Decisions, Decisions

And an Invitation

by Fr. Joe Wagner, SJ

There are times in all of our lives when we make some pretty significant choices, some major decisions, and we may find ourselves wondering, even worrying, if we are making the “right” one. St. Ignatius Loyola had a lot to say about the ways we can go about making such decisions, and in some cases he encouraged us to ask

God for confirmation of the choice we made. In the Spiritual Exercises, he suggested that such confirmation might take the form of “courage and strength, consolations, tears, inspirations, and peace.”

Last year, I came to a decision to leave my academic life because of a constant, nagging ache that I felt to do more pastoral ministry. It was this decision that eventually led me to St. Mary Student Parish. Dutiful Jesuit that I (sometimes) am, I asked God for confirmation of that decision, and over the past months, I’ve felt as though God has been beating me over the head with it. Such confirmation comes not from a loud, booming voice, but through simple yet profound moments. An unexpected conversation with a student, a chance meeting on the street, or, most recently, a gathering around the Blessed Sacrament on a Wednesday evening—all of these have left me with that sense of “courage and strength, consolations, tears, inspirations, and peace” that I think Ignatius must have had in mind.

Some 28 years ago, I asked God’s confirmation of another big decision. I made the choice to pursue the life of a Jesuit, and I professed my first vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience in the Society of Jesus two years later. We call them first vows because St. Ignatius, in all his wisdom, understood that decisions like these need confirmation, also—not only for me, but for my Jesuit brothers as well. And he left it up to my brothers (represented by our Superior General in Rome) to decide along with me if and when God’s confirmation has been granted. Earlier this year, I learned that our Superior General has called me to profess my final vows—in a sense, publicly recognizing that both my Jesuit brothers and I have come to believe that the choice I made has been the right one for all of us.

This coming Wednesday, November 9th, at a 7:00pm mass at St. Mary’s, I will profess my final vows as a Jesuit, trusting that the countless moments of confirmation over the past 28 years have led me to this final moment. I happily invite and welcome any of you—you who have contributed so much to the confirmation I now feel—to celebrate this moment with me. Whether or not you are able to attend, I ask you to pray that God may continue to grant me what I pray he grants us all: a deep knowledge and confirmation of God’s enduring and faithful love in our lives.

Fr. Joe Wagner's Final Vows

Wednesday, Nov 9 at 7:00PM

Fr. Joe Wagner, SJ, will profess his final vows as a Jesuit during mass at 7:00pm. Fr. Walter Deye, acting Provincial of the Chicago-Detroit Province of the Society of Jesus will preside. A light reception in Newman Lounge will follow mass.

On November 9th, we will have a new president elected and Barack Obama will enter the last months of his presidency. As we approach the election, we are called to discern what kind of country we want and how we can promote the common good. An Ignatian Examen for Civic Life will help you pay attention to God’s movement in your life and invites you to converse with God about the relationship between the Gospel and civic life. Please find copies at the entrances to the Church and at our Year of Mercy Board found at the Thompson Street entrance. Additional discernment and election resources can also be found at our Year of Mercy Board.

Centering Prayer

Mondays at 6:30 pm

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by his Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God. Centering Prayer is an intentional openness to, or practice of "waiting" on God, encouraging the building of a more intimate relationship with Jesus and the movement of the Holy Spirit. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer. The book, Open Mind, Open Heart by Father Thomas Keating, OCSO, is a good introduction. The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. All are welcome.

SUNDAY READINGS

NOVEMBER 6

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	2 Maccabees 7: 1-2, 9-14
Psalms	Psalms 17:1, 5-6, 8, 15
Reading II	2 Thes. 2:16— 3:5
Gospel	Luke 20:27-38

In response to an attempt to ridicule his teaching about life after death, Jesus again proclaims a resurrection of the dead, that life is indeed stronger than death itself. This is our eternal consolation and hope. Then will our joy be truly complete.

NOVEMBER 13

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I	Malachi	3:19-20
Psalms	Psalms	98:5-9
Reading II	2 Thes.	3:7-12
Gospel	Luke	21:5-19

Jesus teaches that his disciples will be persecuted as a necessary prelude to the parousia. Through their perseverance, they will emerge victorious when the Lord comes again. As we await the Day, let us conscientiously fulfill our Christian obligations.
