Now is the Time

By Fr. Ben Hawley, S.J.

For God says, "At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you." See, now is the acceptable time. See, now is the day of salvation!

(II Corinthians 6:1, 2)

In writing to the Corinthian community, St. Paul quotes Isaiah 49 to help them realize that the 500-year-old prophesy is being fulfilled in his time – and NOW in our time. So, my staff and I have chosen as our parish theme for this Lent:

Now is the Time.

Of course, Lent already has a theme – so we really do not need to devise a new one: God's active love, made present in Jesus, overcomes whatever constrains us and guarantees us new life with God forever. But that abstract theme, true as it is, remains an abstraction until we invite God to make it real in our own experience. Our parish theme, then, is an invitation to each of us to hear St. Paul speaking to us individually and personally, Now in this time in a new and special way.

Our major Lent theme gives rise to a variety of modes of engaging God and this season: so the theme for the first week of Lent is Now is the Time to Prepare. In a similar way the themes for weeks two to six build on the initial invitation: Now is the Time to Listen, to See, to Act, to Heal, and to Say Yes. As you and I are willing to respond to the invitation of each of these weeks, we will be ready to engage more fully with Jesus as he enters into Holy Week and the great climax of his public ministry.

Living out these themes requires personal commitment, a commitment that we then share communally at mass and in service. So for the coming week the theme Now is the Time to Prepare asks you to make a concrete resolution to engage more deeply in some way special to you. Start with something easy, but powerful: every day name the many good things of your life (family, job, house, health) and thank God. Or start with reading something on-line, like the Small Church Community reflections on the readings of the Sundays of Lent, or the St Mary's blog, or daily reflections from the Jesuits of the British Province (Pray as You Go) or the Irish Province (Sacred Silence).

But, please START! Now is the Time! What is at stake is our own lives and the life of the world. Jesus promises us a life that is fuller and richer than anything we can imagine or create for ourselves. And he promises us a way through the hard times that will come to most of us. Jesus also promises to prepare us and send us to people in need – who may be right around us now – who need divine help that we can offer through our efforts, as a matter of care or a fight for justice. Lent is our time to come to know him more fully and the fullness of life that only he can give.

Rotating Shelter

Deepen Your Faith

Follow Along with SCCs

If you'd like to study the materials prepared for our Small Church Communities, but haven't had time to join a group, the SCC resources are available to everyone on the parish website. The SCC materials for Lent include reflections by students and parish members. They are useful as a guide for prayer, background to the Sunday readings, or for your own spiritual growth and development. View or study the materials by visiting <http://www.stmarystudentparish.org/worship/scc/>

SMSP Internships Available

Have you considered applying at St. Mary Student Parish?

Students, we invite you to share your skills with us and gain valuable leadership and professional experience.

St. Mary Student Parish continues to offer student internships in a variety of areas, not just roles in ministry. Available internships include outreach and engagement, family faith formation, graphic design, stewardship and development, music, Hispanic ministry, event planning, retreats and others.

Interns will be paid a stipend per semester. They will also meet with staff members for professional development, will network with parishioners and other students, and will ultimately collaborate on a project to be showcased to the parish.

Want to learn more? <http://www.stmarystudentparish.org/campus-ministry/student-interns/>.

Sunday Readings

February 15

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Leviticus	13:1-2, 44-46
Psalm	Psalms	32:1-2, 5, 11
Reading II	1 Corinthians	10:31 - 11:1
Gospel	Mark	1:40-45

Jesus manifests the powerful, healing love of God by curing the leper who was forced to live under severe restrictions by Jewish legislation. He turned to Jesus in his need and was filled with joy.

* * * * *

February 22

First Sunday of Lent

Reading I	Genesis	9:8 -15
Psalm	Psalms	25:4-9
Reading II	1 Peter	3:18 - 22
Gospel	Mark	1:12 - 15

Mindful of his covenant, the Lord promises never to destroy creation again by flood waters. The waters of baptism bring salvation and forgiveness through the death of Christ. After fasting forty days and being put to the test, Jesus begins his public ministry.
