REFLECTING ON THE READINGS

Most days, being the parent of a young child feels a little bit like being a servant. I prepare meals that get sent back. I wash clothes that I don't wear, do dishes that I never used, and run errands for things that won't directly benefit me. I spend an inordinate amount of time attending to the needs of someone else. It's a thankless, exhausting job, and if I'm honest it sometimes makes me bitter.

On my good days, I attempt to serve in love. I look at this beautiful little child of mine and glimpse the divine in her. I try to treat her as if she were Christ, because she is. But then she throws her food across the kitchen or cries because I won't sing her favorite silly song for a fifth time in a row or pinches me because I'm trying to change her diaper, and all I see is a little tyrant. A tyrant whom I love deeply and for whom I would give my life, but a tyrant nonetheless.

The thing is, it's easier to serve when we are appreciated and recognized for our good works. That's human nature, and it's not bad, but I think Jesus is calling us to another kind of service as well. That's why he asks the disciples, "Can you drink the cup that I drink?" His kind of service requires suffering. He was loved but also despised and rejected. Even his closest friends didn't really understand what he was doing for them. Ultimately his kind of service meant giving up his own life.

That kind of service feels impossible to me. But then again, so does a love that conquers death. Yet that's exactly what God makes possible in Jesus. It doesn't mean that the frustration and bitterness and exhaustion go away. They'll still be there. But they don't have the final word. Because I really do love my daughter enough to give my life for her, as most parents would, and that trumps everything else. It doesn't make sense, and yet there it is. Love wins, every time. A Woman Campus Minister

CROP Walk Follow-up

Thank you to all who participated in this year's Interfaith Council for Peace & Justice CROP Hunger Walk. It was a beautiful day to show our solidarity with our brothers and sisters who struggle to have their basic needs met. We appreciate all of those who walked and also those who donated to support the alleviation of hunger locally and globally.

If you have funds that you have collected and did not turn in at the walk, please bring them to the St. Mary office by Mon. Oct. 26th. And if you would still like to donate to our St. Mary team, you can donate online (http://hunger.cwsglobal.org/site/TR/2015CROPHungerWalks/TR-CHW2015?pg=entry&fr\_id=21082) or write a check to CWS/CROP and bring it to the St. Mary office before Mon. Oct. 26th.

Anyone and Everyone

A film by Susan Polis Schutz

Tuesday, October 20

Loyola Room at 7:00 PM

The LGBT Outreach Ministry would like to invite you to see the film called "Anyone and Everyone". This is a powerful documentary on the experiences of parents' learning their children are gay. The film describes a bittersweet journey that isn't easy for everyone but, a real journey, in which love and compassion are always present in the relationship between parents and children. A brief discussion will follow after the film.

Thursdays - 5:10pm

Students lead every aspect of the 5:10 Mass from the music to the readings. Afterwards, students gather downstairs for dinner and conversation. Our very own Susan Maulbetcsch crafts unique menus each week, from stir-fries to pot pies and even breakfast for dinner!

After dinner, students engage with guest speakers or small group faith sharing. Often some students will stick around after Ig.nite to watch a movie, play cards, or play video games or study. Feel free to simply come to the Mass or just stop by for dinner. We are open until midnight.

Liturgy 101

St. Mary Student Parish is taking a deeper look at the way we celebrate the Mass. Each week in the bulletin (and at stmarystudentparish.org) we will explore the meaning and origins of the Sacrament that is central to who we are as Catholics.

Introductory Rites (The Collect)

After we have praised God through the Gloria, the presider invites us to join together in prayer with the words, "Let us pray." The final piece of the Introductory Rites of Mass is the Collect, or opening prayer. Each Collect is composed specifically for the celebration at hand, and many Collects have a long history, dating back hundreds of years. They are theologically rich and Trinitarian in nature, asking us to prepare, in some specific way, to celebrate the mysteries at hand.

These prayers are created to "collect" the many prayers of the gathered assembly into one prayer, proclaimed by the presider. This is why the presider pauses after he says "Let us pray." This helps us to remember that we are in God's presence and helps us bring to mind the prayers that are in our hearts.

Adapted from Mass 101, Liturgy and Life, by Emily Strand, MA (Liguori Publications)

Giving our "Amen" to the Collect provides closure... We have passed through that liminal space of transition and preparation, and our hearts and minds are now readied for more significant rites to follow in the Liturgy of the Word. (Emily Strand)

Hello SMSP students and parishioners! This year St. Mary Student Parish will be participating in Relay for Life at the University of Michigan, which is held in the spring on April 9th. The team is open to everyone, from undergrads, to Grad/YP students, to adults and families.

IHN Alpha House

Family Shelter

October 26-30

Students and Families, we have a great opportunity to reach out to those in need in our community by volunteering at Alpha House. Alpha House is a local shelter on Jackson Road in Ann Arbor that can serve up to 6 homeless families, housing them with shared bedrooms for each of the families. It's a place where other families can come to serve. Consider bringing your family with you as you cook a meal or play with the children. Singles can give a huge service by spending the night in a special guest room to be available to help the Alpha House staff should someone have an emergency, such as a sick child or going into labor. The overnight volunteer is on-call to drive the AlphaHouse van for the family in need, should it arise. The only requirement is to have a driver's license.

Sign up now! <http://tinyurl.com/smsp-ihn-oct-15>

(Please only sign up those over 18. Those under 18 may serve if accompanied by a parent.)
