FINDING GOD IN LEADERSHIP -Katelyn Johnson, Junior

We attend an incredible, busy, and extremely demanding University. The first few days, weeks, and months of our experience here at Michigan challenge us: who are we? What community will we find? Do we have the strength to uphold our values? Our minds run with a constant list of things to do, we walk around sleep deprived, and we find the devil trying to shake our faith.

My freshman year I was searching for Jesus, thirsting for His help and comfort. I prayed that He would give me the faith to let go and let Him work in my new life at the university. Almost mid-way through the year, I got an invitation from our campus minister to consider applying to be a student leader at SMSP.

Perhaps this was the opportunity that Jesus was giving me to grow closer to Him. After prayer and consideration, I sent in my student leader application. Just a couple weeks after, I accepted my offer to become a member of the outreach team at St. Mary's. Although there are many ministry lead teams that our student leaders serve on, I felt that outreach was a great fit for me. St. Mary's was beginning to feel less like a study space and more like a home.

After nearly two years serving on SMSP's outreach team, I have seen a drastic change in my relationships at the parish. The staff quickly morphed into a solid support team who truly had an interest in my life and my faith. Student leadership days introduced me to other student leaders who became both friends and inspiration. And as for my faith, I started to see major gains in my relationship with God and my personal definition of who I am as a daughter of the King. I was beginning to see the Lord more clearly in our community at St. Mary's.

"For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."
—Matthew 18:20

Being a student leader has challenged me to grow in my faith and to learn from my fellow student leaders. I truly believe God called me to my student leadership position to teach me specific things that I personally needed to hear. Through these past two years I have learned how to step back from the strong grip of the University and see Jesus in the little things: smiles, flowers, hugs, words, and overfed Michigan squirrels.

God called me to be a student leader, to grow in my faith within the comfort of a strong, caring, loving, and Christ-filled student community. Where is God calling you? Is he calling you to serve with one of our ministries? Pray. Listen. Discern. Come and join us, we would love to share our journey of faith with you, to walk with you, to learn from you, and to love you as our sibling in Christ.

"I wanted you. I appointed you. I set you where you are." —John 15:16

UNDERGRADUATE LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

As the umbrella organization, Catholic Campus Community (CCC) provides opportunities for students to share their gifts of leadership by engaging and inviting students, through service opportunities, planning and executing events, providing hospitality and welcome as well as many other roles within the parish.

St. Mary invites willing and eager students into positions of leadership, to grow as Catholic leaders today and for the church's future. As a student parish we provide opportunities to learn through action. You will be able to develop your leadership skills alongside a dedicated staff and support system whose mission is to engage and develop student leaders. The Church needs dedicated students to lead and assist fellow students in their growth in building faith-filled friendships that lead to service beyond the walls of the church.

For position descriptions, please visit our website: <http://www.stmarystudentparish.org/campus-ministry/catholic-campus-community/student-leaders/>

This application must be submitted no later than Sunday 11/19 to Brian Cerabona, Campus Minister at St. Mary Student Parish.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTIONS

MON, NOV 20 | 7:00 pm

Join us for dessert and time to socialize or network with other grad students and young professionals. A different speaker each month will lead us into faith-based discussion. This month's speaker is Etta MacDonagh-Dumler. Etta will share insights and reflections on women of faith who have influenced her journey as woman, wife, mother, grandmother, sister, friend and companion, and who have been guides for her as a woman in today's church. How were these women of faith shaped by the events of their day, and how did they faithfully respond to what God was asking of them?

For more information about the Grad/YP group, or to be added to our email list, contact the Grad/YP lead team smssp.grads.lead@umich.edu or Fr. Joe jwagner@smspnewman.org

THUR, NOV 16 | 5:10 PM

St. Ignatius told his fellow Jesuits to “go forth and set the world on fire” Our undergraduate-led ministry draws its inspiration from Ignatius with a dual purpose: to welcome students into the parish, bringing them together as an undergraduate community through celebrating mass, sharing a meal, and allowing you to engage with faith as it interacts in their everyday lives as college students.

Guest speaker is Dr. Prachi Shah on the topic “Stability of the Heart” When things start to get uncomfortable are we tempted to bail? How can we trust that God has placed us to where we’ll be most fruitful? Prachi will share with us the importance of being patient with God especially when we want to run away.

Ig.nite meets every Thursday of the academic year (except holidays) for a student-led 5:10 PM mass in the church followed by a meal, some guided conversation, and socializing. The evening typically wraps up by 7 PM. Contact Ali aquinn@smspnewman.org

The baptism preparation packet contains articles and discussion questions for parents and godparents. It also contains a Baptism Registration form which must be filled out prior to class.

At the discussion, parents (and godparents, if possible) will have an opportunity to ask questions about Catholic Baptism and schedule their baptism in the Church. If you've attended a baptism class before, we don't require you to attend another. Saturday baptisms are private ceremonies usually celebrated by the deacon.

CENTERING PRAYER

MONDAYS | 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by his Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God.

Centering Prayer is an intentional openness to, or practice of "waiting" on God, encouraging the building of a more intimate relationship with Jesus and the movement of the Holy Spirit. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer.

The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction. The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. All are welcome.

Reading I	Wisdom	6:12-16
Psalm	Psalms	63:2-8
Reading II	1 Thes	4:13-18
Gospel	Matthew	25:1-13

We seek many things in this life, but we should seek first the Lord and his wisdom. By so living, we will keep vigil for the Lord as we await His return in glory.

NOVEMBER 19

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Proverbs	31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31
Psalm	Psalms	128:1-5
Reading II	1 Thes	5:1-6
