Our Lady of Guadalupe

By Omar Virgin & Eliza Alvarez

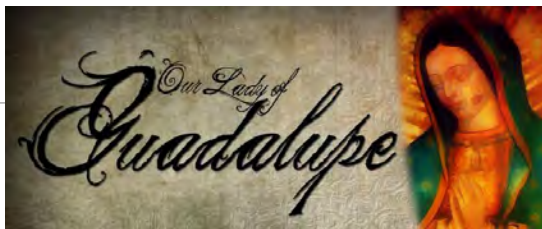

"Can you see me here? I'm your mother. Aren't you here with me, under my keeping? Am I your source of happiness? What else can you ask for?"

These words are from one of the conversations between our Holy Mother and San Juan Diego. Words that each one of us needs to keep in our heart, for we will always have problems in our lives, but she, in her maternal mercifulness knows and recognizes what is going on in our lives. Mary worries and intervenes for us.

The Holy Virgin chose one of the people-- a native-- as her intermediary with the bishop Fray Juan de Zumárraga. San Juan Diego was not a politician or rich and influential. Her choice indicates that Mexico and the other countries of the Americas need their everyday heroes in faith like San Juan Diego. We all need justice, equity, respect, humility and dignity. We all need Our Blessed Mother who guides us to these ideals, just as she did for Juan Diego.

With Mary's guidance, let us love our people with our hearts; let us live our customs with our Christian roots. Let us look to our Holy Mother for peace and happiness. Let us build peace and happiness in our homes and in the countries of the Americas. Let us take her feast as a reminder to trust in our Blessed Mother, even in the midst of difficulties.

Particularly for us, despite being far from our home country, our family and friends, we turned to the Blessed Mother and found her spirit of love and peace in Saint Mary, a second home, a second family and a place where our Christian life has made a change of 360°.

Thursday, December 12 at 7pm

Please join us for the Bi-lingual mass celebrating the feast of "Our Lady of the Americas." Learn the story of our Mother's appearance to Juan Diego in 1531 and her message to the Church universal.

Children will be dressed in their native costumes. Roses will be placed in front of the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Mariachi's will lead the recessional from mass and during the reception held in Newman Hall. And be sure to join us afterwards for "food from the Americas" and an opportunity to mix with members of our Hispanic/Latino community.

Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe

By Omar Virgin y Eliza Alvarez

"¿No estoy yo aquí que soy tu Madre? ¿No estás bajo mi sombra y resguardo? ¿No soy la fuente de tu alegría? ¿No estás en el hueco de mi manto, en el cruce de mis brazos? ¿Qué más puedes querer?"

Estas palabras son parte de una de las conversaciones de la Santísima Virgen con San Juan Diego. Palabras que cada uno necesitamos grabarnos en el corazón, porque siempre habrá cosas que nos aflijan. Ella en su misericordia materna, sabe y conoce qué es lo que sucede en nuestras vidas. María se duele, se preocupa e intercede por nosotros.

La Santísima Virgen eligió a un indígena como su intermediario ante el Obispo Fray Juan de Zumárraga. San Juan Diego no era un importante político, ni rico o influyente. La elección de la Santísima Virgen nos muestra que México así como los países de América necesita a sus héroes de cada día en la fe, como San Juan Diego. Todos necesitamos justicia, igualdad, respeto, humildad y dignidad. Todos necesitamos de Nuestra Madre Santísima, quien nos guía a estos ideales, de la misma forma en que lo hizo con Juan Diego.

Dejándonos guiar por nuestra Virgen María, amemos nuestra gente con todo el corazón, vivamos nuestras costumbres con raíces cristianas Busquemos a nuestra Madre Santísima para que nos conceda paz y alegría. Construyamos paz y alegría en nuestros hogares y en los países de América. Tomemos este día como recordatorio de la confianza que debemos tener en nuestra Madre Santísima, incluso en los momentos más difíciles.

En particular para nosotros, a pesar de estar lejos de nuestra patria, de nuestras familias y amigos, en la parroquia de Santa María encontramos el espíritu de amor y de paz de nuestra amadísima Virgen María, un segundo hogar, una segunda familia y un lugar donde nuestra vida cristiana ha dado un giro de 360°.

ADVENT Journey

This December, we are embarking on a new and creative Advent journey at St. Mary's. Members of the staff and student leaders are writing daily reflections about what inspires them as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of Christ. Our intention is to give voice to the people of God in our midst and to highlight the particular ways that God is becoming incarnate and dwelling among us right here in this parish. For this reason, we will not be offering the Advent reflection booklets that we have in the past but hope instead that you will join us on this new Advent journey.

The St. Mary Advent reflections will be posted daily on a blog that can be accessed through the website, Facebook, or Twitter. You can also sign up to receive daily text messages, daily emails or weekly emails with links to the latest posts.* You all are invited to tune in to SMSPAdvent.blogspot.com starting November 30, the first Sunday of Advent. We look forward to seeing you there!

If you have questions or comments, please contact Abby Braun at aabraun@umich.edu.

 Many of the reflections will include mixed media, such as songs or videos, and as a result do not lend themselves well to hard copy. If you are looking for a printed resource for Advent, check out Sacred Space for Advent and the Christmas Season 2014-15 at Ave Maria Press (800 282-1865, ext. 1).*

Lesbian and Gay Outreach

Tuesday, December 16 from 7:00-8:30 PM

As a diverse community of believers, we respect each person as a unique reflection of God's presence in our midst. We commit ourselves to being a community of care, support, formation, reconciliation, and witness to justice with and among gay and lesbian persons, their parents, family members, and friends.

We teach that all love comes from God and focus on helping people reconcile their faith with their orientation. We provide a safe space for discussion, healing, and prayer.

Together we reflect on Scripture and listen to the lived experience of lesbian and gay persons and their Allies. This group is sponsored by St. Mary Student Parish and will meet monthly. Meetings are private and confidential.
