Guest Pastoral Perspective

“No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.”

We cannot keep secrets from God. I know that I have tried. I have tried to hide my weaknesses and offer God only the good in me. Even knowing that God knew everything about me, I still wanted to hide. How could God want my flaws? How could God want the parts of me that pull me away from him?

I didn't understand this before, but God wants our weaknesses in order to heal us. He wants all of us.

God is like a carpenter. He created us into unique and intricate furniture, but sometimes we can break or be worn from the ways of the world, like having a leg falling off of a table or the paint chip from a chair. God wants to reattach our leg and repaint our surface, but as a carpenter, he cannot fix us without having our broken parts. God knows we are broken as we have no secrets from him. But if the carpenter knows that the table is missing a leg, but does not have the broken leg, he cannot fix it. In order to live out the Lord's purpose to its entirety, we want to be healed. No matter how small the scratch, God asks us to give ourselves to Him entirely so that we can be fixed, maintained, loved and used to our full potential. -An Undergraduate Woman

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION:

- ✠ Are you trying to hide part of yourself from God? What parts of you are broken or worn? How can you offer these parts to God and ask for healing?
- ✠ How can you embrace the overwhelming love from God that is shown in His desire to have all of you?

Liturgy 101

St. Mary Student Parish is taking a deeper look at the way we celebrate the Mass. Each week in the bulletin (and at stmariystudentparish.org) we will explore the meaning and origins of the Sacrament that is central to who we are as Catholics.

Introductory Rites (The Gloria)

After we have remembered God's mercy and forgiveness given to us in Christ (during the Penitential Act), it is only appropriate that we praise God. Together, we sing or recite the Gloria. This ancient hymn was first sung by the angels at the birth of Jesus (Luke 2: 13-14).

Liturgist Emily Strand tells us that the Church originally used this hymn at Easter "but eventually it made its way into more frequent use." Now it is sung regularly, except during the seasons of Advent and Easter. In those seasons we "fast" from use of the Gloria. This heightens the solemnity of the Christmas and Easter seasons when the Gloria returns.

The text of the Glory to God is Trinitarian in nature. As we praise God, we prepare also to properly celebrate the Eucharist "by acclaiming God as three persons in one: a relationship of holiness in whose image of communion we are formed."

*Adapted from Mass 101, Liturgy and Life, by Emily Strand, MA
(Liguori Publications)*

Above all, the Gloria helps us to remember that Sunday is special: the day of the Lord, and we join with all the angels in giving God praise. (Emily Strand)

IHN Alpha House

Family Shelter

October 26-30

Students and Families, we have a great opportunity to reach out to those in need in our community by volunteering at Alpha House. Alpha House is a local shelter on Jackson Road in Ann Arbor that can serve up to 6 homeless families, housing them with shared bedrooms for each of the families. It's a place where other families can come to serve. Consider bringing your family with you as you cook a meal or play with the children. Singles can give a huge service by spending the night in a special guest room to be available to help the Alpha House staff should someone have an emergency such as a sick child or going into labor. The overnight volunteer is on-call to drive the AlphaHouse van for the family in need, should it arise. The only requirement is to have a driver's license.

Sign up now! <http://tinyurl.com/smsp-ihn-oct-15>

(Please only sign up those over 18. Those under 18 may serve if accompanied by a parent.)

Greetings from St. Mary's Discussion Group (formerly known as the Faculty/Staff Discussion Group). This group is now open to any resident parishioners. We are a group of couples and singles who meet monthly, usually on Sunday afternoons.

Our next meeting is SUNDAY OCTOBER 18, AT 2PM AT ST. MARY. The film is about personal identity, family and hidden secrets from the past.

If you wish to attend this meeting, or if you wish to learn more about or sign up for this group, please contact Sherry Warden, sswarden@umich.edu 734-663-8818.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

This liturgical celebration for 3-9 year olds meets every Sunday of the year during the 10 am Mass. Leaders work with an age-specific group of children to proclaim the Word of God and to reflect together on its meaning in their lives. Participants return to the church for the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Training and materials are provided for those interested in becoming a catechist.
