OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE by Patricia Ronquillo and Amy Ketner

This Tuesday, December 12, we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas. In 1531, Mary appeared to Juan Diego, an indigenous man in Mexico, and told him to deliver roses to the doubting bishop. Though it was winter, Juan Diego found roses nearby and carried them in his cloak. When he dropped them at the bishop's feet, the image of Our Lady was imprinted on his cloak, and the bishop believed. They built a basilica where Mary appeared to Juan Diego, and there still remains the imprinted cloak for pilgrims to witness.

Parishioner Patricia Ronquillo helps organize the Las Mañanitas novena to Our Lady, as well as the dances for mass on Dec 12. Recently, in an emotional and powerful conversation, I asked her about Guadalupe. The following are her translated reflections:

Why is the Virgen of Guadalupe so important to you? To the Mexican people?

It's simple. She is the living image of the love of God for us. She is important to Mexico – and other Latin American countries too - because she represents us, guides us. She unites us. It is through her that we will reach our salvation. Through her we will reach Jesus' love.

Why is it significant that she appeared to Juan Diego?

I think she chose him, the most humble, poor of all, so that through him we can all know her. In this act is represented the love that is given to all. She has gone beyond borders, she has reached many places.

How did you celebrate the Feast Day in Mexico?

Once I made an eight day pilgrimage, walking from my town to the Basilica. Groups from every town make this pilgrimage. It's the most beautiful experience. One walks it singing and praying.

When I close my eyes I can still see it, arriving to Mexico City on that last day, Dec 12. We ran through the streets to the Basilica. Once we arrived, our exhaustion disappeared. We went to see the cloak's image and celebrate mass. We gave thanks for all she has done for us.

Everyone in Mexico watches the TV program on the eve of the Feast Day. There are testimonies and traditional Guadalupe songs. At midnight they sing Las Mañanitas and celebrate mass.

This takes me back many years. In my 13 years here, this is what I miss most about Mexico, all of these Guadalupe traditions.

Any final thoughts about Our Lady?

I believe in God. I believe in Jesus. And I believe in her too.

I think we need to increase our faith. All the apparitions she has made around the world are so that we may have peace, love in our world, but more than anything so that we may love her Son.

Our Lady of Guadalupe is my guide, my role model to follow.

Please join us in celebrating this special Feast Day of Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. On Tuesday, music begins in the Church at 6:30pm and mass at 7pm. Mass includes traditional dances, a children's offering of roses to Our Lady and a representation of her apparitions. A reception with food and music is to follow. All are welcome!

CENTERING PRAYER

MONDAYS | 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by his Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God.

Centering Prayer is an intentional openness to, or practice of "waiting" on God, encouraging the building of a more intimate relationship with Jesus and the movement of the Holy Spirit. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer.

The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction. The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. All are welcome.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Reading I	Isaiah	40:1-5,9-11
Psalms	Psalms	85:9-14
Reading II	2 Peter	3:8-14
Gospel	Mark	1:1-8

As we await new heavens and a new earth, let us make clear the way of the Lord by being servants of justice, truth, and peace.

DECEMBER 17

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Reading I	Isaiah	61:1-2a, 10-11
Psalms	Luke	1:46-50,53-54
Reading II	1 Thes.	5:16-24
Gospel	John	1:6-8, 19-28
