Pastoral Perspective

SHARING INTERN SACRED STORIES BY REBECCA HAINES, 2020 MUSIC INTERN

When tasked with writing my Sacred Story a year ago, I wasn't quite sure what to say. My own faith journey had been a tumultuous road of ups and downs, of periods of both tremendous growth and pitfalls when I lost my way, and as I looked back on it all, my failures and shortcomings seemed to stand out more than anything else. Convinced my path to holiness was so innately different from those around me, I wondered whether there was anything to be learned from my story. But in reflecting on everything that had led me to that point and talking with our campus minister, I began to gain a new perspective on it all. I discovered it was a story not just of me failing as I chased after the Lord, but of Him constantly calling me back to Himself. For the first time, I saw a constant thread of faith, of God's hand at work, throughout my entire life, even in the moments when I had thought He wasn't there. Listening to the stories of my fellow interns, I further realized that everyone's journey includes struggles, and that I wasn't as alone in these as I thought.

It's difficult to grasp how powerful these testimonies are or how much heart goes into them without hearing them for yourself. Writing and sharing a Sacred Story is nerve-racking and challenging, but it is ultimately a greatly formative experience. It takes time and openness to reflect on the entire scope of your faith journey and discern what parts God is calling you to share, how to let the Lord speak through you, and how to incorporate it all into a coherent storyline that bears witness to Christ's workings in your life. Doing so requires the courage to be vulnerable and the trust that there is something worth sharing, something to be learned, in each and every story, and that God will bring it to light. I can attest that seeing how God is at work in the lives of those around us is incredibly inspiring and can help each of us to better recognize how He is working in our own lives as well.

On behalf of this year's interns, I would like to invite all of the St. Mary Student Parish community, family and friends to attend our annual Sacred Stories event on Sunday, February 20th from 6:30-7:30pm. You can attend either in person at the Church or via live-stream on our YouTube page: <https://youtu.be/g-Kt64SYBdl>

May you all see Christ's light and works in their testimonies and discover through them part of your own Sacred Story.

SCC GROUP ON RACIAL AWARENESS

LENTEN JOURNEY WITH THE PROPHETS FOR RACIAL EQUITY: AN INTRO TO THE REALITIES & COMPLEXITIES OF RACISM

FEBRUARY 21 – APRIL 4

Through activities, the journey will lead to a greater understanding of racial equity and racism in our nation, a greater love of all of God's children, and an increased commitment to ending racism in all forms.

On this journey, travelers will be asked to examine the issues of racial equity in light of factual evidence and the teachings of Christ and the Church. We will invite the Holy Spirit to work within us to bring wisdom and love to the issues through our learning, sharing, prayer and reflection.

Program Format

March 3 - An opening Zoom meeting will include a welcome and introduction of the program's structure; plus some introductory materials.

March 6-April 9: You will receive eight emails on various days that provide videos, readings and reflection/prayer for that day. (Materials will take about an hour.) After two emails, participants will join a small discussion group via Zoom. (Schedule will be provided later).

April 13 – A closing Zoom discussion will focus on participants' reflections and ideas for continued learning and engagement.

Most materials are from the Ignatian 21-day Racial Equity Challenge. The program will be led by Leo Hanifin and Rita Zyber, parishioners at St. Mary Student Parish and Jan Carpenter, a Catholic from Brighton.

Sign-up by March 1- <https://bit.ly/LENT2020SCCs> Questions, contact Rita rzyber@smspnewman.org or (734) 663-0557 ext 230

IN THE SPIRIT OF IGNATIUS

THE CREATOR DEALS DIRECTLY WITH US

Early Jesuits held one "doctrine" that was fundamental for them, one that gave orientation to all their ministries and to the way they wanted to lead their own lives. It was the basic premise of the Exercises, even though it was somewhat buried: the Creator deals directly with the creature, and the creature deals directly with the Creator—heart to heart, one might say. Upon this teaching Jesuits based their more characteristic themes—indifference, discernment, and inner devotion, or consolation.

It's also a good explanation for why we may feel more connected to God when we are out in nature. Without the manmade distractions of life, God can reveal God's self to us more fully. When we truly pay attention to the beauty and work of our Creator, and that includes ourselves, we can experience God's presence and love in a deeper, more active way.

(Adapted from an article on IgnatianSpirituality.com)

Ruth Barrows, a Carmelite nun, describes these "mystical" moments when we have a strong longing for God this way:

"For what is the mystical life but God coming to do what we cannot do; touching the depths of our being where man is reduced to his basic element?"

And Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins gives us many thoughts on praising God for nature and creation:

"Glory be to God for dappled things – for skies of couple-colour as a brindled cow; for rose-moles in all stipple upon trout that swim... Praise him." (From Pied Beauty)

Note: We are joining with Jesuits around the world to celebrate a special "Ignatian Year." Through July, we will reflect on the conversion of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus, who turned his life toward God after his legs were shattered by a cannonball in battle 500 years ago. We pray that this Jubilee will be a time to reflect on our own moments of conversion. What are the "shattering" changes we experience that can open our hearts to God?

Also: Please see our special Ignatian Table in the upper atrium outside the church door near Thompson Street for more information and resources on the teachings of St. Ignatius.

WEDDING MASS COORDINATOR NEEDED

A wedding mass coordinator assists with the coordination of the actual rehearsal and wedding ceremony. You will organize the wedding party at the beginning of the ceremony and coordinate with the priest and the musicians. You will oversee the sanctuary to ensure the church is set-up to meet the needs of the ceremony. This includes attending the rehearsal, assisting the wedding party through the ceremony, and responding to any questions the couple and guests may have regarding facilities. Strong organizational skills and attention to detail is important in making the day happen.

Sharing this day with our couples is very special. We provide comfort and ease to these families and valuable assistance to the priest. All training will be provided. Contact Julie Mussio if you would like additional details: jmussio@smspnewman.org

EXCITING NEWS!

SMSP REFUGEE CO-SPONSORSHIP FUND

Exciting news! An anonymous donor has pledged to match up to $15,000 for the Refugee co-sponsorship program. Please help us reach our goal of $15,000 in the coming weeks! Your donation will help us accompany and support a refugee family new to the United States. Donations will remain in the SMSP Refugee Co-sponsorship fund and will support our current and ongoing refugee co-sponsorships through our Parish.

To donate, visit giving.parishsoft.com/app/giving/smsp and select "Refugee Co-sponsorship."

MEALS FOR THE HOMELESS AT MERCY HOUSE

Mercy House, located at 805 W. Huron Street in Ann Arbor, is an oasis of hope for people experiencing homelessness, providing meals, showers, clothing and personal care items. We are looking for individuals who could prepare and drop off a meal for 25-30 people on Mondays or Wednesdays, with a 5:45pm drop-off at the house. Typically, one person provides the main dish, and another provides sides and dessert, but some do both. 13 x 9 aluminum pans work best, as they do not need to be returned and will be reused by the community. (Also accepted are grocery gift cards, in any amount, to buy the ingredients to prepare a meal.)

If you are interested in helping out, please go to the following Sign Up Genius link: <https://tinyurl.com/f6p9p3px>

There you will find open dates as well as menu suggestions and a few other details. Questions? Please contact Sonia at soniafrances55@gmail.com. Thank you!

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING???

If you have misplaced items while at church, we may have them waiting for you in the parish office! Please stop by the office to check the Lost & Found box. All unclaimed items will be donated by the last Sunday of every month.

MARCH MATCH MADNESS

March Match Madness is right around the corner. Our challenge is to raise $100,000 in the 31 days of March to support campus ministry. We start this challenge by securing donors who are willing to match the donations collected during March. The Jesuit community has pledged a portion of the $50,000 goal.

We are looking for other donors who would like to make up the difference. If you are interested in stepping up to this challenge, please reach out to Cathy Welch, Business Manager cwelch@smspnewman.org

Sunday Readings

FEBRUARY 20 – Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Sam 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23
 Psalm Ps 103:1-4, 8, 10, 12-13
 Reading II 1 Cor 15:45-49
 Gospel Lk 6:27-38

In baptism we are called to mirror and image the mercy and forgiveness the Lord has won for us. As David would not harm Saul his enemy, so we are challenged to love and pardon those who wrong us.

FEBRUARY 27 – Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Sir 27:4-7
 Psalm Ps 92:2-3,13-16
 Reading II 1 Cor 15:54-58
 Gospel Lk 6:39-45

The fruit of our speech and actions will wither and die unless we first recognize the plank in our own eye. By humbly admitting our own sins, we can more fruitfully persevere in the work of the Lord.
