Pastoral Perspective

MAKING LIGHT OF DISTRACTION

BY FR MARK MOSSA, SJ

Several years ago, I was presiding at a mass on Mother's Day. There were more children than usual at mass that day, and many of them were making quite a racket. Yet, the church did not have a "cry room," and only a small vestibule at the entrance, so there wasn't much option for parents to remove their children from the church, save for taking them outside. Not that I would want them to. I love the noise of children at mass. Yet, I could also see that some of the other members of the congregation were getting somewhat impatient, and perhaps even a little angry. I imagined that some already harried parents might have a few pairs of eyes fixed on them. So, after we did a special blessing for the mothers present, I took the time to thank all the parents who brought their children. It was a sincere gesture, but also meant as a challenge to those who were a little worked up.

I write this as someone who is easily distracted. And I won't pretend that at times a noisy child at mass might throw me a little off my game. But I would never consider, as I know other priests have done, asking a parent to remove their child. I can endure some distraction, and even raise my voice a little louder if I have to, for the greater good of having that child present. One child in our parish took to singing for much of one of my masses last Sunday, and I was delighted. I was also happy to see in the congregation not impatient faces, but happy ones, who were enjoying the "distraction" as much as I was.

It is not rare for someone in confession to speak of being distracted at mass, though I'm not so sure it's a sin (unless deliberate). And, more than a few members of this community have heard me say in response: We all get distracted at mass. Find me someone who hasn't, and I'll start the canonization process! And, might you consider the possibility that God might be trying to speak to you in the distraction? It might not even be a distraction at all, but just God trying to get your attention! Sometimes getting worked up about being distracted can prove to be even more of a distraction.

I can't do much about being easily distracted. It's just part of who I am. And, if it means that I accidentally skip a prayer at mass, or forget a step, I know that God is going to make up for it. Mass will be valid nonetheless. Is our prayer, then, any less effective if we find ourselves distracted? I can't imagine that God would see it that way. I think that God is just happy for the effort we put into nurturing our relationship. So, especially this Mother's Day, I hope that we can all find it in ourselves to see distraction differently, especially the distraction of those little ones who are not afraid to lift their voices to the Lord, even if they are singing a different song. May we find in them, and in the other "noise" that invades our prayer, not distraction, but delight.

IN THE SPIRIT OF IGNATIUS

SOME THOUGHTS FROM THE SAINT HIMSELF:

“We should not wish to see or do anything which could not be done in the presence of God and His creatures, and we shall thus imagine that we are always in His presence.”

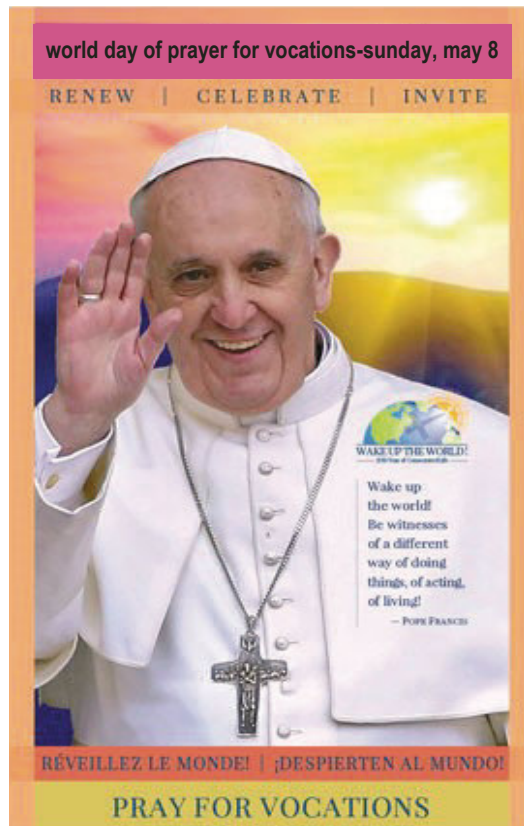

“One of the things which we must be very firm about, if we are to please our Lord, is to cast far from us everything that could remove us from the love of our brethren. We should make every effort to love them with a tender charity, for Supreme Truth has said, “By this shall all men know that you are my disciples.”

“We should never postpone a good work, no matter how small it may be, with the thought of later doing something greater. It is a very common temptation of the enemy to be always placing before us the perfection of things to come and bring us to make little of the present.”

Note: Ignatius of Loyola gave these “rules for dealing with others” to his fellow Jesuits in about the year 1541. They were sent in an undated letter to the Jesuit community in Portugal.

APPEAL

"STIR UP ONE ANOTHER TO love and good works"

EACH YEAR, THE DIOCESAN SERVICES APPEAL (DSA) UNITES THE PEOPLE, THE DISCIPLES, OF ALL 72 PARISHES OF OUR DIOCESE, DRAWING US TOGETHER TO ACHIEVE FAR MORE THAN ANY INDIVIDUAL OR ANY SINGLE PARISH COULD ACCOMPLISH ALONE.

“Stir up one another to love and good works.” This scripture from the letter to the Hebrews challenges us today in the same way that it challenged the earliest disciples of Jesus Christ. Having received the salvation of Jesus and the gifts of the Spirit, we have all we need to reflect the light of Christ in the love and good works that we offer others today.

Our Diocesan Services Appeal is one opportunity to exhibit discipleship – to share the Good News with others and to offer loving support in the many good works of the Catholic Church. DSA contributions are put to work, right away, to offer direct assistance to individuals and families, to parishes and schools, and to those who have yet to learn of the life and love of Jesus.

Day after day, year after year, the Catholic Church – through our parishes, our Catholic Charities agencies, our Catholic schools, and dozens of other services and ministries – provides vital care and services to all Christ’s people in the Diocese of Lansing.

These many good works unify us, disciples, together on the way!

Diocesan Services Appeal
2022 Goal – $5,500,000

Lord, grant us disciples the grace to be generous in our support of the Diocesan Services Appeal, so that we may faithfully rouse one another to love and good works.
