NO  W  TIME IS THE

LENTEN THEMES BY WEEK As we anticipate the coming of our risen Lord, we must prepare. Our calendar is broken down into weekly themes, ie "Now is the Time to Prepare." Join us on our Lenten journey as we prepare, listen, see, act, heal, and say yes!

NOW IS THE TIME ...TO SEE

By Kelly Dunlop, Associate Director of Campus Ministry

11pm. 1:10am. 3am. 5:20am. I swore I had only just shut my eyes when the infant cry began again, sending pangs of anxiousness through my body and necessitating my need to get up. I rolled over to sit on the edge of the bed, completely sleep deprived and feeling desperate in a pile of tears.

"I'm not sure I can do this," I thought to myself.

"How will I get through another day?"

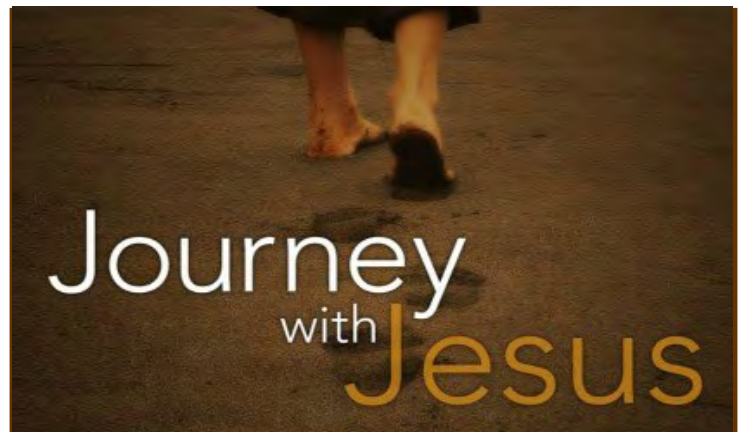

I stumbled to her room to embrace all 8lbs of my little girl. In a zombie-like state I made our way to the Lazy Boy to nurse. And it was there, in a quiet moment of rocking together in the wee still hours of the morning when our eyes met and locked in with one another, that I was transfigured.

The first few weeks of life, an infant cannot focus much more than a foot in front of them—nearly equal from the breast to the eyes—and researchers have found that as a child gazes upon their mother and a mother on their child, the brain produces a surge of oxytocin, the love hormone, in both of them. Miraculous. As I gazed into my daughter's eyes and she back into mine I was completely comfortable, resulting in a deep internal peace and holistic sense of self in the truest sense. How seldom it is that we stare into the eyes of another for any prolonged time, even those we care for most deeply, without pulling away slightly embarrassed or uncomfortable. It was in that mundane and yet sacred moment, that I knew my own belovedness because I saw and felt it gazing back at me.

"This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

This weekend's Gospel is both preceded and followed by stories of activity and ministry; of Jesus present in a very real way to the needs of those around him: casting out unclean and impure spirits, challenging hardened hearts and unbelief, healing the blind, the mute, and those with leprosy. But here he is intentionally seeking out time to pray, time to remove himself from the busyness of his mission and to reconnect with his ultimate source. To continue to give of yourself even in the most rewarding of circumstances without taking time in prayer, silence or meditation, ultimately results in burnout. If Jesus reacted to a full and overly busy schedule anything like I do, he likely was becoming less than his best. It is in these times I am short of temper and patience and quick to tears or a biting comment. Interesting, it is in this reality that Jesus invites Peter, James and John to companion him, not just in a fun escape to get away from it all, but in prayer.

So often I get caught up in the "Lenten stuff"—the ashes, no meat on Fridays, give up this; give away more; follow the rules and recite the lines. Yet God invites all of us in this sacred time of preparation to rest in God's loving gaze, with complete vulnerability and to know Him and be known in the most profound way.

10:00 AM on Saturday, March 14

Journey with Jesus is a self-directed, experiential retreat through the life, ministry, sentencing and death of Jesus. As we prepare for the holiest of weeks, take the time to engage deeply in prayer and reflection.

Journey with Jesus is composed of 10 interactive stations throughout the parish building. All participants will be given a reflection booklet to guide them through a hands-on experience of prayer which engages all of the senses. Participants will then conclude the prayer experience with a Lenten lunch and small group discussion.

Due to the nature of this prayer experience, spaces are limited to the first 100 parishioners. Please sign up today on our website.

There is likely to be a waiting list, so if you realize you are no longer able to participate, please let Kelly know ASAP to ensure maximum participation.

Questions? Contact Campus Minister Kelly Dunlop at kldunlop@umich.edu or 734-663-0557 ext 244.

Into the Light

Saturday Mornings at 7:45

Into the Light is a faith-sharing group that meets at 7:45 am Saturdays during Lent through March 28. At each meeting, the group reflects on Lenten scripture readings and holds a communion service together. Everyone brings a dish to share for breakfast, too. Please join us. All are welcome.

2015 CROSSROADS EASTER MEAL

VOLUNTEERS, EASTER BASKETS & DONATIONS NEEDED!

On Easter Sunday, April 5th, St. Mary's community will prepare and serve dinner at Crossroads Soup Kitchen in downtown Detroit (learn more about Crossroads at www.crossroadsofmichigan.org). Volunteering at this event is a great way to share in and celebrate the love of the Easter season with over 1,000 Detroit community members and other St. Mary's parishioners!

THERE ARE MANY WAYS TO GET INVOLVED IN THIS SERVICE:

1. Help us deliver food items, supplies, and Easter Basket goods to Crossroads on Friday, April 3rd.

This is a very important logistical part of our meal, and happens from 12:00 – 3:00 two days before Easter. Email laura.padalino@gmail.com to sign up!

2. Volunteer at Crossroads on Easter Sunday.

- + First Shift: 8:00 AM-12:00 PM (Meal Preparation)
- + Second Shift: 11:15 AM-3:45 PM (Dinner Serving)

If you would like to volunteer, please e-mail Laura at laura.padalino@gmail.com. Please include the following in your e-mail: your preferred shift, whether you need a ride to Detroit, and (if you have a car) the number of additional people you can take with you to Crossroads. If you do not have e-mail access, please give the above information and your phone number to the parish office.

3. We need Easter baskets and lots of candy!

Many children are part of our Easter meal. Help us give each of them an Easter basket as a special gift from St. Mary's! Please donate filled Easter baskets or basket making components (baskets, crayons, chocolate bunnies, etc.). In addition to Easter Baskets, each meal comes with a small bag of Easter Candy. We would greatly appreciate candy donations—mini/fun size wrapped candies are the best. Larger bars and unwrapped candy are difficult to bag, and can get messy. Please take your Easter basket and candy donations to the parish office by Monday, March 30th.

4. Make a donation.

We will not be offering a bake sale this year. Instead, we ask for your financial support of this communal meal with our brothers and sisters in Detroit. Please make checks payable to: St Mary Student Parish and write "Crossroads Easter Meal" on the memo line. Thank you, as always, for your tremendous generosity.

SUNDAY READINGS

MARCH 1

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Reading I	Genesis	22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18
Psalm	Psalms	116:10, 15-19
Reading II	Romans	8:31b-34
Gospel	Mark	9:2-10

Abraham offers the ultimate sacrifice of thanksgiving, the gift of his very son. This sacrifice prefigures the sacrifice of Jesus who died for us all. In his transfiguration, Jesus discloses a suffering messiahship.

* * * * *

MARCH 8

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Reading I	Exodus	20:1-17
Psalm	Psalms	19:8-11
Reading II	Corinthians	1:22-25
Gospel	John	2:13-25

The law liberates and leads us to freedom. It is to be trusted for it is a source of wisdom. Jesus speaks of the ultimate freedom to be won for us by his being raised up. He is the sign of the power and wisdom of God.

Mass for Recovery

Thursday, March 12 - 7:30 PM

St. Mary Student Parish is hosting special Masses for Recovery for those in recovery and friends and family members of those with addictions. It is a time for prayer, healing, and fellowship. All are welcome. Refreshments will follow.

For more information please contact Jim M. at 734-905-0992 or Robert C. at 734-395-3990.

This liturgical celebration for 3-9 year olds meets every Sunday of the year during the 10 am Mass. Leaders work with an age-specific group of children to proclaim the Word of God and to reflect together on its meaning in their lives. Participants return to the church for the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Training and materials are provided for those interested in becoming a catechist.

Contact Marilyn McDermott • marilyn.mcd@comcast.net

Women of the Heart

Thursday, March 12 10:15 AM-Noon

Women of the parish, both students and resident parishioners, are invited to join Women of the Heart in Donnelly Hall. Please feel free to come as frequently as your schedule allows.

For more information, please contact Patty Barry:
pmmm@comcast.net.
