Fifth Sunday of Lent

Lenten Reflection

A Woman Campus Minister

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Usually by the fifth week of Lent I am ready to abandon the desert and get to Easter Sunday. I feel like I have done my due diligence of praying, fasting, and almsgiving and I just want to rejoice in the resurrection. In our fast paced culture isn't four weeks enough to focus on my interior life and outward actions? Haven't I given up enough already by committing myself to any Lenten promises?

Fortunately, the wisdom of God through the scriptures calls me back to the importance of staying with Him in this fifth week and not abandoning the desert too quickly. The psalm this week calls me to dig deep to acknowledge where the Lord has been working in my life this Lent and this past year. As I uncover the Lord's presence in my life, I am encouraged to make sense of both the blessings and the challenges. In dissecting the challenges in my life the prophet Isaiah's words, "see, I am doing something new!" bring me great comfort. I know that if I hold on tight to the Lord during the challenges he will bring me out of captivity and into the light. As I am brought into the light and have the opportunity to laugh and rejoice, I rest in the promise of the resurrection and the knowledge that the light always overcomes the darkness.

As I challenge myself to stay with the Lord in this fifth week of Lent, I am grateful for the companionship of others in the Church who are also on this journey. As I acknowledge the great things the Lord has done for me, I am also called to acknowledge what he has done for us as a community. Despite all of the pain and suffering in our world, the Lord is indeed doing great things for all of us. In honestly sharing our stories of challenge and joy as a community, we can more fully see how the Lord is working in the world. As we linger together in the desert for a few more days we do so knowing that soon we will share in the joy of the resurrection.

Questions for Reflection:

- ✠ What Lenten commitment do you need to re-engage this fifth week of Lent?
- ✠ Who do you share your joy with? How can you encourage others to recognize the good things that the Lord is doing in their lives?

Lent 2016 Cast Into the Story

This Lent you have been cast into the story. The roles will not always be easy; you may find yourself tempted by the devil, as Jesus was for 40 days in the wilderness. Or you may find you've turned away from Jesus, as Peter did on the eve of the crucifixion.

We are all cast into different roles, at different times, but during these times we must remember we are all one cast: the children of God. Open your heart this Lent and let the drama prepare you for the risen Lord.

The following themes will guide us on our journey:

- ◆ Ash Wednesday: We are cast as a common humanity.
- ◆ First Sunday of Lent: We are cast as children of God.
- ◆ Second Sunday of Lent: We are cast as a blessing to others.
- ◆ Third Sunday of Lent: We are cast to a universal need for grace.
- ◆ Fourth Sunday of Lent: We are cast to return home.
- ◆ Fifth Sunday of Lent: We are cast to be merciful.
- ◆ Palm Sunday: Casting Call!

New for Lent!

Each week, we're passing out a small card as you exit the church to help guide your reflection. We invite you to keep this card in your pocket, on your dashboard, or even on your fridge - place it where you'll have a moment to reflect on how you're cast into the story.

This week's meditation question:

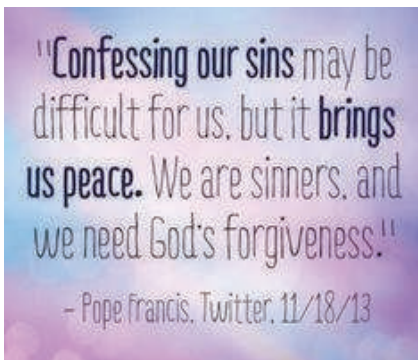

When is it easy to "throw stones" or judge others?

Readers of Faith Catholic for Blind & Visually Impaired Parishioners

The Diocese is looking for volunteer readers to record Faith Catholic Magazine onto CD's. We will provide any equipment necessary to record; however, you will need a computer with audio and internet access. At this time we have two readers who alternate the 12 month subscription. Each reader would only be responsible for 3 or 4 months per year if we had one or two more readers. This is a wonderful Spiritual Work of Mercy ~ instructing those who do not know. Please contact Diane Arzberger at 517-342-2465 or darzberger@dioceseoflansing.org

Liturgy 101

St. Mary Student Parish is taking a deeper look at the way we celebrate the Mass. Each week in the bulletin (and at stmarystudentparish.org) we will explore the meaning and origins of the Sacrament that is central to who we are as Catholics.

Liturgy of the Eucharist (Lamb of God)

As the presider continues with the breaking of the bread, the choir and assembly sing the Lamb of God, a litany-style prayer that accompanies the rite. A litany is a call-and-response-style song. The text for the Lamb of God is taken from the first chapter of John's Gospel. It makes the Passover connection with the bread and wine that are broken and poured at this time: Jesus is the Lamb of God, the spotless victim who takes away the world's sins, freeing God's people from slavery to sin and death. This banquet is our eternal Passover.

The choir and assembly sing the Lamb of God until the ritual action is complete, repeating the first line as many times as necessary, and ending with a call for peace.

Next, the presider and the people prepare themselves for Communion. The presider elevates the Body and Blood and invites the people to "behold" the Lamb of God. This evokes scenes from Jesus' passion. The people respond, "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof..."

This phrase, which was changed in the new translation, is a reference to the story of the faithful centurion in Matthew's Gospel. The Lord promised to accompany the centurion to his home to heal his beloved servant.

(Adapted from Mass 101, Liturgy and Life, by Emily Strand, MA, Liguori Publications)

"The deep symbolism [of entering under our roof] reminds us that our bodies are the homes of our souls, and both are given to us by the Lord. In eating and drinking at the Lord's Table, we invite the Lord into our lives, ourselves, our homes. We open ourselves to his grace, his mercy, and his love."

(Emily Strand)

CROSSROADS 2016 EASTER MEAL

Volunteers, Easter Baskets & Donations Needed!

On Easter Sunday, March 27th, the St. Mary's community will prepare and serve dinner at Crossroads Soup Kitchen in downtown Detroit (learn more about Crossroads at www.crossroadsofmichigan.org). Volunteering at this event is a great way to share in and celebrate the love of the Easter season with 1,000 Detroit community members and other St. Mary's parishioners!

THERE ARE MANY WAYS TO GET INVOLVED IN THIS SERVICE:

1. Volunteer at Crossroads on Easter Sunday.

- + First Shift: 8:00am-12:00pm (Meal Preparation)
- + Second Shift: 11:15am-3:45pm (Dinner Serving)

If you would like to volunteer, please e-mail Aren at arenewby@umich.edu. Please include the following in your e-mail: your preferred shift, whether you need a ride to Detroit, and (if you have a car) the number of additional people you can take with you to Crossroads. If you do not have e-mail access, please give the above information and your phone number to Bill Alt, Campus Minister for Social Justice (734) 663-0557 ext 235.

2. We need Easter baskets and lots of candy!

Many children are guests at our Easter meal. Help us give each of them an Easter basket as a special gift from St. Mary's! Please donate filled Easter baskets or basket making components (baskets, crayons, chocolate bunnies, etc.). In addition to Easter Baskets, each meal comes with a small bag of Easter Candy. We would greatly appreciate candy donations—mini/fun size wrapped candies are the best. Larger bars and unwrapped candy are difficult to bag, and can get messy. Please take your Easter basket and candy donations to the parish office by Monday, March 14.

3. Make a donation.

Your financial support of this communal meal with our brothers and sisters in Detroit is what makes it happen. Please make checks payable to: St Mary Student Parish and write "Crossroads Easter Meal" on the memo line.

Thank you, as always, for your tremendous generosity.

For more information, please contact Bill Alt, Campus Minister for Social Justice at walt@smspnewman.org or (734)663-0557 ext 235.

Help Wanted

COORDINATOR FOR FAMILY FAITH FORMATION

St. Mary Student Parish is looking for a dynamic individual to manage family faith formation through the programs and events for the Family Faith religious education program. The pillars of the program include undergraduate students serving as catechists, teaching children of residents once a month, while parents discuss the same topic for later support within the family. This is a part-time, 10-month position and requires working non-traditional hours, including nights and weekends. Further information is available at www.stmarystudentparish.org. Please email cover letter and resume to Lanette Mele by March 28, 2016 at lemele@umich.edu or send them to St. Mary Student Parish, attn: Lanette Mele, 331 Thompson St., Ann Arbor, MI 48104.

REVISED Average Attendance Comparison of the 19-Weeks from the first Sunday of September Through the last Sunday of January for each year. Data from summer months and Sundays of winter break have been excluded.

The data published in the Sunday bulletin two weeks ago in a comparable chart included data from Sundays during the summer months and winter break when we offer fewer masses each Sunday. We use attendance data for the academic year as the optimal statement of our service to the students, faculty and staff of the University of Michigan (our mandate from the diocese) as well as other parishioners who wish to join us.

SUNDAY READINGS

MARCH 13 – FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Reading I	Isaiah	43:16-21
Psalm	Psalms	126:1-6
Reading II	Philippians	3:8-14
Gospel	John	8:1-11

To the exiles in Babylon, Isaiah foretells a new exodus, when the Lord will lead his people from captivity to freedom. True freedom is rooted in the person of Jesus, not in observance of the Law. It is he who challenges us to examine our own hearts before self-righteously judging others.

MARCH 20 – PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Reading I	Isaiah	50:4-7
Psalm	Psalms	22:8-9, 17-20, 23-24
Reading II	Philippians	2:6-11
Gospel	Luke	22:14—23:56

Jesus, humbling himself out of love for us, did not shield his face from buffets and spitting, but offered his life on the cross. He relied on his Father's love.
