Third Sunday of Lent

Lenten Reflection

By A Female Parishioner

What's your math placement?" "I placed out of the language requirement; did you?" I wince as I hear conversations like this outside of my office door when entering first year students come to register for fall classes. It seems to be human nature to compare ourselves to others in order, at best, to recognize our gifts and our weaknesses, and at worst, to feel better about ourselves in the face of others' failings. The second reading for this third Sunday of Lent uses comparison as a prod to true humility.

In our second reading today, Paul exhorts the Corinthians to avoid the "grumbling" of the Israelites wandering in the desert with Moses. He points to these Israelites as examples of how not to behave: show ingratitude, ignore the commandments, believe you know better than God. The passage implies that they were mistakenly self-assured, as it closes with the warning, "Whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall;" i.e., if you compare to those Israelites in complacency, then get ready to fail.

It's easy for me to be complacent during Lent. I do so many of the right things--attend the Ash Wednesday service, faithfully participate at mass, keep the required fasts, donate during special Lenten collections, et al.--in order to assure myself that I'm doing all that God wants of me. Or is that all? It's easy just to go through the motions in these Lenten practices. However, Jesus reminds us in today's Gospel that God most desires repentance, a change of heart, lives given over to God's mercy. This mid-Lent, let us allow Jesus to nourish us as we mindfully move through these practices and in the times of quiet prayer where we attend to His call.

Question for Reflection:

✠ Where are you complacent in your relationship with Jesus?

Lent 2016 Cast Into the Story

This Lent you have been cast into the story. The roles will not always be easy; you may find yourself tempted by the devil, as Jesus was for 40 days in the wilderness. Or you may find you've turned away from Jesus, as Peter did on the eve of the crucifixion.

We are all cast into different roles, at different times, but during these times we must remember we are all one cast: the children of God. Open your heart this Lent and let the drama prepare you for the risen Lord.

The following themes will guide us on our journey:

- ◆ Ash Wednesday: We are cast as a common humanity.
- ◆ First Sunday of Lent: We are cast as children of God.
- ◆ Second Sunday of Lent: We are cast as a blessing to others.
- ◆ Third Sunday of Lent: We are cast to a universal need for grace.
- ◆ Fourth Sunday of Lent: We are cast to return home.
- ◆ Fifth Sunday of Lent: We are cast to be merciful.
- ◆ Palm Sunday: Casting Call!

New for Lent!

Each week, we're passing out a small card as you exit the church to help guide your reflection. We invite you to keep this card in your pocket, on your dashboard, or even on your fridge - place it where you'll have a moment to reflect on how you're cast into the story.

This meditation question:
Where does your weakness put you in deeper contact or solidarity with others?

“The Church does not exist to condemn but to bring about an encounter with God’s mercy... [The Church should] embrace the outcast, the marginalized and the sinner.” ~Pope Francis

Right at the beginning of Pope Francis’ pontificate, when asked who is Jorge Bergoglio, he replied, “I am a sinner, but I trust in the infinite mercy and patience of our Lord Jesus Christ.” He has made the need for God’s mercy and our obligation to extend that mercy the hallmark of his papacy. He has repeatedly sought forgiveness for his own sins and the sins of the Church. Most recently in Mexico, he asked for forgiveness from indigenous people for the sins committed by the Church on the first peoples of this hemisphere.

As we continue to celebrate the JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY, we turn our attention to Seek Forgiveness and Clothe the Naked. Look to our website and the Year of Mercy display in the atrium for resources to help you practice these works of mercy.

Into the Light

Saturday Mornings at 7:45

Into the Light is a faith-sharing group that meets at 7:45 am Saturdays during Lent through March 19. At each meeting, the group reflects on Lenten scripture readings and holds a communion service together. Everyone brings a dish to share for breakfast, too. Please join us. All are welcome.

Masses —8:30 AM, 10:00 AM, 12:00 PM, 2:00 PM Spanish, 5:00 PM & 9:00 PM

Dear Parishioners,

We are continuing our intensive work on setting in place the foundational infrastructure that will allow our liturgies to flow smoothly. With this infrastructure in place I hope you will be able to experience these liturgies more deeply. We also believe that this work will allow us to attract an excellent candidate as the new Director of Music and Worship. The following points will give you a sense of our work to date.

God's Peace,

Rev. Bryan A. Hawley, M.J.

Mass Coordination

- New missalettes with music and Sunday readings along with the new addition of the Gather hymnal allow us to participate more fully and sing some contemporary Catholic music.
- We continue to recruit liturgical ministers, particularly ushers, from your midst and train them to assist us all in our worship.
- We have prepared detailed scripts for all special masses, notably Palm Sunday and services of the Easter Triduum. These scripts, combined with additional rehearsals for presiders, ministers and other key participants will allow all participating to do so in a more relaxed and meaningful way.
- The preparing of instructions for all masses standardize ministers' work across all masses, allowing more parishioners to participate and to do so at different masses on a Sunday. Similar guides will be completed for special masses, including weddings and funerals.
- A new system for setup and cleanup for all masses plus a newly standardized pattern for the distribution of Communion to those present allow more parishioners to participate, help ministers understand their roles more clearly and help those present to receive Communion in a more fluid manner that allows more prayerful movement around the church.

Musicians & Music Ministry

- Choir directors and pianists meet regularly Fr Ben and Fr John to discuss appropriate musical selection during Ordinary time (January) and the Lent and Easter seasons. Music sung at masses should support and expand the readings of the day and themes of the liturgical season, making the experience of those attending mass richer and more meaningful.
- We continue to develop a real sense of team work among all musicians and to begin the process of recruiting new musicians for this year and next year. We have also established a goal to use music as a worship in which all participate and avoid a sense of music as performance.

- This year's attendance is slightly higher than last year's and noticeably higher than 2012.
- The data suggest that at least some of those who used to attend the 10:10am and 7:00pm masses continue to worship at St. Mary but at a different mass time, often 8:30am and 5pm.
- Attendance at the 9pm mass is overwhelmingly made up of undergraduates.
- Lower attendance at 2:00 is likely due to a Spanish language mass offered at St. John the Baptist in Ypsilanti (new as of 2013).

Liturgy 101

St. Mary Student Parish is taking a deeper look at the way we celebrate the Mass. Each week in the bulletin (and at stmarystudentparish.org) we will explore the meaning and origins of the Sacrament that is central to who we are as Catholics.

Liturgy of the Eucharist (Breaking of the Bread)

After the Sign of Peace, the breaking of the bread is next: yet another symbol of the unity of those gathered in Christ. In this ritual, the presider takes a small piece of the consecrated bread and adds it to the precious blood. This early medieval rite, called the commingling, is a symbolic reuniting of Body and Blood to symbolize the resurrection of Christ.

The presider says an accompanying prayer asking for the ultimate fruit of the meal: eternal life. "May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it."

(Adapted from Mass 101, Liturgy and Life, by Emily Strand, MA, Liguori Publications)

So the bread, though broken, is one loaf; so we who will share in this meal become "one body, one Spirit in Christ. As St. Paul says to the Corinthians, "because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake in the one loaf." (1 Corinthians 10:16)

(Emily Strand)

Flint Family Service Trip

Rose Mass & Dinner

March 5 at St Thomas in Ann Arbor

The Lansing Diocese's Catholic Medical Association Guild is hosting their annual Rose mass and dinner, a celebration for renewing our commitment as Catholic healthcare professionals. Our target audience is Catholic healthcare students, clergy, and healthcare professionals--nurses, doctors, physician assistants, pharmacists, dentists, physical and occupational therapists, and all those who work in community or public health-- and we would love to have parishioners from St. Mary Student join us!

This year's celebration (March 5 in Ann Arbor) begins with 4:30pm mass at St Thomas. Bishop Boyea will be celebrating the mass and will be offering a special blessing for your work in the healthcare field. You will also be invited to recite a Christian version of the Hippocratic Oath. Dinner will follow at Weber's with a panel of experts to address questions and stimulate discussion.

If you have colleagues who may be interested in attending, please share this invitation with them!

CROSSROADS 2016 EASTER MEAL

Volunteers, Easter Baskets & Donations Needed!

On Easter Sunday, March 27th, the St. Mary's community will prepare and serve dinner at Crossroads Soup Kitchen in downtown Detroit (learn more about Crossroads at www.crossroadsofmichigan.org). Volunteering at this event is a great way to share in and celebrate the love of the Easter season with 1,000 Detroit community members and other St. Mary's parishioners!

THERE ARE MANY WAYS TO GET INVOLVED IN THIS SERVICE:

1. Volunteer at Crossroads on Easter Sunday.

- + First Shift: 8:00am-12:00pm (Meal Preparation)
- + Second Shift: 11:15am-3:45pm (Dinner Serving)

If you would like to volunteer, please e-mail Aren at arenewby@gmail.com. Please include the following in your e-mail: your preferred shift, whether you need a ride to Detroit, and (if you have a car) the number of additional people you can take with you to Crossroads. If you do not have e-mail access, please give the above information and your phone number to Bill Alt, Campus Minister for Social Justice (734) 663-0557 ext 235.

2. We need Easter baskets and lots of candy!

Many children are guests at our Easter meal. Help us give each of them an Easter basket as a special gift from St. Mary's! Please donate filled Easter baskets or basket making components (baskets, crayons, chocolate bunnies, etc.). In addition to Easter Baskets, each meal comes with a small bag of Easter Candy.

We would greatly appreciate candy donations—mini/fun size wrapped candies are the best. Larger bars and unwrapped candy are difficult to bag, and can get messy. Please take your Easter basket and candy donations to the parish office by Monday, March 14.

3. Make a donation.

Your financial support of this communal meal with our brothers and sisters in Detroit is what makes it happen. Please make checks payable to: St Mary Student Parish and write "Crossroads Easter Meal" on the memo line.

Thank you, as always, for your tremendous generosity.

For more information, please contact Bill Alt, Campus Minister for Social Justice at walt@smspnewman.org or (734)663-0557 ext 235.

SUNDAY READINGSFEBRUARY 28 – THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Reading I	Exodus	3:1-8a, 13-15
Psalm	Psalms	103:1-4, 6-8, 11
Reading II	1Corinthians	10:1-6, 10-12
Gospel	Luke	13:1-9

From the burning bush, Moses is called by God to lead his people out of slavery into freedom. The parable of the fig tree speaks, on the one hand, of God's patience, but, on the other, of the urgency of the call to conversion. Like the Hebrews of old, we too have failed to heed God's call, thinking ourselves to be self-righteous.

* * * *

MARCH 6 – FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Reading I	Joshua	5:9a, 10-12
Psalm	Psalms	34:2-7
Reading II	2Corinthians	5:17-21
Gospel	Luke	15:1-3, 11-32

Having arrived in the promised land, the Hebrews celebrated their deliverance from affliction and distress in the Passover. Christ, our passover, has entrusted to us the message of reconciliation: let us forgive one another and celebrate the unconditional and abundant love of God our Father.

Born for Joy Mondays at 7 PM

A 12-step recovery group for men (ages 18+), who struggle with sexual acting out/pornography and are sincerely looking for hope and help in a community of fellow strugglers. Structured discussions are led by an experienced leader, offering times for listening and sharing. Discern, discover, and understand your struggles. Find God already helping you, and recover your joy. Primarily for students and young men. (Other men welcome as well.) Not for the curious, researchers, reporters. Please be courteous and stay away. PLEASE THANK
OUR SPONSORS!

This bulletin is furnished to the parish without charge.

The advertisements that appear completely defray all publishing costs with which the church would otherwise be burdened. Please patronize these sponsors as a thank you for their kind generosity.
