SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them.” - Lk 12:37

“Dichosos aquellos a quienes su señor, al llegar, encuentre en vela. Yo les aseguro que se recogerá la túnica, los hará sentar a la mesa y él mismo les servirá”. - Lc 12, 37

Pastoral Perspective

DISPARITIES THAT TUG AT MY HEART

BY FR BOBBY KARLE, SJ

"Near the private jets that shuttle billionaires to their opulent Sun Valley getaways, Ana Ramon Bartolome and her family have spent this summer living in the only place available to them: behind a blue tarp in a sweltering two-car garage."

This was the first sentence from the August 1 New York Times cover story. The article describes the increased challenge for workers, including a high school principal, to find affordable housing in the "famous ski-and-golf playground" of Sun Valley, Idaho. Sun Valley is not unique. Rather, it represents the increasing income disparity, housing shortage, and lack of access to basic rights that plagues the majority of our world's population.

During the first two weeks of July I had the privilege to visit Belize and Mexico, two places I lived in my early 20s and that were very influential to me becoming a Jesuit. I had dreamed of returning as a priest since entering the Jesuits twelve years ago. With five days left I broke my foot, canceled my remaining visits, and was treated by a generous benefactor to a few nights at an all-inclusive beach resort. Although I've attempted to avoid these English-speaking tourist traps in the past, I was grateful to be pampered for my final days in Mexico as I hobbled around on crutches. Due to my injury and ability to speak Spanish, I had many conversations with the staff at the hotel, especially the lifeguards who checked on me each day and applied anti-inflation gel to my puffy, bruised foot. As I developed rapport with one of the life guards named Juan Carlos, he shared with me that he and other hotel workers earn between $200-$300 per month, depending on their position. I thought of another hotel worker I ran into earlier in the day promoting a special full-moon dinner party at the hotel for the price of $85 per person. That is roughly 1/3 of the monthly earnings of an average hotel employee. (Not sure why you'd pay $85 per person for dinner when you're at an all-inclusive resort, but that's besides the point!) I asked Juan Carlos if the hotel provides English classes for employees or support to get a work visa to work at one of their locations in the United States. Perplexed by my question, he shook his head no.

Over the past few days, our SMSSP Refugee Sponsorship team has been seeking short-term housing for the Enamorado family so they don't have to spend nearly two months in a hotel while they wait to move into a long-term apartment at the end of August. We've searched Airbnb, VRBO, Craigslist, Sabbatical Homes and are unable to find a two-bedroom residence for the month of August for under $8,000. It's been shocking to us that we cannot find a better option than an extended stay hotel 30 minutes away that costs about $5,500 for the month. It really tugs at my heart to think that so many people I know have multiple homes, including my own family, and we can't even find a small apartment this month for this beautiful family that has lived through so much.

In the Gospel on August 1st Jesus tells the disciples, "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves." They said to him, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have here." He said, "Bring them here to me." Jesus said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied. Twelve wicker baskets remained. (Matthew 14: 16-20)

In the Gospel on Sunday, August 7 Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your belongings and give alms." (Luke 12:33-32)

FOR REFLECTION:

Why do some of us have so much while so many more struggle to access even the basic necessities of life? How can we - individually and communally - respond to Jesus' instruction to, "give them some yourselves" and to "sell your belongings and give alms"? Perhaps the first step is awareness and gratitude for the gifts and resources we have.

Let us seek to dismantle systems that divide and look for ways to share what we have.

BECOMING CATHOLIC?

WHAT ARE YOU SEEKING?

CAN RCIA HELP?

Deep in our hearts, we have a longing to be closer to God, to feel that we have a home with him for all eternity. St. Augustine reminds us, "Our hearts are restless until they find rest in you."

The RCIA journey at St. Mary Student Parish is designed to help people hear and respond to God's loving call – and especially to his invitation for a deeper relationship with him in the tradition of the Catholic faith.

BEGINNING WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 14, WE'LL HAVE WEEKLY SESSIONS FROM 7-9 PM THAT ARE DESIGNED FOR:

- ✠ Those who want to be baptized in the Catholic faith.
- ✠ Those who want to join the Catholic Church from another faith or another Christian tradition.
- ✠ Baptized Catholics who wish to receive the sacrament of Confirmation.

For more information, or just to talk about this possibility, contact Fr. Joe Wagner jwagner@smspnewman.org, or Rita Zyber rzyber@smspnewman.org.

1ST AND 3RD TUESDAY OF THE MONTH AT 7:00 PM

"Come all you who are burdened, and I will give you rest," says the Lord (Matthew 11:28). Discover Christ abiding in you. Discover the new life He offers in His church, in the sacraments, in scripture, and among the People of God. Discover the joys for new life in prayer, in fellowship, and in the life of the intentional disciple living generously and virtuously as Christ has taught us.

LGBT & friends welcome! We meet every 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month at 7:00 PM for reflection on our lives in the Ignatian tradition on one Tuesday and socializing on the other Tuesday of the month.

As a diverse community of believers, we respect each person as a unique reflection of God's presence in our midst. We commit ourselves to being a community of care, support, formation, reconciliation, and witness to justice with and among gay and lesbian persons, parents, family members, and friends. We teach that all love comes from God and focus on helping people reconcile their faith with their orientation.

We provide a safe space for discussion, healing, and prayer. Together we reflect on Scripture and listen to the lived experiences of gay and lesbian persons and their allies.

Aug 20 | 9:00 AM—St. Thomas the Apostle

Bring Jesus to residential care facilities. This is a beautiful way to share the consoling presence of Christ and his church with those who might otherwise have no opportunity.

The next quarterly team building event starts with the 9 AM Mass on Saturday, August 20, at St. Thomas the Apostle, followed by a brunch and time for prayer, sharing, and learning.

Those interested in joining are invited to come, meet the active ministers, and learn about the ministry. Coming to the training is not a commitment to volunteering, but opportunities to serve or to shadow will be presented.

We invite all members of our parish to join in support of the annual Diocesan Services Appeal. Our parish goal is $102,327. No gift is too small... every dollar donated helps those in our parish and in our unified efforts in the wider church. Your contribution supports dozens of ministries that help people both spiritually and physically – bringing hope, comfort, and salvation to so many in our diocese.

Further, one-half of all paid contributions received, over and above our parish goal, will be returned to our parish for our local use here at SMSP. You can submit your DSA pledge envelope during Mass this weekend - or take your DSA envelope home to prayerfully consider your gift decision. Those paying by cash or check are invited to return it to our parish office. Those who wish to pay by credit card or electronic funds transfer may enter your gift online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/appeal.

Sunday Readings

AUGUST 7 – Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Wis 18:6-9
 Psalm Ps 33:1, 12, 18-22
 Reading II Heb 11:1-2, 8-19 or 11:1-2, 8-12
 Gospel Lk 12:32-48 or 12:35-40

The author of Wisdom speaks of “that night” of exodus from bondage in Egypt when the Lord delivered his chosen people from death. Let us be prepared for the Lord who will come again, perhaps in the midst of night. As we walk in darkness, our journey to our heavenly homeland is illuminated by faith.

AUGUST 14 – Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Jer 38:4-6, 8-10
 Psalm Ps 40:2-4, 18
 Reading II Heb 12:1-4
 Gospel Lk 12:49-53

The Lord came to the aid of Jeremiah whose preaching brought upon him rejection and ill treatment. For those who take the gospel seriously, misunderstanding and division must likewise be expected. Like Christ, we must never grow despondent or abandon the struggle to proclaim and live the truth.
