Pastoral Perspective

Fr. Ben Hawley, S.J.

Generosity, like mercy, is twice blessed. It blesses those who give and those who receive. And you have – as usual – been generous in your support of our parish. During this year's Christmas Gift 2014 opportunity you gave us just over $136,000, and during last year's Bridge the Gap opportunity you gave us just over $103,000. So I hope you are feeling very blessed. I certainly am, and I want to thank you profusely for these gifts and for your generosity.

What does it mean to be blessed? This church-talk conjures images of formally dressed priests waving thuribles of incense. That is of course partly true. But the word indicates more than that: a blessing is an action of one person or group of people that confers that which is good on another person or group of people. As people of Catholic faith – and as Catholic people of faith – we believe that such actions invoke divine participation as well. So when I do that which is good for you, God joins me in offering the good. The good you receive, coming from me and from God, raises this good into a richer source of joy, of life, of inspiration, and of hope than any human being could create by himself or herself.

At the end of the undergraduate men's retreat last Sunday morning I offered a blessing to each of the leaders who in turn blessed the members of their small groups. Then – “filled with the Holy Spirit,” as St Luke said in his gospel - all 25 undergrads blessed one another. The formulation I gave them for the blessing was really quite simple, as the best blessings should be: “I'm glad you were here. While we were here, I saw that you are... (and they filled in recollections of what they had seen the man say and do). So I ask God to give you...(and they filled in whatever they asked God to give him or do for him.)”

Notice that the blessing process can be done without using the word “blessing.” And without thuribles of incense and formal rubrics. It is quite simple, and each of you who is baptized can give a blessing with God's authority conferred at our baptisms: the Royal Priesthood of Christ. When coming from the heart, such a blessing invokes God's participation and so becomes something very rich and dynamic, bringing about whatever has been asked for.

So I thank you one more time for blessing us at the end of the last calendar year with your generosity. I assure you that your gifts are indeed a blessing. And I ask you to be attentive to the reality of your own lives and see and count the blessings that God offers you. Not least is the reality of Jesus present in the power of the Holy Spirit at every moment of our lives, the Spirit abiding in us always ready to assist us as we may need and ask.

Alpha House Shelter for Homeless Families

Click here to sign up now http://tinyurl.com/smsp-ihn-jan15

St. Mary's serves Alpha House, a shelter for homeless families, the week of 1/26 – 2/01/2015. Volunteers are needed to make and serve meals, play with the children in the evenings, and to stay overnight. This is a great way to share the love of Christ with others in need. Alpha House is an amazing place that allows families to stay together while facing the challenge to get back to providing housing and stability for themselves. You can share this journey with them as an individual, with a group of friends, or as a family.

Your influence in socializing with the children, preparing and providing a meal, and lending a kind ear for a parent can bring joy and peace to a time of transition. Parishioners are welcome to bring their own children along to volunteer, as they can provide a welcome friend for a child of a similar age.

Don't have time to volunteer? You can donate money to help provide meals. As little as $10 can provide part of a meal that someone else may have time to serve but does not have the funds to provide.

Have questions or looking for more info? Contact SMSP's IHN/Alpha House Coordinator Nancy Herlocher nancy.herlocher@gmail.com

Reflection on SCCs

Have you ever felt like you were at a standstill in your relationship with God? Or that you kept pushing God to the sidelines because of your busy schedule? At the beginning of my sophomore year I realized that that had become my practice. Then I joined an SCC - I wanted more time with God! I wanted another way to build my relationship with Him and I had never really prayed with Scripture before. It seemed like a wonderful opportunity so I signed up!

To say that SCC only gave me more time with God would be unjust! Being in an SCC provides me with a safe space to connect with Him and reflect on the ways He is guiding me through the week. It is a nourishing experience fed by the stories of others and strengthened by the trust to share our faith with one another. And it is rejuvenating - it added more dimension to my faith life in two ways, breaking open the Word of God and walking a journey of new understanding with my fellow participants who I can call friends. My SCC gave me a community and a sacred space to reflect, and as a busy college student it's exactly what I need each week to find God and grow in my faith.

Mondays at 7:00 PM

Discussions are guided by church-approved commentaries, question guides, and the Catechism of the Catholic Church. We meet Mondays at 7 PM.

Centering Prayer

Mondays at 6:15 PM

Centering Prayer is a method of silent, contemplative prayer in which thoughts and feelings are stilled as we simply seek to be with God. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer. The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction. We meet Mondays at 6:15 PM. All are welcome. The first Monday of each month is a special introductory session, during which we listen to an audio tape that describes the method of Centering Prayer session. Otherwise, we typically sit for two 20-minute silent prayer sessions with a short meditative walk in between.
