Pastoral Perspective

A NEW BEGINNING

BY KYLE SHINSEKI, S.J.

As a child growing up on the island of Kaua'i in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, I was not Catholic and had no idea what a Jesuit was, so I could never have imagined that someday I would find myself here as a Jesuit priest at St. Mary Student Parish. Yet, God writes straight with crooked lines as they say, so through God's providence on August 25th I began my new assignment in Ann Arbor. It has been such an incredible joy to meet so many students and full-time parishioners, staff and volunteers, over these past weeks. Your love for the faith and for this community are quite palpable. I look forward to our ministry here together as we seek "en todo amar y servir," to love and serve in all, for the greater glory of God - Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam.

As I mentioned, I grew up in the Hawaiian Islands, born in the "big city" of Honolulu and raised in a small town on one of the rural "neighbor" islands. Although I did grow up going to the beach a lot, in some ways my childhood was not unlike that in other parts of rural America - my father's best friend was an avid hunter, country music was often heard on the radio, and 4-H and Future Farmers of America were some of the most popular student clubs. Although I was an only child, I was blessed with a family friend who was like a big sister to me, through whom I learned Spanish. Over the years, through the Spanish I learned from her and through another friend's devotion to Our Lady of Guadalupe, I was led to the Catholic Church as a college student.

About six years after I was baptized as a Catholic, I met the Jesuits through a Cuban American Catholic group whose chaplain was a Spanish Jesuit, who preached a weekend retreat that made a profound impact on me. Yet, it took another eight years for me to finally be open to a call to religious life. I entered what is now the Midwest Province of the Society of Jesus a year later in 2009, less than an hour away from here in Berkley, Michigan. After two years of novitiate, followed by studies at Loyola Chicago, I spent two years at Creighton University in multicultural affairs and the business school, then did four years of studies at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, California, before my last assignment in Campus Ministry at Santa Clara University.

Just this past summer, I completed the final stage of Jesuit formation, called tertianship. This two-summer program consisted of the 30-day Spiritual Exercises last summer along with some classes, followed by a six-week ministry assignment this summer at

Our Lady of Guadalupe parish in San Diego. As I reflect over my time as a Jesuit, I am filled with gratitude for the many blessings God has given me, particularly through the faith-filled people I have encountered along the way. I find it quite meaningful that my journey has come full circle in that I am back here in Michigan again, where my journey with the Jesuits began 13 years ago. I look forward to meeting all of you as we journey together with Christ to share the Good News of God's mercy and love.

UNDERSTANDING RACISM, ONE SMALL BIT AT TIME

"My friends, we cannot tolerate or turn a blind eye to racism and exclusion in any form and yet claim to defend the sacredness of every human life." Pope Francis 2020

When we hear the word racism, the first thing that comes to mind might be overt prejudicial acts and words. However, much of the racism in America today is due to unconscious, unintentional biases and systemic injustices. We all need to understand racism better so that we might recognize it, and oppose such unjust and unchristian attitudes and actions.

This is the first of a series of monthly materials to help parishioners to learn more about racism, to reflect on our conscious and unconscious attitudes and to pray that we all work to fully accept, honor, and support all people as children of God.

Video: Each month we will provide a link to a short video to help you on this journey.

This week's video, "Racism is Real," is only three minutes long. Here is the link: <https://www.bravenewfilms.org/racismisreal>

Reading: Some months we will also provide a link to an article to help you learn a bit more. This month's article is a 6-page summary of the US Catholic Bishops' 2018 pastoral letter against racism, Open Wide Our Hearts :

<https://www.dor.org/wp-content/uploads/Backgrounder-Inserts-Scripture-Reflection.pdf>

Prayer: May the Holy Spirit be my guide on this journey to greater wisdom, compassion and peace. Amen.

Anti Racism Working Group

The group meets twice a month on the first and third Thursdays, with the following schedule for the next couple of months:

October 6 at 7 p.m. at the parish

October 20 at 4 p.m. on Zoom

November 3 at 7 p.m. at the parish

November 17 at 4 p.m. on Zoom

For more information, contact rzyber@smspnewman.org

Anti Racism Library

The parish's Anti-Racism Working Group has created the Thea Bowman Mini Library for students and parish members who want to stop by and borrow a book or DVD. The library is located in the Loyola Room (near the parish lounge area) and includes a sign-out sheet.

Materials, related to the experiences of people who most often face discrimination and unjust policies, include books such as "The Cross and the Lynching Tree," and fiction such as "The Bluest Eye," by Toni Morrison. DVD options include "Good Trouble," focusing on the late U.S. Rep. John Lewis. There are also works about indigent peoples. The group hopes to rotate selections regularly to feature more materials and additional cultural experiences. For information contact Rainey Lamey at rlamey@umich.edu, or just stop by to check it out.

BORN FOR JOY

THE 19TH ANNOTATION RETREAT AT SMSP

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius are a collection of meditations, prayers, and contemplative practices intended to help people to deepen their intimacy with God. The 19th Annotation, an adaptation of the 30-day retreat, involves daily prayer over eight months and calls for a prayerful evening review of each day. By entering into a personal experience of the mystery of Jesus's life, death, and resurrection, one can grow in love for Jesus and into a closer discipleship to him.

Several trained directors, led by Fr. Bobby Karle, S.J., will lead a small group of participants through the Annotation this academic year (beginning in mid-October, through May.)

Who is this for? The 19th Annotation retreat isn't for someone new to prayer or spiritual direction. This is an advanced trek into prayer, contemplation, collaboration and discernment.

The 19th Annotation hopes to serve people (1) in the habit of daily prayer, (2) comfortable with Sacred Scripture, and (3) receptive to ongoing spiritual direction.

Required commitments over the 8 months (32 weeks):

Daily prayer: 45-60 minutes of prayer everyday.

Spiritual direction: One-on-one meeting with an assigned spiritual director every 10-16 days. The group will also meet regularly in person and on Zoom to share and support one another along the way.

Because the retreat requires a certain level of readiness and commitment, we are requiring participants to complete an application. To access the application, and for more information, click on the following link: shorturl.at/emn68

Applications are due by September 23.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

WEDNESDAYS | 5:45 PM

"One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least", as if it were a "waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ". Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him."-Pope Francis Eucharistic Adoration will be available each Wednesday in the Church from 5:45pm-9:00pm. Please sign up as we are in need of 2 adorers per time slot. Thank you for supporting this ministry!

No gift is too small... every dollar donated helps those in our parish and in our unified efforts in the wider church. Your contribution supports dozens of ministries that help people both spiritually and physically – bringing hope, comfort, and salvation to so many in our diocese.

Further, one-half of all paid contributions received, over and above our parish goal, will be returned to our parish for our local use here at SMSF. You can submit your DSA pledge envelope during Mass this weekend - or take your DSA envelope home to prayerfully consider your gift decision. Those paying by cash or check are invited to return it to our parish office. Those who wish to pay by credit card or electronic funds transfer may enter your gift online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/appeal.

Sunday Readings

SEPTEMBER 18 — Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Am	8:4-7
Psalm	Ps	113:1-2,4-8
Reading II	1 Tm	2:1-8
Gospel	Lk	16:1-13

Amos cries out against those who exploit the poor for the sake of extortion and greed. They seek to serve only themselves rather than the Lord. By giving ourselves to God rather than to money, we can truly pray with blameless hands for all those in need, especially the poor whom the Lord will raise up.

SEPTEMBER 25 — Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Am	6:1,4-7
Psalm	Ps	146:7-10
Reading II	1 Tm	6:11-16
Gospel	Lk	16:19-31

Amos condemns the complacency of the rich who seek only their own comfort. In his parable of the rich man and Lazarus, Jesus echoes Amos, exhorting those who have to share with those who have not. Self-sufficiency must never blind us to the needs of others. Only in this way do we keep God's commandments in integrity and in truth.
