IN ORDINARY TIME

“But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, ‘O God, be merciful to me a sinner.’” - Lk 18:13

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

"If we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other." – St. Mother Teresa

Finding Light in a Dark World by Amy Ketner, Campus Ministry Associate

Lately tensions in our society have been palpable. Internationally, focus has been on Syria, ISIS and the migration crises. Here in the States, shootings and subsequent protests persist, and politics continually reveal a deep layer of disrespect for our marginalized brothers and sisters. Additionally, in "Just Mercy", our SMSP big-read about the criminal justice system, my heart has been broken by realities too hard to fathom.

Recently these tensions hit closer to home, when horrific messages of hate appeared on both UM and EMU campuses. Unfortunately, these messages, signed by "KKK" and other white supremacist groups, are not the first of their kind in recent local history. Attacking black students, Muslims and other minority groups, such messages lead many to feel unwelcome and unsafe here. All of this has caused in me a deep stirring. How is it possible that today, in 2016, we are so separated from our brothers and sisters? How can we still foster such disrespect and hate for entire groups of people?

The readings this week are particularly timely, it seems. In the Gospel, Jesus urges our humility by narrating the story of the prideful Pharisee and sinful tax collector. I can't help but wonder what might have happened if the Pharisee had turned around and reached out to the tax collector. What if, instead of boasting about his righteousness, he would have listened to his brother there in the temple? How many times do I let my prideful speech interfere with compassionate listening? I am quick to see the actions of others and think "at least I'm not hateful like them." Yet I still - often times unconsciously - let pride, complacency, fear, busyness, or many other factors get in the way of love.

In 2 Timothy, immediately preceding today's reading, we are each charged with the responsibility to "proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient...encourage all through patience and teaching" (2 Tm 4:2). Later we are reminded that the Lord will stand by us and give us strength (2 Tm 4:17). Amid all of this darkness, misunderstanding and hatefulness, how can I be persistent in proclaiming God's love? How can I encourage myself and others to listen to, learn from and love each other?

Finally, perhaps most reassuringly, in today's first reading, we are reminded that our God is a just God. He hears the cries of the oppressed; He listens to those who serve Him and reach out to Him. I find great hope in these words, and am moved to keep praying, asking God to be with us as we come to better know, love and respect each other. Through it all, He is our strength.

I am constantly called back to St. Mother Teresa's words: "If we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other." In our state of tension, discrimination, and fear, let us remember that the "other" isn't so "other" after all, but rather our sister or brother. Because we are all children of God, we belong to each other. It is in such unity that we can listen more compassionately and come to know and love one another, despite our differences.

So with God as our strength, and belonging to each other as family, let us be God's light in our world.

LGBT+

SPIRITUAL RETREAT

AFFIRMING OUR COMMUNITY, FRIENDS, & FAMILY

SATURDAY 10/29/16

FOR MORE INFO VISIT
STMARYSTUDENTPARISH.ORG/WORSHIP/LGBT-OUTREACH

LGBT members, friends, and family are invited to a spiritual retreat on Saturday beginning at 9:00 AM and concluding with mass in the church by 5:00 PM. Group activities and self-reflective exercises will be offered. The retreat is open to all members of the LGBT community, including families and friends.

The retreat will also include a robust lunch and snacks throughout the day. We will collect a suggested donation of $10 per registrant the day of the event to offset the cost of food. Students are free!

Sign up on our website or Click here to sign up for the retreat!

On November 9th, we will have a new president elected and Barack Obama will enter the last months of his presidency. As we approach the election, we are called to discern what kind of country we want and how we can promote the common good. An Ignatian Examen for Civic Life will help you pay attention to God's movement in your life and invites you to converse with God about the relationship between the Gospel and civic life. Please find copies at the entrances to the Church and at our Year of Mercy Board found at the Thompson Street entrance. Additional discernment and election resources can also be found at our Year of Mercy Board.

Alpha House Oct 24-30

We have the wonderful opportunity to serve our family homeless shelter as a family or individual. It is important to know that ONLY those over 18 can "Sign Up" HOWEVER those under 18 are welcome to participate if a parent or guardian is present with them. If you are bringing someone under 18 with you, please include their name/s in the memo area. Please use one slot for each volunteer over 18 coming and provide a full name for each, including maiden name.

The dates we need help are 10/24/16-10/30/16. There are different ways to serve. See the sign up for details. <http://tinyurl.com/alphahouse-oct-16>

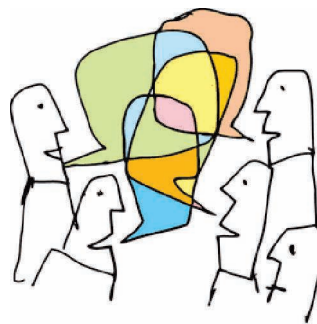

Faith Formation Opportunity for Young Children

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a Montessori-based approach to the religious formation of children, rooted in Sacred Scripture, Liturgy, and respect for the child's rich relationship with God. Central to CGS is the atrium, a room containing beautiful materials that focus the child's attention on key scripture passages or liturgical moments. After an introduction by the catechist, the children are invited to work with a material on their own to continue their meditation. Because children learn by using their hands, working with materials allows them to enter more deeply into meditation, nurturing their relationship with God.

We invite children ages 3-5 years who are either in preschool or young 5s programs to participate in our Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium at St Mary Student Parish. This faith formation opportunity will be held once a month during the school year (October 30, November 13, December 11 with 2017 dates TBD) after the 10:00 AM Mass from 11:15 AM-12:45 PM. It is a drop-off program. Materials cost is $35 per child for the year and scholarships are available.

If you are interested in enrolling your child or would like more information about this program please contact Catechists Katie Baidel and Maria Laberteaux at smsp.cgs@gmail.com.

St. Mary's Discussion Group

St. Mary's Discussion Group meets one Sunday a month from 3- 5 PM in Donnelly Hall to discuss current topics of interest and to offer support to the parish. Socializing begins at 3 PM with snacks and beverages. Discussion begins at 3:30 PM.

OUR NEXT MEETING IS OCTOBER 30.

New members are warmly welcomed and meetings are open to parish members and guests.

Touched by Love How do we go outside these walls? We have come to know who we are, who we are as St. Mary's, who Jesus is, but how can we extend that love to those outside of St. Mary's? How can others encounter love in us? Who are my brothers and sisters?

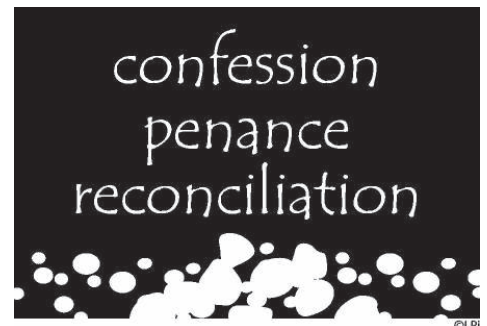

Our undergraduate-led ministry draws its inspiration from Ignatius with a dual purpose: to welcome students into the parish, bringing them together as an undergraduate community through the sharing of a meal, and allowing them to engage with faith as it interacts in their everyday lives as college students. We meet every Thursday of the academic year (except holidays).

Retreat to the Mountains!

Nazareth Farm Adult Week

November 10-14, 2016

All parishioners who are 21 or older are invited to a service-retreat in the hills of Appalachia.

Nazareth Farm is an intentional Catholic community in West Virginia that aspires to live the Gospel through the cornerstones of prayer, service, community, and simplicity while working with their neighbors to address sub-standard housing by providing home-repair. You will experience God in new and surprising ways by immersing yourself in the rich culture of Appalachia and you will be transformed by the power of mutual love and solidarity.

This is an amazing opportunity to slow down, live more simply, and pay attention to the things that matter. You do not want to miss it!

Cost is $225 per person which covers transportation and food/lodging while at Nazareth Farm. Cost should not be the sole reason you are not able to participate. Financial assistance is available.

Contact Bill Alt (walt@smspnewman.org) for more information and to register.

PRAYER FOR THE RETURN OF NON-PRACTICING CATHOLICS

O Good Shepherd, you never cease to seek out the lost, to call home the stray, to comfort the frightened, and to bind up the wounded. I ask you to bring (mention names) back to the practice of the Faith, and to remove all obstacles that prevent them from receiving your abundant mercy, which flows sacramentally through the heart of your holy Church. Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, their Guardian Angel(s), their Patron Saint(s) and the ever-prayerful St. Monica, may you pardon their sins and unshackle them from whatever hinders their freedom to come Home. For you, O Good Shepherd, loved us to the end and offered yourself to the Father for the salvation of all. Amen.

Delonis Center Community Meal

Each 1st and 5th Friday of the month, St. Mary Student Parish provides volunteers for the Community Kitchen at the Delonis Center (312 W. Huron St. in downtown Ann Arbor).

Shifts are: 3-5pm cook/setup and 5-7:15pm serve/cleanup

Please plan to arrive a few minutes early so that you can start working at the designated shift time. Volunteers ages 12 and up can serve with an adult.

EXTRAORDINARY
JUBILEE
OF Mercy

The Closing of The Year of Mercy November 17 at 7:30 pm Donnelly Hall

On November 20, the Solemnity of Christ the King, Pope Francis will close the Holy Doors at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome officially concluding the Jubilee Year of Mercy. Though the doors will be closed and the year ended, we are called to remain always open to be people of mercy and justice.

St. Mary Student Parish will mark the closure of the Jubilee Year of Mercy with a special celebration on November 17 in Donnelly Hall. The evening will include:

- ✦ A conversation about the SMSP Big READ selection Just Mercy
- ✦ A re-cap of the ways we have celebrated and marked the Year of Mercy
- ✦ Gratitude for the blessings God has given us this year
- ✦ Prayer and reflection
- ✦ A call to action and encounter in 2017

OUTREACH

1st & 3rd Tuesday of the Month from 7-8:30

LGBT Outreach Ministry is a group sponsored by St. Mary Student Parish and meets monthly on the first and third Tuesday of the month. Meetings are private and confidential. As a diverse community of believers, we respect each person as a unique reflection of God's presence in our midst. We commit ourselves to being a community of care, support, formation, reconciliation, and witness to justice with and among gay and lesbian persons, their parents, family members, and friends.

We teach that all love comes from God and focus on helping people reconcile their faith with their orientation. We provide a safe space for discussion, healing, and prayer.

Together we reflect on Scripture and listen to the lived experience of lesbian and gay persons and their allies. For more information, contact Mark at markthies@yahoo.com.

SUNDAY READINGS

OCTOBER 23

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Sirach	35: 12-14, 16-18
Psalm	Psalms	34: 2-3, 17-19, 23
Reading II	2 Timothy	4: 6-8, 16-18
Gospel	Luke	18: 9-14

Humility is the recognition that no matter what our accomplishments, we still stand in need of the Lord. God hears the cry of the poor and of the oppressed, especially those who acknowledge their dependency upon him. Having heard Paul's cries for help, the Lord crowned him with eternal salvation.

OCTOBER 30

31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Wisdom	11:22— 12:2
Psalm	Psalms	145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14
Reading II	2 Thes.	1:11— 2:2
Gospel	Luke	19:1-10

The Lord is full of mercy and compassion, slow to anger and of great kindness. He has come to search out and save what was lost. Let us be more concerned with doing the Lord's work than with idle speculation about when he will come again.
