Pastoral Perspective

by Fr. Ben Hawley, SJ

Be sure you get your vocabulary straight: in the Catholic tradition the term "Easter" is very imprecise, though people often use it to mean "Easter Sunday." Easter Sunday is the first Sunday following the Triduum, the three days of Jesus' Passion and Death. In fact Easter Sunday begins at sundown the night before the daytime of Sunday, following Jewish tradition, hence our celebrating the Vigil of Easter (aka the Easter Vigil) on Saturday night. (We do this at Christmas too.)

Then there is the Octave (pronounced Ahk-TAYV) of Easter, the eight days following Easter Sunday, that help us maintain the intensity of the celebration of Easter Sunday. And then finally there is the "Easter Season" that runs from Easter Sunday to Pentecost, 50 days later, celebrated this year on May 24, the Sunday of Memorial Day weekend.

Ten days before Pentecost we celebrate Jesus' ascension into heaven, the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord, and then on Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit on the first believers, tongues of fire appearing above their heads as they worship God in known and unknown languages. After all this celebrating we return to Ordinary Time, more correctly understood as Ordinal Time, the time when the Sundays are counted numerically, the First Sunday of Ordinary Time, and so on.

This is not just calendaring. It is Mother Church's way of helping us enter yet more deeply into the life-changing events of the Triduum that in turn are rooted in our experiences beginning in Advent each year.

Or, to say all this more experientially, as we lead our adult lives we come to realize that human life is harder than it looks. Sometimes your life and mine can seem impossible to navigate - friends, family, work, politics, and economics not fulfilling our needs or desires. If we haven't already, we can at this point come to know that God knows this need and is already acting to meet it. The invitation to us then is to say Yes to God's invitation.

But is God big enough to handle the challenges we face, and is God's guidance enough to enrich our lives beyond what we can achieve on our own? These are essential questions. Following Jesus through his public ministry in the gospel readings in Ordinary Time, we are invited to hear the message that, Yes, God's presence gives us a richness of life we cannot achieve for ourselves. Following Jesus through his Lenten journey to his destiny in Jerusalem, which we relive moment by moment in the Triduum, we are invited to experience the reality that, Yes, God's action can lift us through life's challenges, privations, and hardships to a better life beyond - both in this life and in the afterlife.

In other words we come to experience the reality that God's life breaks through death, God's love breaks through opposition or heartache, and that our lives of faith gather their substance from the reality of God's existence and active pursuit of us. So, I encourage you to get your vocabulary straight, because the words help structure and name our experience and guide us into the new life that only Jesus can give.

An Invitation to Explore the Catholic Faith

The joy of Easter is manifested this weekend as we welcome 17 new members into the Catholic faith through RCIA (the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

This group has been preparing and learning about the Catholic Church, but most importantly, they've experienced an outpouring of God's love and grace for them as they've prayed together, studied scripture and explored ways to more fully enter into God's embrace.

Along this journey, the people of our parish have offered prayers and support for these elect and candidates. You've extended a warm welcome to them and ultimately showed them the meaning of community. As Pope Francis reminded us in his "Joy of the Gospel,"

"The important thing is to not walk alone, but to rely on each other as brothers and sisters."

If you're interested in becoming Catholic or know someone who is, RCIA could be a good starting point. You can also consider RCIA if you were baptized Catholic, but want to complete the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation. For more information, please contact:

Centering Prayer

Centering Prayer is a method of silent, contemplative prayer in which thoughts and feelings are stilled as we simply seek to be with God. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer. The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction.

We meet Mondays at 6:15 pm. All are welcome. The first Monday of each month is a special introductory session, during which we listen to an audio tape that describes the method of Centering Prayer session. Otherwise, we typically sit for two 20-minute silent prayer sessions with a short meditative walk in between.
