UNDERGRAD RETREAT REFLECTION

BY BRIAN CERABONA, CAMPUS MINISTER

The first weekend of November, we had over 50 students participate in our first ever Search Retreat weekend at Colombiere Retreat Center in Clarkston, MI. It was student-led with a team of 9 students who led talks, small groups, and reflection opportunities for our students. As a Kairos style retreat, there were some who had experience this type of retreat while there were many first time students to this type of retreat!

We had so many great moments with new students and they really enjoyed being away from campus for the weekend to focus on their relationship with others and God. I especially enjoyed helping our student leaders with their talks. They were incredible and it was a privilege to support and help develop their stories to share! It really inspired me to see their courage, faith, and openness to help share the Gospel with their peers.

Thank you all for your support and prayers as we continue to help provide these moments of encounter for our students! Fr. Kyle, Julia, and I have enjoyed launching this new retreat for and with our students and are excited to see more students connecting with our community from this retreat.

We are looking forward to continue to accompany our students on their search for relationships, community, and faith during their time here at Michigan!

Sr. Nancy Murray, OP as St. Catherine of Siena

Join us for a special event on Wednesday, November 30, at 3:30 pm in Donnelly Hall. Sr. Nancy Murray will captivate us with a joyful presentation of St. Catherine of Siena, Doctor of the Church. St. Catherine was an passionate and amazing woman who set fire to her world, and will bring fire to ours, all with a sense of humor!

See you there at this delightful family friendly event.

REGISTRATION CAMPAIGN OCT. 30-NOV. 30

Why register with St Mary?

- * Connection : The pastor and the staff get to know you better, welcome you and minister with you.
- * Access to parish information : This gives SMSP the ability to reach out to you and let you know about events, prayer and study opportunities and ways you can give back. You will have a greater awareness of the ministries, programs, sacraments and spiritual support.
- * Registered active members are eligible for sponsor/godparent validation.
- * The Diocese of Lansing will consider registration numbers when making decisions about “grouping” with other parishes. Moreover, staff and resources might be insufficiently allocated to or even removed from, so we need to know the true size and needs of the St Mary’s community.

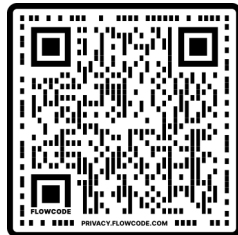

Our mission is to be a welcoming and inclusive community. Knowing who is participating is vital to the success of this mission. Regardless of how you engage, we are so grateful for your presence here!

You can help us:

Through the month of November, we are having a registration drive.

Registration forms are on a table in the atrium.

INTO THE LIGHT

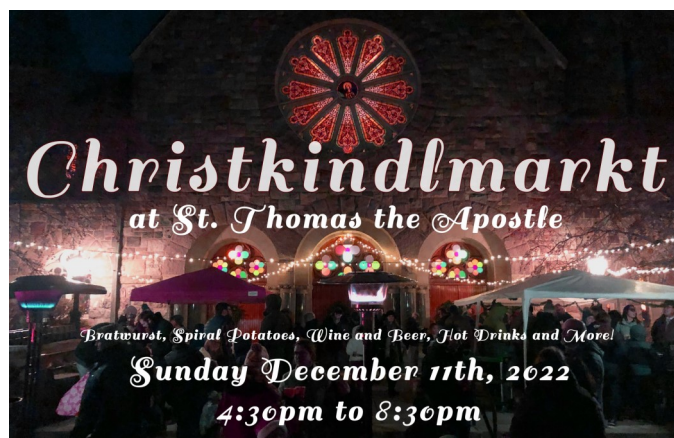

SATURDAYS AT 9AM: DEC 3, 10, AND 17

Into the Light is a fellowship group, a warm welcoming community, that has been meeting on Saturday mornings during Advent and Lent since the 1970's.

Ours is a "Road to Emmaus" style of gathering --a prayer service using the Sunday's readings and then break fast with a potluck, and round-the-table we each share brief reflections of what stood out in the readings. We share our spiritual and life journeys towards the celebration of Christmas through prayer and companionship.

All are welcome. We will be meeting in person and have a zoom option this Advent season.

Contact Rainey rlamey@umich.edu for further information.

Christkindlmarkt is back! St. Thomas will be hosting its second outdoor German Christmas market on Sunday, December 11th.

This traditional outdoor German market will consist of bratwurst, fried potatoes, drinks, fellowship and more! All food items will be sold at a minimal cost. Please bring cash! It will be the quickest and easiest means of payment.

Location: Church Plaza

We hope to see you there!

UNDERSTANDING IMPLICIT BIAS

--- SMSP Anti-racism Working Group

A young African-American professor enters a crowded and lively afternoon tea in his department, the colleagues talking freely, socially or professionally. Yet nobody looks at him. Why is that, and what are we as Catholics to make of this?

How normal the situation must seem to the colleagues looking the other way. The young professor points out that it has been so his entire time at the university and has made him feel very excluded. Since none of his colleagues would likely admit to explicitly choosing not to look, we should examine whether this isn't a form of implicit bias, a bias that people may not even be aware of, though the impact of such actions may at times be much more powerful on others than our intent.

It is natural that one has a sense of "one's own", but in the end, too strong a sense of this identity is contrary to the Christian vocation of love for our neighbor, and paradoxically maintains, for example, the sense of isolation and "otherness" which people of color feel every day. We may not be aware of biased treatment against others like what the young professor experienced, but he certainly feels this every day. This is a very small example of the harm which implicit bias can do to our neighbors, but that's the point – it's so small yet so personally experienced, so constantly reinforced, down to the smallest detail. One keeps the other at such a distance that we cannot spare a look in his direction? Or the young man in Silent Beats (linked below): what assumptions about crime are being made there? Implicit bias is a fertile soil for the poisonous weeds of explicit bias, as witnessed by the current resurgence of openly racist remarks in America.

Implicit bias is well-hidden within us, but with God's help we may open our hearts to a way out of its spiritual confines. As Catholics we are used to examining our consciences. As we reflect on our own actions, let us pray for greater awareness and understanding. With His help we can see past the curtain hiding implicit bias from ourselves, making our world a place more full of love and joy.

Videos: Here are two brief videos that ask how you would react in similar circumstances. In particular, they highlight the relation of implicit bias and assumptions about criminality.

Silent Beats (5 min)

What Would You Do?: Bicycle Thief Episode (5 min)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ge7i60GuNRg>

Prayer: Lord God, free us from the bonds of bias, and lead us to a love of all persons, all of us created in your likeness. As the pope has reminded us, "We cannot tolerate or turn a blind eye to racism and exclusion in any form and yet claim to defend the sacredness of every human life." May this be our motto. Amen.

Note: This is part of a monthly series to help parishioners to learn more about racism, to reflect on our conscious and unconscious attitudes, and to pray that we all work to fully accept, honor, and support all people as children of God.

Sunday Readings

NOVEMBER 13 — Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Mal 3:19-20a

Psalm Ps 98:5-9

Reading II 2Thes 3:7-12

Gospel Lk 21:5-19

Jesus teaches that his disciples will be persecuted as a necessary prelude to the parousia. Through their perseverance, they will emerge victorious when the Lord comes again. As we await the Day, let us conscientiously fulfill our Christian obligations.

NOVEMBER 20 — Feast of Christ the King

Reading I Sm 5:1-3

Psalm Ps 122:1-5

Reading II Col 1:12-20

Gospel Lk 23:35-43

In Hebron, David is hailed as king of all tribes of Israel. Jesus is anointed king on the wood of his cross, a sign of paradox, of defeat yet final victory. Through his cross we have passed from darkness into the kingdom of light.
