GUEST PASTORAL PERSPECTIVE

By Phil Brenz, 2014-2015 Confirmation Intern

When I accepted the position of confirmation intern for this school year, I knew there would be tests and challenges along the way. What I didn't expect was the way the tests showed up at my door.

It was a summer afternoon the week prior to school starting. I had just returned from a retreat at the Newman Center when I heard a knock at the door. My housemate popped his head out of his room to see who was at the door as I opened it to find two middle-aged men.

"Hi!" one man introduced himself, "I'm Peter... and this is Paul. And we're here from a local church to talk to you about Jesus Christ!"

My roommate's head quickly disappeared into his room. I introduced myself, and explain that I both attended a Catholic church regularly, and was also involved in teaching a class for eighth-grade students.

"Oh," they said disapprovingly on their way out. "Well if you're interested... at our church, you don't need to go to classes to go to heaven."

Throughout the year, our weekly Sunday sessions have emphasized what confirmation is, and what it is not. Many people have misconceptions about confirmation; they may think it's a coming-of-age ritual, or even a class that Catholics need to get to heaven. But it isn't either of these.

Confirmation confers the gifts of the Holy Spirit on those receiving the sacrament, but also asks for a commitment to the church and to God.

As our eighth-grade students prepared for confirmation, I witnessed their tremendous personal and spiritual growth. From Eucharistic Adoration to asking their catechists theological questions, I saw the drive in these students to have a deeper connection with God. They want to learn and participate in what God has to offer.

As our confirmation candidates move forward and become more involved in activities around the church, the Holy Spirit will guide them. They will be the next generation of disciples, spreading the faith to others and taking care of all of God's children. The missionaries from that local church misunderstood the purpose of confirmation. It is a gift for the individual and the community, an outpouring of grace that is shared with others. And, having seen the love these students have for God and one another, I am confident they will fulfill the confirmation commitment.

Fr. Dan

As you know Fr. Dan has been on sabbatical since January of this year. We have just received word that on April 12, Fr. Brian Paulson, S.J., Provincial of the Chicago-Detroit Province, missioned Fr. Dan to St. Procopius parish in Chicago.

Fr. Dan will be the Associate Pastor serving the English and Spanish speaking communities. St. Procopius is located in the Pilsen neighborhood just southwest of the Loop.

Fr. Dan will preside at a couple of morning masses and at the Spanish Mass on Sunday, July 12 and leave for Chicago on July 13. We will host receptions for him following these masses.

Fr. Dan writes:

"I'm sorry to be leaving St Mary's. These past ten and a half years have been filled with wonderful people and amazing experiences. The presence of God's Spirit is so evident on a daily basis. I will miss you all dearly. I ask for your prayers as I begin this new chapter in my life and hope to encounter God in the people and experiences there as I have with you. Be assured that you will remain in my thoughts and prayers."
