Dia de los muertos/ Day of the Dead

Dia de los muertos is a holiday celebrated in many Latin American countries from October 31st until November 2nd. While each region varies on how it celebrates Dia de los muertos, the intention behind the festival is the same everywhere: to celebrate the lives of friends and family who have passed away. Families spend these days cooking for their extended family, cleaning, and telling stories of the loved ones who have passed on. Some visit the cemeteries to clean the gravestones of the deceased and leave flowers, a small portion of the food they cooked, and mementos for the deceased. Others go to mass and say a novena of rosaries leading up to this day. After speaking with some of our parishioners I have learned that each country's customs are slightly varied and wholly beautiful.

Mexico, being a large contributor in the diffusion of the celebration of Dia de los muertos throughout the world, has strong influences in how we, here at SMSP, adorn our atrium to celebrate this holiday. We have a community altar, and all are invited to participate and join in this celebration. These altars are adorned with pictures of all those being remembered, flowers, traditionally marigolds, a candle for each loved one, pan de muerto (Day of the Dead bread), religious images and figures, as well as favorite objects of the deceased -- including favorite beverages, food, and trinkets. If the family is remembering a child who has passed on, they place milk and a baby bottle on the altar.

Guatemalan salad, called fiambre (fee-ahh-mm-br-a), full of meats and sausages, cheeses, and many vegetables, is made and eaten for Dia de los muertos. Unique to Guatemala, the families also build and fly kites in the cemeteries for this celebration. These kites can be as large as a two-story building, designed in a variety of ways, including displaying religious images, looking like tejidos (the traditional woven clothing), or being covered with national symbols such as the national bird and/or flower, or even images of indigenous heritage. In Sumpango, Guatemala, these kites are worked on six months to a year in advance. Each kite has messages written to the deceased loved ones, in hope that these messages reach their ancestors in heaven, when flown in the cemetery.

In Colombia, there is the tradition for Dia de los muertos, similar to dressing up for Halloween and trick-or-treating, but children don't ask for candy from their neighbors, they ask for potatoes, rice, meat, and other foods to make dinner. All the children and families, in a community come together and combine all of the food they collected from each house and make a huge pot of stew out in the street. All of the families in the community join together and eat this meal. In this form of celebration, families and community share in the telling of stories and memories of loved ones.

Through the sharing of stories of those whom are now with Christ, the younger generations of families come to know their ancestors. The beauty in this celebration is in the passing of familial history from generation to generation with love, joy, and in community.

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by his Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God. Centering Prayer is an intentional openness to, or practice of "waiting" on God, encouraging the building of a more intimate relationship with Jesus and the movement of the Holy Spirit. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer. The book, Open Mind, Open Heart by Father Thomas Keating, OCSO, is a good introduction. The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. All are welcome.

Retreat to the Mountains!

Nazareth Farm Adult Week

November 10-14, 2016

All parishioners who are 21 or older are invited to a service-retreat in the hills of Appalachia.

Nazareth Farm is an intentional Catholic community in West Virginia that aspires to live the Gospel through the cornerstones of prayer, service, community, and simplicity while working with their neighbors to address sub-standard housing by providing home-repair. You will experience God in new and surprising ways by immersing yourself in the rich culture of Appalachia and you will be transformed by the power of mutual love and solidarity.

This is an amazing opportunity to slow down, live more simply, and pay attention to the things that matter. You do not want to miss it!

Cost is $225 per person which covers transportation and food/lodging while at Nazareth Farm. Cost should not be the sole reason you are not able to participate. Financial assistance is available.

Contact Bill Alt (walt@smspnewman.org) for more information and to register.

Find out more about the Catholic faith

If you've been thinking about exploring the Catholic faith, it's not too late. Sessions for RCIA (the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) have begun, but inquirers are still welcome to join us.

The RCIA journey at St. Mary Student Parish is designed to help people hear and respond to God's call – and especially to God's loving invitation for a deeper relationship.

Together, we will also explore and learn about the Catholic faith, which provides a pathway to fuller life in the Spirit.

For those who choose it, the program also prepares for the Sacraments of Initiation (baptism, confirmation, eucharist) at the Easter Vigil Mass.

There's no pressure or obligation. Participants are welcome to explore and ask questions as they discern where God may be leading them.

RCIA sessions are on Wednesdays, from 7 to 9 p.m.

SUNDAY READINGS

OCTOBER 30

31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Wisdom	11:22— 12:2
Psalms	Psalms	145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14
Reading II	2 Thes.	1:11— 2:2
Gospel	Luke	19:1-10

The Lord is full of mercy and compassion, slow to anger and of great kindness. He has come to search out and save what was lost. Let us be more concerned with doing the Lord's work than with idle speculation about when he will come again.

NOVEMBER 6

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	2 Maccabees	7: 1-2, 9-14
Psalms	Psalms	17:1, 5-6, 8, 15
Reading II	2 Thes.	2:16— 3:5
Gospel	Luke	20:27-38

In response to an attempt to ridicule his teaching about life after death, Jesus again proclaims a resurrection of the dead, that life is indeed stronger than death itself. This is our eternal consolation and hope. Then will our joy be truly complete.
