Fourth Sunday of Lent

Lenten Reflection

A Woman Campus Minister

Recently my husband and I have been attempting to teach our (almost) two-year-old daughter how to say "I'm sorry." When she has done something wrong, we gently remove her from the situation and ask her to apologize for whatever small transgression she has committed. While I know we are laying the groundwork for an important life lesson, it seems like a futile exercise at this point. As quick as she is to say "sorry," she is equally quick to resume doing whatever warranted the apology in the first place. She is too young to understand that for an apology to mean something, it must come from a contrite heart and a desire to change. Still, it makes me feel better to hear her say the word "sorry;" I find it easier to forgive her misbehavior.

Today's gospel reading is also about a child offering an apology and a parent extending forgiveness. At first glance the parable – often referred to as "the Prodigal Son" – is more about the son than it is about the father. But I once read a thought-provoking reflection on this Gospel that suggests otherwise. The writer pointed out that the father does not wait for the son to confess his sins before forgiving him. As soon as he sees his son from a distance, the father is moved with compassion and runs to embrace him with unbounded mercy. So maybe this story is more about God's way of loving us and how we in turn are to love one another in the same way. What if I were to treat my child, and all of God's children, as the father treats the prodigal son? "I am called to examine whether I am willing to let our household share in the paradoxical wisdom of God's household, where it is not a son's inheritance that is wasted prodigally, but the love of the Father." (Richard Gaillardetz)

In this Year of Mercy, Pope Francis is inviting us to embrace our call to be merciful as God is merciful. Perhaps this means we need to let go of our limited understanding of right and wrong and the order in which apologies and forgiveness must happen. True love, true mercy, has no conditions. I'm praying I might have the grace to apply this in my own little household.

Questions for Reflection:

- ✚ Where in your own life do you find yourself in need of God's unconditional love and mercy?
- ✚ How might your life look different if you were to extend mercy the way that the Father extends it to the prodigal son?

Lent 2016 Cast Into the Story

This Lent you have been cast into the story. The roles will not always be easy; you may find yourself tempted by the devil, as Jesus was for 40 days in the wilderness. Or you may find you've turned away from Jesus, as Peter did on the eve of the crucifixion.

We are all cast into different roles, at different times, but during these times we must remember we are all one cast: the children of God. Open your heart this Lent and let the drama prepare you for the risen Lord.

The following themes will guide us on our journey:

- ◆ Ash Wednesday: We are cast as a common humanity.
- ◆ First Sunday of Lent: We are cast as children of God.
- ◆ Second Sunday of Lent: We are cast as a blessing to others.
- ◆ Third Sunday of Lent: We are cast to a universal need for grace.
- ◆ Fourth Sunday of Lent: We are cast to return home.
- ◆ Fifth Sunday of Lent: We are cast to be merciful.
- ◆ Palm Sunday: Casting Call!

New for Lent!

Each week, we're passing out a small card as you exit the church to help guide your reflection. We invite you to keep this card in your pocket, on your dashboard, or even on your fridge - place it where you'll have a moment to reflect on how you're cast into the story.

This meditation question:

Have you or any members of the family stopped attending family gatherings or celebrations?

How could this season of Lent be a source of reunion?

"The Church does not exist to condemn but to bring about an encounter with God's mercy... [The Church should] embrace the outcast, the marginalized and the sinner." ~Pope Francis

Right at the beginning of Pope Francis' pontificate, when asked who is Jorge Bergoglio, he replied, "I am a sinner, but I trust in the infinite mercy and patience of our Lord Jesus Christ." He has made the need for God's mercy and our obligation to extend that mercy the hallmark of his papacy. He has repeatedly sought forgiveness for his own sins and the sins of the Church. Most recently in Mexico, he asked for forgiveness from indigenous people for the sins committed by the Church on the first peoples of this hemisphere.

As we continue to celebrate the JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY, we turn our attention to Seek Forgiveness and Clothe the Naked. Look to our website and the Year of Mercy display in the atrium for resources to help you practice these works of mercy.

Centering Prayer Mondays at 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a method of silent, contemplative prayer in which thoughts and feelings are stilled as we simply seek to be with God. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer. The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction. All are welcome. The first Monday of each month is a special introductory session, during which we listen to an audio tape that describes the method of Centering Prayer session. Otherwise, we typically sit for two 20-minute silent prayer sessions with a short meditative walk in between.

CROSSROADS 2016 EASTER MEAL

Volunteers, Easter Baskets & Donations Needed!

On Easter Sunday, March 27th, the St. Mary's community will prepare and serve dinner at Crossroads Soup Kitchen in downtown Detroit (learn more about Crossroads at www.crossroadsofmichigan.org). Volunteering at this event is a great way to share in and celebrate the love of the Easter season with 1,000 Detroit community members and other St. Mary's parishioners!

THERE ARE MANY WAYS TO GET INVOLVED IN THIS SERVICE:

1. Volunteer at Crossroads on Easter Sunday.

- + First Shift: 8:00am-12:00pm (Meal Preparation)
- + Second Shift: 11:15am-3:45pm (Dinner Serving)

If you would like to volunteer, please e-mail Aren at arenewby@umich.edu. Please include the following in your e-mail: your preferred shift, whether you need a ride to Detroit, and (if you have a car) the number of additional people you can take with you to Crossroads. If you do not have e-mail access, please give the above information and your phone number to Bill Alt, Campus Minister for Social Justice (734) 663-0557 ext 235.

2. We need Easter baskets and lots of candy!

Many children are guests at our Easter meal. Help us give each of them an Easter basket as a special gift from St. Mary's! Please donate filled Easter baskets or basket making components (baskets, crayons, chocolate bunnies, etc.). In addition to Easter Baskets, each meal comes with a small bag of Easter Candy. We would greatly appreciate candy donations—mini/fun size wrapped candies are the best. Larger bars and unwrapped candy are difficult to bag, and can get messy. Please take your Easter basket and candy donations to the parish office by Monday, March 14.

3. Make a donation.

Your financial support of this communal meal with our brothers and sisters in Detroit is what makes it happen. Please make checks payable to: St Mary Student Parish and write "Crossroads Easter Meal" on the memo line.

Thank you, as always, for your tremendous generosity.

For more information, please contact Bill Alt, Campus Minister for Social Justice at walt@smspnewman.org or (734)663-0557 ext 235.

LGBT Outreach

1st & 3rd Tuesday of the Month 7-8:30 PM

LGBT Outreach Ministry is a group sponsored by St. Mary Student Parish and meets monthly on the first and third Tuesday of the month. Meetings are private and confidential. As a diverse community of believers, we respect each person as a unique reflection of God's presence in our midst. We commit ourselves to being a community of care, support, formation, reconciliation, and witness to justice with and among gay and lesbian persons, their parents, family members, and friends.

We teach that all love comes from God and focus on helping people reconcile their faith with their orientation. We provide a safe space for discussion, healing, and prayer. Together we reflect on Scripture and listen to the lived experience of lesbian and gay persons and their allies.

For more information, contact Mark at markthies@yahoo.com.

MARCH 6 – FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Reading I	Joshua	5:9a, 10-12
Psalm	Psalms	34:2-7
Reading II	2Corinthians	5:17-21
Gospel	Luke	15:1-3,11-32

MARCH 13 – FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Reading I	Isaiah	43:16-21
Psalm	Psalms	126:1-6
Reading II	Philippians	3:8-14
Gospel	John	8:1-11

Having arrived in the promised land, the Hebrews celebrated their deliverance from affliction and distress in the Passover. Christ, our passover, has entrusted to us the message of reconciliation: let us forgive one another and celebrate the unconditional and abundant love of God our Father.

To the exiles in Babylon, Isaiah foretells a new exodus, when the Lord will lead his people from captivity to freedom. True freedom is rooted in the person of Jesus, not in observance of the Law. It is he who challenges us to examine our own hearts before self-righteously judging others.
