SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“When you have done all you have been commanded, say, ‘We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.’” - Lk 17:10b

“Cuando hayan cumplido todo lo que se les mandó, digan: ‘No somos más que siervos, sólo hemos hecho lo que teníamos que hacer’ ”. - Lc 17, 10

Pastoral Perspective

Dear Friends,

Last Sunday the Church celebrated the 108th Day for Migrants and Refugees. Since 1914 the number of forcibly displaced people has increased exponentially, reaching over 100 million for the first time in recorded history this past year. “As of May 2022, 100 million individuals were forcibly displaced worldwide, that is, 1 in every 80 people on earth. This accounts for an increase of 10.7 million people displaced from the end of the previous year.” (UN Refugee Agency) In light of these numbers, our sponsorship of one refugee family may feel like a mere drop in the ocean. And yet, thanks be to God, this one family is safe, thriving in their new life, and enriching our community. We now can see the refugee and migration crisis not just as a number or a news headline, but also as part of us. For we have all been “strangers in a foreign land” (Exodus 2:22).

On Monday two of our student interns, David and Libby, and I spent time at Mercy House, a Dorothy Day-inspired Catholic Worker house in Ann Arbor. We met a young woman named Danielle who is almost nine months pregnant and, until last week, was sleeping outdoors. Mercy House is currently providing shelter for Danielle and seeking ways to ensure she has housing until she can get into a shelter (a 2-3 month wait). The students and I spoke with Danielle about organizing a baby shower in the coming weeks, an idea she was delighted by. Reflecting on our experience at Mercy House, David and Libby shared, “it was amazing how joyful and welcoming everyone was. One man shared his passion for cooking and his hopes to start a cooking business. I often see people asking for money on the street, but now I have come to know them personally.” When we encounter and dialogue with people who were previously strangers or different from us, they soon become our friends in Christ, the face of God in our midst.

So often God often chooses the displaced and stranger as messengers of his truth. Migrants, refugees, and the homeless are often sent as bearers of truth and to unsettle the settled. Do we allow the marginalized and the struggles of the world to unsettle us?

Pope Francis wrote in his letter on the 2022 World Day of Migrants and Refugees, “If we want to cooperate with our heavenly Father in building the future, let us do so together with our brothers and sisters who are migrants and refugees. The Kingdom of God is to be built with them, for without them it would not be the Kingdom that God wants. The inclusion of those most vulnerable is the necessary condition for full citizenship in God’s Kingdom.”

I am grateful to be part of a community deeply committed to faith, service, and justice. Thank you for your support and generosity.

Christ’s peace,

Fr. Bobby

CATECHISTS NEEDED FOR FAMILY FAITH FORMATION AND TEEN CONFIRMATION

We are looking for undergrad and grad student volunteers who would like to be a witness of their Catholic faith by teaching Faith Formation to the children and teens of St. Mary Student Parish. Volunteer Catechists are needed for:

- Family Faith Formation classes, PreK through 7th grade
- Teen Confirmation classes, 8th grade and up.

No experience is needed, just an openness to sharing your love and joy for God. Family Faith catechists will be paired with other student catechists to team teach. Teen Confirmation catechists will be paired with other student catechists to facilitate small group activities/discussions. Teaching resources, supplies, and training will be provided.

If you are interested, please complete the following Catechist Interest form: shorturl.at/FJY01 or contact Karen Foster, Family Ministry Coordinator at :

kfoster@smspnewman.org

WOMEN OF THE HEART

Women of every age are invited to connect, be inspired, and celebrate our faith with one another. We gather monthly, mainly the 2nd Thursday of each month, from September through May, from 10:15 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Our Theme for this year:

“Affirming and Celebrating Women: Creativity, Gifts, and Charisms.”

Our next meeting is Thursday, October 13 and you are warmly invited! If you would like to be added to the email list, contact Julie Mussio jmussio@smspnewman.org.

JUST FAITH SMALL CHURCH COMMUNITY

St. Mary is offering a 9 session SCC using the JustFaith Faith & Racial Healing: Embracing Truth, Justice and Restoration program. Sessions will begin on Wednesday October 5th and meet weekly through December 7th (minus Thanksgiving week). We will gather from 7-8:30 pm at St. Mary.

This program guides participants in telling the truth about the history of racism in the United States, that we might work toward true reconciliation with God and restoration with one another. The material is rooted in scripture and prayer and invites participants to explore how their faith informs their response to their learning. Participants commit to 1-2 hours of reading, watching videos, and reflecting between sessions. For more information and to sign up please contact Karen Thomas, karenbthomas2@gmail.com

ANTI RACISM WORKING GROUP

The group meets twice a month on the first and third Thursdays, with the following schedule for the next couple of months:

- October 6 at 7 p.m. at the parish
- October 20 at 4 p.m. on Zoom
- November 3 at 7 p.m. at the parish
- November 17 at 4 p.m. on Zoom

For more information, contact rzyber@smspnewman.org

Anti Racism Library

The parish's Anti-Racism Working Group has created the "Thea Bowman Mini Library" for students and parish members who want to stop by and borrow a book or DVD. The library is located in the Loyola Room (near the parish lounge area) and includes a sign-out sheet.

Materials, related to the experiences of people who most often face discrimination and unjust policies, include books such as "The Cross and the Lynching Tree," and fiction such as "The Bluest Eye," by Toni Morrison. DVD options include "Good Trouble," focusing on the late U.S. Rep. John Lewis. There are also works about indigenous peoples. The group hopes to rotate selections regularly to feature more materials and additional cultural experiences.

For information contact Rainey Lamey at rlamey@umich.edu, or just stop by to check it out.

Save the date: October 9!!! The 48th annual Ann Arbor Hunger CROP Walk is coming soon. Please help us raise funds and awareness in our continual fight against hunger. A portion of the proceeds, 25 % of it, will support local agencies in Washtenaw county, such as The Hope Medical Clinic, Growing Hope, The Breakfast at St. Andrew's. The remaining 75 % will go to Church World Service relief and development programs.

Please register online at our St. Mary's CropWalk team page. Registration starts at 1 pm. The send-off is at 2 pm. The walk will be in person, 2 miles for the short walk and 4 miles for the long walk. Let's walk together as a team and meet before the send-off at 1:45 pm outside of Zion Lutheran Church, 1501 West Liberty Street in Ann Arbor.

Unable to walk with us in person? No problem. Walk virtually around your neighborhood by visiting our Facebook page #A2HungerWalk. Please donate online at our St. Mary's Crop Walk team page or the parish (Online Giving) website by selecting Ann Arbor Crop Hunger Walk at the drop-down list. Enter the amount you wish to donate. Or, write a check (Made out to St. Mary's with the note for CROP Walk) to the Parish office.

Please contact Alexandrina Nemmers at (808)330-6403 or email at anemmers42@protonmail.com if you want to walk, donate, or do both. Also, for any questions regarding CROP WALK. Or visit our CWS team webpage or Facebook page CWS: events.crophungerwalk.org/2022/team/st-mary-student-parish

UNSETTLING HISTORIES: U-M MUSEUM TOUR

Legacies Tour at UMMA

Join docents Connie Powers (a parish member) and Mary Wakefield, for a special tour at the University of Michigan Museum of Art on Saturday, October 15 at 1 p.m.

The tour looks at pieces in the museum's collection with an eye toward racial justice, and the museum's review of how works and people's histories have been prioritized in the past. The tours were given last year and Connie reflected on their impact:

"Art has a way of opening our eyes and our hearts. During the SMSP tours, some eyes saw a torn canvas, a physically exposed woman on bent knees, a twisted birdcage, and a bruised American flag. Some hearts felt destruction and violence, hope and reconciliation, privilege, remorse, mercy and forgiveness. All came away changed."

No need to register for the tour. Participants will meet at the UMMA information desk at 1 p.m. For more information, contact connpowers2@gmail.com

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

WEDNESDAYS | 5:45 PM

"One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least", as if it were a "waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ". Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him."-Pope Francis Eucharistic Adoration will be available each Wednesday in the Church from 5:45pm-9:00pm.

Please sign up as we are in need of 2 adorers per time slot. Thank you for supporting this ministry!

LGBT OUTREACH MINISTRY

7:00 PM ON THE 1ST AND 3RD TUESDAY OF THE MONTH

Meetings are private and confidential.

As a diverse community of believers, we respect each person as a unique reflection of God's presence in our midst. We commit ourselves to being a community of care, support, formation, reconciliation, and witness to justice with and among gay and lesbian persons, parents, family members, and friends. We teach that all love comes from God and focus on helping people reconcile their faith with their orientation. We provide a safe space for discussion, healing, and prayer. Together we reflect on Scripture and listen to the lived experiences of gay and lesbian persons and their allies.

Sunday Readings

OCTOBER 2 — Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Hb	1:2-3; 2:2-4
Psalm	Ps	95:1-2, 6-9
Reading II	2 Tm	1:6-8, 13-14
Gospel	Lk	17:5-10

Faith is a gracious gift from God. It can neither be earned nor bought, only responded to with works of love and service. A vibrant faith can make us strong, loving, and wise, confident that God will guard us from all harm. He is the Rock of our salvation.

OCTOBER 9 — Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	2 Kgs	5:14-17
Psalm	Ps	98:1-4
Reading II	2 Tm	2:8-13
Gospel	Lk	17::11-19

The Lord has revealed his saving power to all the nations! Naaman, a Syrian, is healed, and lepers are made whole, but only the Samaritan returns to give thanks. Let us remain steadfast in faith, and thankful for the Lord's blessings.
