish.org/parish-life/scc/>

St. Mary Student Parish

FR. CHARLIE IRVIN

Many of you may remember Fr. Charlie Irvin, who is an Ann Arbor native and graduated from the University of Michigan's Law School. After a brief career as an attorney, he entered the seminary and was ordained a priest in 1967. Shortly thereafter he began an eleven-year ministry at St. Mary Student Chapel in Ann Arbor. He returned to celebrate his Silver Anniversary in the priesthood at St. Mary Student Chapel.

Fr. Charlie is still writing homilies which you can find at:

<https://bigcatholics.blogspot.com/search/label/Fr.%20Charles%20Irvin>

Fr. Charlie is now living at Fairview Grand, an assisted living facility that is located on an active farm.

The owners refer to him as their "priest in residence" and he feels well cared for. But, since Fairview has been on lockdown since spring, he is very isolated.

A friend of Fr. Charlie's has suggested that those of us who know and treasure Fr. Charlie could send him Christmas cards. She suggests that it would be enjoyable to him if we would identify ourselves and/or reminisce so he can place where we were in his life (since he has been so many places and in so many capacities).

Fr. Charlie's address is:

Fr. Charles E. Irvin
Fairview Grand
P.O Box 40

OUR MISSION

St. Mary Student Parish is a welcoming, inclusive, caring, and diverse Catholic community, uniting residents and students.

We are Christ-centered with the Eucharist as the source of holiness in our vibrant liturgical life.

Inspired by Ignatian spirituality, we live a faith that does justice, reaching out to the marginalized.

As an apostolic parish, we are committed to ongoing formation of Christian witness, discipleship, and leadership.
