TIME FOR REFLECTION AND FAITH SHARING

BY RITA ZYBER,
RCIA, SCC & YOUTH MINISTRY COORDINATOR

"I don't usually get a chance to talk about my faith with the people around me on campus.

I miss that."

We hear this so often from students and grad students who participate in our Small Church Communities, or the Busy Person's Retreat. But sharing and reflecting is what these opportunities are all about. It's important for us older folks, too!

Through the small groups, or the retreat experience, we hope that participants will discover the many ways that they see God's active presence in their lives. At the same time, participants can meet new people and gain greater understanding of scripture.

SCC groups look at the upcoming Sunday readings. Materials are provided with reflections and questions for thought and discussion. Groups meet at various times so you can pick one that fits your schedule.

There are also some special topic groups, including a Latinx group for young adults in the Hispanic/Latino community, plus a group to learn more about Ignatian Spirituality, and one exploring Racial Justice using the "Just Faith" program.

Getting the chance to share, pray and reflect together can help to nurture your faith, as you grow in community here at St. Mary Student Parish.

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN JOIN:

The Busy Person's Retreat – This is for undergrads, grad students and young adults. It's a way to enhance your prayer life and participate in a retreat experience within your daily life. Participants commit to praying regularly each day, then meeting once a week with a trained Spiritual Companion from the parish who will help and encourage you in your prayer. Begins the week of September 20 and runs through November 14.

Small Church Communities – These faith sharing groups help to make our big community feel a little smaller. There are a variety of SCCs for students and all parishioners that meet at various times beginning the week of Sept. 20. Together with your group, you can reflect on faith experiences and discover how the word of God applies uniquely to your life.

NATIONAL MIGRATION WEEK & 107TH WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

National Migration Week is September 20-26, culminating in the 107th World Day of Migrants and Refugees on Sunday, September 26th.

As part of National Migration Week, the SMSP Immigration Team is conducting a survey. St. Mary's Student Parish belongs to Strangers No Longer (SNL), a network of Catholic Parishes that assist immigrants in our area and advocates for comprehensive and humane immigration policy. We do this to put into practice the example of Jesus and Pope Francis: to receive the "strangers", the migrants, as our own brothers and sisters. SNL plans to engage with local leaders to build consensus on how communities can improve the quality of life of immigrants in Michigan and we need your input.

Survey link: <https://forms.gle/9houoVPfnxU14J5L8>

Feedback from the survey will help us move forward in our work with the immigrant community! The Immigration Team and SNL thank you for taking the time.

Ignatian Year at SMSP

IN THE SPIRIT OF IGNATIUS

Friendship, Obedience & Mission by Fr. Mark Mossa, S.J.

Have you ever wondered what Jesus meant when he said, “You are my friends if you do what I command”? (John 15:14) Certainly most of us would be put off if anyone other than Jesus were to say that to us! Yet, most of us to some degree would understand our relationship to Jesus in this way. We want to do what he commands! And, if you think about it, while we might call it “advice” rather than a “command,” often enough we choose to do things because we have been encouraged to do so by those who know us most intimately. Obedience needn’t be seen in a negative light.

I think that the journey of Ignatius “the pilgrim,” as he called himself during his conversion experience, offers us an interesting window into the import of Jesus’ words. His conversion did not take place in isolation, but rather was a journey of many friendships. He spent much of his time getting to know people, and sharing the spiritual insights that he was learning along the way (this would eventually become the substance of his Spiritual Exercises). During these conversations, he would sometimes give people suggestions as to how to proceed in their spiritual lives. And when they followed his advice, it sometimes got him in trouble! In one instance, two prominent women were inspired by him to make a pilgrimage. Thinking that he had somehow led them astray, he was imprisoned until they returned and confirmed his account of things—that they had gone of their own accord. You could say in a way, however, that their lives had been improved by being “obedient” to Ignatius.

This relationship between friendship and obedience would take center stage when it came to the establishment of the Jesuit order. By then, the pilgrim had settled into life as a student at the University of Paris. There he formed deep friendships with a group of fellow students who would share with each other the now more comprehensive and structured experience of The Spiritual Exercises. Through this experience, each was inspired to offer their lives in service to Jesus, but they weren’t sure exactly what form this would take for each of them. What they did know is that they wanted to remain friends. In the context of their time (the 16th century) and their religious commitment, they determined that the best way to ensure their union of minds and hearts would be to form a religious community, and vow obedience to one of their own number.

Thus, “the Society of Jesus” was born, not the vision of one man, but rather a group of friends. And, though they did indeed take a vow of obedience to Ignatius, they all understood that this obedience was at the service of their friendship, and not the condition for it, and that it was but a human representation of their desire to follow the will of God for their lives and for their mission to serve the people of God. Choosing “obedience” to our friends in the Lord seems a lot less strange when we, like the disciples, and like those first Jesuits, do so in the service of the mission that God has given us as a community of faith. It can serve as a more concrete way that we seek and find the will of God. It’s no coincidence that this is also the goal of the Spiritual Exercises.

Note: As a Jesuit parish, we are joining with Jesuits around the world to celebrate a special “Ignatian Year.” Through July 2022, we will reflect on the conversion of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus, who turned his life toward God after his legs were shattered by a cannonball in battle 500 years ago. We pray that this Jubilee will be a time to reflect on our own moments of conversion. What are the “shattering” changes we experience that can open our hearts to God?

Also: Please see our special Ignatian Table and bulletin board in the upper atrium outside the church door near Thompson Street for more information and resources on the teachings of St. Ignatius.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

WEDNESDAYS | 5:45-8:00 PM

"One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least", as if it were a "waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ". Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him." -Pope Francis

Eucharistic Adoration will be available each Wednesday in the Church from 5:45pm-8:00pm. We are in need of two adorers for each time slot.

INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC?
Or maybe you still need to receive all of your Sacraments of Initiation?

EXPLORING THE FAITH

Have you ever thought about becoming Catholic?

Hopefully, you're praying and reflecting on this step. What has God been trying to say to you? Then, give us a call to talk. Our RCIA gatherings help people explore the faith, and learn more about building a deeper relationship with God. RCIA (the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults), helps those who are considering adult baptism into the Catholic faith, those who may want to convert from another Christian faith, and those adult Catholics who want to complete their Confirmation.

Gatherings begin in September, and we're hoping to meet in person. In the meantime, give us a call, or send an email. Rita Zyber, RCIA Coordinator, rzyber@smspnewman.org 734-663-0557, Ext 230

LGBT OUTREACH MINISTRY

3RD TUESDAY OF THE MONTH | 7-8:30 PM

Meetings are private and confidential and on the third Tuesday of the month. As a diverse community of believers, we respect each person as a unique reflection of God's presence in our midst. We commit ourselves to being a community of care, support, formation, reconciliation, and witness to justice with and among gay and lesbian persons, parents, family members, and friends. We teach that all love comes from God and focus on helping people reconcile their faith with their orientation.

We provide a safe space for discussion, healing, and prayer. Together we reflect on Scripture and listen to the lived experiences of gay and lesbian persons and their allies.

CAN YOU HELP LEAD A SMALL GROUP?

Small groups allow us to share our stories and experiences of God, as we study and reflect together on the Sunday readings. Here at St. Mary, our Small Church Communities (or SCCs) continue to grow. We'd like to offer more small groups for the Fall Session, but we need more facilitators.

Please spend some time in prayer and consideration. We provide materials, guidance, and prayer suggestions for your weekly sessions. Facilitators keep the group on track and moving forward with fruitful discussion. You can choose a time and day that works best for you.

Groups will begin meeting the week of September 20th. For more information, contact Rita Zyber rzyber@smspnewman.org

INFANT BAPTISM AT SMSP

St. Mary Student Parish is grateful for the opportunity to celebrate the miracle of new life and welcome new members into our parish family through the Sacrament of Baptism. Those wishing to have their children baptized at St. Mary Student Parish should be registered members here for at least three months and active, contributing members of the parish.

Baptism preparation class is required to be taken for your first child. If you've taken the class elsewhere, proof of that will be necessary to schedule a baptism.

Classes are on Monday 6:30-7:30 PM on the following dates. 9/13, 10/4, 11/1 and 12/6. During the class there is an opportunity to ask questions and schedule the baptism date. The class is required to be taken only once. It does not need to be repeated for additional children.

If you are able, we ask that you pick up a baptism preparation packet from the Parish Office at least one week prior to the class. The packet contains articles and discussion questions for parents and godparents.

Please contact Carol skonczal@umich.edu or 734-663-0557 ext. 0 to register for a class, or with any questions or more info.

Sunday Readings

SEPTEMBER 12—Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Is 50:4-9
 Psalm Ps 116:1-6, 8-9
 Reading II Jas 2:14-18
 Gospel Mk 8:27-35

Isiah would suffer and call upon the Lord for help. Jesus speaks of his own suffering and death and of the demands of discipleship. What use is faith, to confess that Jesus is the Christ without works of love?

SEPTEMBER 19—Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Wis. 2:12, 17-20
 Psalm Ps 54
 Reading II Jas 3:16 - 4:3
 Gospel Mk 9:30 - 37

Jesus speaks of his own rejection, torture, and shameful death. True discipleship, he says, is concerned not with status but with service to the poor, with justice and peace.
