ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

28th

SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?"

Entonces dijo Jesús: "¿No eran diez los que quedaron limpios? ¿Dónde están los otros nueve? ¿No ha habido nadie, fuera de este extranjero, que volviera para dar gloria a Dios?"

- Lc 17, 17-18

PRAYER IS PAYING ATTENTION

BY RITA ZYBER, RCIA AND SCC COORDINATOR

“It doesn’t have to be the blue Iris;”

I love this idea from poet Mary Oliver because it so clearly shows that prayer works best when we recognize God’s wonders in everyday life. In other words, my prayer is so much richer now because I’ve learned to see God at work in all creation, and in all the daily moments – the pretty and the scruffy ones.

In my work, I am blessed to talk with college students. It’s a joy to encourage them in prayer and to help them see a very loving God who is active in their lives. It makes me especially happy when they tell me, “I feel like I can bring my faith with me more out on campus and talk to God out in the world, not just in Church.”

We all tend to “compartmentalize” our faith and our prayer lives. It’s easy to get distracted and not pay attention. That’s how we miss the many “God moments” in our day. And sometimes it’s just plain hard to see God working in the tough and challenging moments of our lives.

Learning to pray more like St. Ignatius has helped me remember to “invite God along” in the events and moments of my day. Then, in the evening, we can review those moments in the Examen prayer. It always helps to put things in a bigger perspective – to notice patterns in the way I reacted and interacted. The daily review also keeps me grounded in gratitude for the many wonderful moments I may have otherwise missed throughout that busy day.

I’ve also learned another thing from Ignatius, and from the students – that God’s will and plan for us is very often what we ourselves have in mind. God’s will generally aligns with our actual desires and talents, and with what gives us life and energy.

God speaks to us through our desires, through our intuition and even our physical feelings. So again, paying attention to all these things helps us discover who God created us to be, and what path might be best. Toss in that line from the First Principle and Foundation and life seems so much easier: “I choose what better leads to God’s deepening his life in me.”

I remain ever grateful to Ignatius and his Spirit-filled wisdom. I am also grateful that the Jesuits have made it a goal to share this wisdom and these prayer methods with all of us. In recent years, I’ve discovered that the “Ignatian Way” of prayer brings peace, simplicity, and a sense that we are truly loved.

UNSETTLING HISTORIES: U-M MUSEUM TOUR

Join docents Connie Powers (a parish member) and Mary Wakefield, for a special tour at the University of Michigan Museum of Art on Saturday, October 15 at 1 p.m.

The tour looks at pieces in the museum's collection with an eye toward racial justice, and the museum's review of how works and people's histories have been prioritized in the past. The tours were given last year and Connie reflected on their impact:

"Art has a way of opening our eyes and our hearts. During the SMSP tours, some eyes saw a torn canvas, a physically exposed woman on bent knees, a twisted birdcage, and a bruised American flag. Some hearts felt destruction and violence, hope and reconciliation, privilege, remorse, mercy and forgiveness. All came away changed."

No need to register for the tour. Participants will meet at the UMMA information desk at 1 p.m. For more information, contact connpowers2@gmail.com

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

WEDNESDAYS | 5:45 PM

"One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least", as if it were a "waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ". Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him."-Pope Francis

Eucharistic Adoration will be available each Wednesday in the Church from 5:45pm-9:00pm.

Please sign up as we are in need of 2 adorers per time slot. Thank you for supporting this ministry!

LGBT OUTREACH MINISTRY

7:00 PM ON THE 1ST AND 3RD TUESDAY OF THE MONTH

Meetings are private and confidential.

As a diverse community of believers, we respect each person as a unique reflection of God's presence in our midst. We commit ourselves to being a community of care, support, formation, reconciliation, and witness to justice with and among gay and lesbian persons, parents, family members, and friends. We teach that all love comes from God and focus on helping people reconcile their faith with their orientation. We provide a safe space for discussion, healing, and prayer. Together we reflect on Scripture and listen to the lived experiences of gay and lesbian persons and their allies.

ASK THE CANDIDATES

Candidates for public office need to hear from us about our concerns. As Catholics, it is up to us to advocate for policies that are informed by Catholic Social Teaching. Pope Francis has recently challenged us to take action to protect the Earth, to value human life from conception to natural death, to welcome migrants and refugees and to act with a preferential option for the poor.

This November our parishioners will be voting for Michigan representatives in 5 different State House districts and 2 State Senate districts. Our voices can play a strong role in shaping policies for our state. If you are interested in participating in a meeting with the candidates from all of the political parties, please fill out this form to let us know your availability:

<https://www.stfrancisa2.com/askthecandidates>.

Meetings will be at St. Francis of Assisi parish (or on Zoom) and scheduled to accommodate people's availability if possible.

Please contact Jim Russo at jrusso.sn1@stfrancisa2.org with any questions.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Anti Racism Library

The parish's Anti-Racism Working Group has created the "Thea Bowman Memorial Library" for students and parish members who want to stop by and borrow a book or DVD. The library is located in the Loyola Room (near the parish lounge area) and includes a sign-out sheet.

Materials, related to the experiences of people who most often face discrimination and unjust policies, include books such as "The Cross and the Lynching Tree," and fiction such as "The Bluest Eye," by Toni Morrison. DVD options include "Good Trouble," focusing on the late U.S. Rep. John Lewis. There are also works about indigenous peoples. The group hopes to rotate selections regularly to feature more materials and additional cultural experiences.

For information contact Rainey Lamey at rlamey@umich.edu, or just stop by to check it out.
