Alternative Spring Break

ASB is a week-long opportunity for undergraduate students interested in serving others, meeting new people, living in solidarity, and putting their faith into action! This year's ASB Student Coordinators are Katie

Anctil and Kelsey Thome, both of whom are seniors and have participated in ASB all four years of undergrad.

Their short testimonials are below:

Katie: "When I came to Michigan as an out-of-state freshman, I knew no one. I heard about the Alternative Spring Break program at mass, took a chance on the trip, and it has been one of the best decisions I've ever made. The friendships I built on my three trips to New Orleans, Nashville, and Meridian are some of the truest I have at Michigan. They transcend beyond the one week experience and have made this campus and this parish a second home for me. I have personally experienced so much spiritual growth from this program and I couldn't be more grateful to co-lead it this year. Above all, ASB has taught me that our faith is meant to be active, not passive. We are called to serve others with the gifts we have been given. The message that God asks us to live can't stay within the four walls of a church and this opportunity provides a beautiful way to see people of this country and the world in community with yourself and your faith. I would recommend this program to anyone who is seeking a deeper meaning for their college career, their spring break, or even just looking for new friends. Your life will be forever changed. I know mine has been."

Kelsey: "Living in solidarity and community with fellow students who desire to grow in your relationship with God, to put your faith into action, and to help those less fortunate is a humbling and profound experience. Through ASB, I have traveled to New Orleans, Nicaragua, and Washington, D.C. – all of which were God's intended (and miraculous) plan. Each year God placed me in a community that challenged me to think differently about the issues our world faces and encouraged me to step out of my comfort zone to care for and connect with those different than myself. Each year, He placed me with peers that could learn from and rely on one another – to share our struggles and triumphs, whether that be in school, in family, in friends, or in faith. Above all, ASB grants the opportunity to step outside of our "UM Bubble," where our most troubling daily concerns are grades, student clubs, and the probability of a winning football season. Instead, you are immersed in a new community where you are able to serve, relate to, and learn from those who continuously lack life's most basic necessities. If you feel called to put your faith into action, I encourage you to apply!"

To learn more about ASB, attend one of our Info Nights on Tuesday, Sept. 29th or Wednesday, Sept. 30th from 8-9pm.

The team is open to everyone, from undergrads, to grad/yp students, to adults and families. If you are interested in joining the team, go to mrelay.org and search for "St. Mary Student Parish" to join. Moses and Jesus both attest to the fact that the work of the Spirit cannot be confined by an institution, and that no one can claim a monopoly of the Spirit's charism, or wisdom. Beware of growing rich while neglecting the rights and needs of others.

Liturgy 101

Beginning this month, St. Mary Student Parish will take a deeper look at the way we celebrate the Mass. Each week in the bulletin (and at stmarystudentparish.org) we will explore the meaning and origins of the Sacrament that is central to who we are as Catholics.

Introductory Rites

(Sign of the Cross and Greeting)

When each of us was baptized, we were signed with the cross of Jesus Christ. In that moment, the Church claimed us for Christ – we belong to him. As we are gathered for Mass, the very first thing we do, once again, is to mark ourselves with the sign of Christ's cross, reminding us of whose we are, and to whom we belong.

This also reminds us that the Mass, though it has many parts, is one great prayer! All the different pieces help to form this one most perfect prayer that we, as Catholics offer together. (Walk Through the Mass, Todd Williamson and Nancy Polacek, 2012, Archdiocese of Chicago)

Liturgist Emily Strand adds this:

"There is no need for 'Good morning' or another everyday greeting because what we gather to do is decidedly not everyday and social niceties in this profound moment threaten to cheapen the experience."

The next rite to occur is the greeting. The priest says to the assembly, "The Lord be with you," and the people respond, "And with your spirit." This has a "rock-solid basis" in both Hebrew and Christian Scriptures (the response comes from Paul's letters), both as a greeting and a way of acknowledging God's presence in the persons greeted.

The words signify both our acknowledgement and our intention that God is present here and now in the assembly, and in the presider, who has received the Spirit of God in ordination in a special way, in order to serve the people of God in the liturgy.

Adapted from Mass 101, Liturgy and Life, by Emily Strand, MA (Liguori Publications)

[When we enter into the holy act of Mass] we cross the threshold, just as we are and we bring what we have to the celebration. We are both material and spiritual beings, we humans, with both body and soul, and we bring our whole selves before the Lord in worship.

(Emily Strand)
