PALM SUNDAY

Lenten Reflection

A Male Campus Minister

PALM SUNDAY: CASTING CALL!

There is one drama, one story: OUR story; the story of the body of Christ as it continues to unfold in every age, and we play all the roles. And perhaps that is why the Church in its Palm Sunday liturgy invites the congregation to participate by assuming the voices of many of the characters in the Passion narrative.

At times this is surely uncomfortable, as we take our place in a congregation which asks for Barabbas over Jesus, yells “Crucify him” and asks that his blood be on us and on our children. But in fact, if we contemplate the text, the passion story and the story of our passions is not something foreign to us. How many of us, like Peter, have ever been over sure of our commitment in the face of danger? Or have denied knowing someone when they were in trouble? How many of us, like Judas, have lost our idealism, and have betrayed our mission or rebelled against the very enterprise or person that we initially felt so drawn to? How many of us have ever accused someone falsely or scapegoated another? How many of us have taken away another’s good name or thrown fuel to the fire through gossip? How many of us have been a Simon of Cyrene for others and helped shoulder the burden of another? How many of us have ever stood at the cross of someone who was helpless or sick or dying? Or how many of us have actually been on the “other side” of the station and have known the experience of Jesus who was betrayed, mocked, abandoned, denied, helped, consoled, or accompanied in our cross, our pain, our dying?

The WAY OF THE CROSS, the way of ego deflation. The cross is always ego deflating. It always throws us radically into an experience of our own incapacity to save ourselves, to fix ourselves, to maintain control, to “figure it out.” It is an emptying, a kenosis, a letting go, a jumping into the hands of a merciful Father, an experience of Jesus who prayed, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.” It is a process that leads us to know personally and experientially, that in the end, the Father has the final “piece in the puzzle of our lives.” And that it is the Father who eternally and unconditionally loves us as it was in the beginning, is NOW and ever shall be. And that every role we play as part of the grand story, is claimed by Jesus as part of HIS story and will be taken up in glory. For all that the Father has given him will come to him and will be raised on the last day.

SPOILER ALERT!!!!!! It is a Divine Comedy, not a Divine Tragedy!
STAY TUNED TO NEXT SUNDAY!!!

Questions for Reflection:

- ✠ As we approach this Holy Week experience, what character do you most resemble at this time? Allow the Lord to deal with you.
- ✠ When was the last time you had an “ego deflating moment?” How did you deal with it?

Lent 2016 Cast Into the Story

This Lent you have been cast into the story. The roles will not always be easy; you may find yourself tempted by the devil, as Jesus was for 40 days in the wilderness. Or you may find you've turned away from Jesus, as Peter did on the eve of the crucifixion.

We are all cast into different roles, at different times, but during these times we must remember we are all one cast: the children of God. Open your heart this Lent and let the drama prepare you for the risen Lord.

The following themes will guide us on our journey:

- ◆ Ash Wednesday: We are cast as a common humanity.
- ◆ First Sunday of Lent: We are cast as children of God.
- ◆ Second Sunday of Lent: We are cast as a blessing to others.
- ◆ Third Sunday of Lent: We are cast to a universal need for grace.
- ◆ Fourth Sunday of Lent: We are cast to return home.
- ◆ Fifth Sunday of Lent: We are cast to be merciful.
- ◆ PALM SUNDAY: Casting Call!

New for Lent!

Each week, we’re passing out a small card as you exit the church to help guide your reflection. We invite you to keep this card in your pocket, on your dashboard, or even on your fridge - place it where you’ll have a moment to reflect on how you’re cast into the story.

This week’s meditation question:

Of the characters in the Passion Story with whom do you most identify? Why? With whom do you least identify? Why?

Follow our Lenten Blog!

Our Lenten blog is back! Throughout Lent we will feature daily reflections from students, resident parishioners, and parish staff on our website.

Let the Church always be a place of mercy and hope, where everyone is welcomed, loved, and forgiven.

~Pope Francis

During this JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY, we are reminded that God's forgiveness is everlasting and knows no bounds. As we enter into Holy Week and anticipate the joy of Easter, we must never tire of seeking forgiveness. We remember our sins, what we have done and what we have failed to do, that have separated us from love. We remember not only our personal failings, but following the example of Pope Francis, we seek forgiveness for the ways we and the Church have perpetuated societal sins. In all, we trust and hope in the mercy of God.

Social Justice Ministry invites you to name those sins and nail them to the Year of Mercy display in the atrium. There are cards and nails for you to use. On Good Friday, we will take them down, like Christ from the cross. Placing them in the tomb, we wait in hope for resurrection, for the freedom of love and forgiveness.

Parish Bible Study

Mondays at 7PM

Our Catholic faith teaches that God is alive in the Scriptures. Come discover the Word with us. We practice scripture-based faith sharing in a small discussion group. Discussions are guided by church-approved commentaries, question guides, and the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Centering Prayer Mondays at 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a method of silent, contemplative prayer in which thoughts and feelings are stilled as we simply seek to be with God. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer. The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction. All are welcome. The first Monday of each month is a special introductory session, during which we listen to an audio tape that describes the method of Centering Prayer session. Otherwise, we typically sit for two 20-minute silent prayer sessions with a short meditative walk in between.

CROSSROADS 2016 EASTER MEAL

Volunteers, Easter Baskets & Donations Needed!

On Easter Sunday, March 27th, the St. Mary's community will prepare and serve dinner at Crossroads Soup Kitchen in downtown Detroit (learn more about Crossroads at www.crossroadsofmichigan.org). Volunteering at this event is a great way to share in and celebrate the love of the Easter season with 1,000 Detroit community members and other St. Mary's parishioners!

THERE ARE MANY WAYS TO GET INVOLVED IN THIS SERVICE:

1. Volunteer at Crossroads on Easter Sunday.

- + First Shift: 8:00am-12:00pm (Meal Preparation)
- + Second Shift: 11:15am-3:45pm (Dinner Serving)

If you would like to volunteer, please e-mail Aren at arenewby@umich.edu. Please include the following in your e-mail: your preferred shift, whether you need a ride to Detroit, and (if you have a car) the number of additional people you can take with you to Crossroads. If you do not have e-mail access, please give the above information and your phone number to Bill Alt, Campus Minister for Social Justice (734) 663-0557 ext 235.

2. We need Easter baskets and lots of candy!

Many children are guests at our Easter meal. Help us give each of them an Easter basket as a special gift from St. Mary's! Please donate filled Easter baskets or basket making components (baskets, crayons, chocolate bunnies, etc.). In addition to Easter Baskets, each meal comes with a small bag of Easter Candy. We would greatly appreciate candy donations—mini/fun size wrapped candies are the best. Larger bars and unwrapped candy are difficult to bag, and can get messy. Please take your Easter basket and candy donations to the parish office by Good Friday.

3. Make a donation.

Your financial support of this communal meal with our brothers and sisters in Detroit is what makes it happen. Please make checks payable to: St Mary Student Parish and write "Crossroads Easter Meal" on the memo line.

Thank you, as always, for your tremendous generosity.

For more information, please contact Bill Alt, Campus Minister for Social Justice at walt@smspnewman.org or (734)663-0557 ext 235.

Liturgy 101

St. Mary Student Parish is taking a deeper look at the way we celebrate the Mass. Each week in the bulletin (and at stmarystudentparish.org) we will explore the meaning and origins of the Sacrament that is central to who we are as Catholics.

Liturgy of the Eucharist (The Communion Rite)

Once more, we enter into a procession. All processions are outward, physical symbols of inward and spiritual realities. Each one of us, in our own faith lives, is on a procession. Our whole life is one great procession – one great journey – to Heaven and to the Father.

So now, as we move forward to receive Holy Communion, we are more than simply “in line.” We are in another procession – a symbol of our pilgrimage to the Heavenly Banquet.

As we reach the priest or the extraordinary minister, we are presented with the Eucharist in the very simplest of words: “The Body of Christ.” This most awesome mystery, the very presence of Christ Jesus, given for our lives, and for the life of the world, demands a response from us. And so we say, “Amen,” another Hebrew word which means, “yes,” or “so be it.” We are also presented with the chalice with the words, “The Blood of Christ,” and again we respond with a strong “Amen.”

(Adapted from Walk Through the Mass, by Todd Williamson and Nancy Polacek – Archdiocese of Chicago)

“The Eucharist is the spiritual and sacramental nourishment for our life journey! As the Lord fed his chosen people with manna from heaven, so too does he feed us with this Bread from Heaven. As the two disciples on the way to Emmaus recognized the presence of the Lord in the breaking of the bread, so too do we recognize the presence of Christ in our midst, feeding us with his very Body and Blood.”

Todd Williamson and Nancy Polacek – Archdiocese of Chicago
