to help us continue to offer our eight Sunday masses, confirmation prep for 57 eighth-graders, Family Faith Formation for 250 children and their parents and 65 undergraduate catechists, 230 student and resident parishioners in 26 Small Church Communities, baptism classes, baptisms, and other sacraments. You will also help us to continue to support Ignite (70-80 undergrads attending Thursday mass, dinner and a presentation in spiritual formation), our ten undergrad interns, weekend retreats for undergrads, grads, and young professionals, to name only some of our programs. These gifts comprise our Annual Fund, which along with revenue from Sunday Collections, endowment interest and fees, allows us to do all we do - for you, for those we serve, and for our Creator and Lord.

I am pleased to announce that Fr Brian Paulson, SJ, the Provincial of the Chicago-Detroit Province of the Society of Jesus, has missioned Fr. John Ferone, SJ to serve as a full-time campus minister at our parish beginning in August, 2015. Fr John will be a wonderful and dynamic addition to our community. He is now the Director of Catholic Campus Ministry at Miami University/Oxford, OH. He has worked as Associate Director of Campus Ministry at Xavier University and in other Jesuit schools. He spent six months in Kampala, Uganda as part of a mobile medical team caring for people with AIDS in small villages and as a weekend chaplain in local prisons. He has also served as spiritual advisor on pilgrimages to Croatia, Spain, Guadalupe, Rome, the Holy Land, Kenya, Poland and the Czech Republic.

Fr John's hobbies include, travelling, hiking, art; singing, playing and listening to music; gardening, wildlife photography, cooking, the quest for the perfect pizza, eating sushi, visiting zoos and aquaria, whale watching, and reading in the fields of anthropology, archaeology, church history, theology, philosophy, mythology, literature, science fiction, fantasy (especially J.R.R. Tolkien, C.S. Lewis and J.K. Rowling, Patrick Rothfuss), natural history and the Civil War.

Fr John is also a skilled musician, singer and artist, with experience in designing worship spaces and using visual art and music to deepen the experience of prayer.

Another announcement: Frs Dennis, Dan, and I will be moving into our new house, where Frs Michael and Eric already reside, on December 18. This larger house will provide space for six Jesuits, meaning all five of us including Fr John.

*****

Another announcement: Fr Joe Wagner, SJ, will join us second semester on sabbatical from his position as professor of mathematics education at Xavier University/Cincinnati. He is working this semester at Oregon State/Corvallis, OR. Next semester he will work with UM faculty and spend some time with us, presiding at Sunday masses and serving as spiritual companion for the Busy Student Retreat, possibly leading an SCC, and so on.

A final announcement: In early January Fr Dan Reim will leave on a six-month sabbatical. He will spend two months at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, CA, studying sacramental theology and liturgy with a Jesuit theologian. He will then study conversational Spanish for four months in Cuernavaca, Mexico and will return to Ann Arbor in late June.

God our Creator and Lord has blessed us in so many ways. Thank you for your active participation in this Spirit-filled parish, participation that helps the Spirit bring fuller and richer life to us all and to those beyond the parish whom we serve.

Fr Ben

This December, we are embarking on a new and creative Advent journey at St. Mary's. Members of the staff and student leaders are writing daily reflections about what inspires them as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of Christ. Our intention is to give voice to the people of God in our midst and to highlight the particular ways that God is becoming incarnate and dwelling among us right here in this parish. For this reason, we will not be offering the Advent reflection booklets that we have in the past but hope instead that you will join us on this new Advent journey.

The St. Mary Advent reflections will be posted daily on a blog that can be accessed through the website, Facebook, or Twitter. You can also sign up to receive daily text messages, daily emails or weekly emails with links to the latest posts.* You all are invited to tune in to SMSPAdvent.blogspot.com starting November 30, the first Sunday of Advent. We look forward to seeing you there!

If you have questions or comments, please contact Abby Braun at aabraun@umich.edu.

\ Many of the reflections will include mixed media, such as songs or videos, and as a result do not lend themselves well to hard copy. If you are looking for a printed resource for Advent, check out Sacred Space for Advent and the Christmas Season 2014-15 at Ave Maria Press (800 282-1865, ext. 1).*

Born for Joy

Structured discussions are led by an experienced leader, offering times for listening and sharing. Discern, discover, and understand your struggles. Find God already helping you, and recover your joy. Primarily for students and young men. (Other men welcome as well.) Not for the curious, researchers, reporters. Please be courteous and stay away.

Parish Bible Study

Mondays at 7:00 PM

Our Catholic faith teaches that God is alive in the Scriptures. Come discover the Word with us. We practice scripture-based faith sharing in a small discussion group. Discussions are guided by church-approved commentaries, question guides, and the Catechism of the Catholic Church. We meet Mondays at 7 PM.

Lost & Found

If you have misplaced items while at church, we may have them waiting for you in the parish office. Please stop by the office to check the Lost & Found box. All items not claimed by the last Sunday of every month will be donated. Thank you.

Centering Prayer Group

Mondays at 6:15 PM

Centering Prayer is a method of silent, contemplative prayer in which thoughts and feelings are stilled as we simply seek to be with God. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer. The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction. We meet Mondays at 6:15 PM. All are welcome. The first Monday of each month is a special introductory session, during which we listen to an audio tape that describes the method of Centering Prayer session. Otherwise, we typically sit for two 20-minute silent prayer sessions with a short meditative walk in between.

*For further information, please contact Serena Larsen

Cultivating a Sacramental Imagination in an Age of Pornography

March 26-27, 2015

Saint Mary's College & the University of Notre Dame

Pornography is today available and accessible to a degree unprecedented in human history, largely because of the internet. According to one estimate, 25 percent of search engine requests are for pornographic material, and a Kaiser Foundation study found that teens are exposed to internet pornography without even seeking it out.

What is the effect of a pornographic visual culture on the human imagination? In the midst of this culture, how can we cultivate a sacramental imagination that beholds in male and female humankind the divine image in which we are created (Gen 1:27) and redeemed (2 Cor 3:18)? Join psychologists, theologians, iconographers, and others for an interdisciplinary exploration of these questions.

Call for Student Papers and Works of Fine Art: Proposal Deadline 01/15/2015

We invite undergraduate and graduate students to submit:

1. Proposals for theological papers that identify and develop resources from the Catholic and Christian traditions that can contribute to the cultivation of a sacramental imagination in an era of pornography.
2. Proposals or sketches of works of fine art that express artistically the difference between a pornographic and sacramental visual culture.

Christmas Flowers

Thanks to the generosity of those donors who have honored the true spirit of Christmas - LOVE- by remembering or memorializing loved ones with a Christmas flowers offering. Your gift serves a dual purpose of helping defray the costs of decorating the church and of honoring those you love in your heart. Please see the atrium bulletin board for those loved ones and remember them in your Christmas prayers.

Volunteers are needed to welcome the guests, provide drinks/snacks and help set up and clean up each Monday-Friday from January 5-30. Shifts will be 9:00 AM-12:00 PM and 12:00 PM-3:00 PM each day.

Tuesday, Dec. 16 from 7:00-8:30 PM

As a diverse community of believers, we respect each person as a unique reflection of God's presence in our midst. We commit ourselves to being a community of care, support, formation, reconciliation, and witness to justice with and among gay and lesbian persons, their parents, family members, and friends.

We teach that all love comes from God and focus on helping people reconcile their faith with their orientation. We provide a safe space for discussion, healing, and prayer.

Together we reflect on Scripture and listen to the lived experience of lesbian and gay persons and their Allies. This group is sponsored by St. Mary Student Parish and will meet monthly. Meetings are private and confidential.
