

ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

JANUARY 8, 2017
THE EPIPHANY
OF THE LORD

The Epiphany OF THE LORD LA EPIFANÍA DEL SEÑOR

Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, “Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.” - Mt 2:1b-2

Unos magos de Oriente llegaron entonces a Jerusalén y preguntaron: “¿Dónde está el rey de los judíos que acaba de nacer? Porque vimos surgir su estrella y hemos venido a adorarlo”. - Mt 2,1-2

Pondering All Things in our Hearts by Fr. Ben Hawley, S.J.

"And Mary pondered all these things in her heart." I once shocked a community of cloistered Carmelite nuns into surprise and laughter by suggesting that Mary was the first Jesuit. The suggestion, intended of course for dramatic effect, emphasized a profound human reality: that we need to reflect on our own experience, on events large and small and our intellectual and emotional reaction to them to gain any insight into the great questions of human life.

Such reflection forms the core of St. Ignatius' injunction to us all to find God in all things. The story of the disciples encountering the Risen Jesus on the road to Emmaus offers a clear example: the disciples' first instinct that they were walking with Jesus came when, as they realized later, "Were our hearts not burning within us as we walked with him?"

The intuition about reflection on experience occurs outside the Catholic tradition as well. The Roman god Janus for whom the month of January is named has two faces, one looking forward to the new year, one backward to the old year. Socrates said that the unexamined life is not worth living. Aristotle said that philosophy should not be taught to anyone under 30 for lack of sufficient life experience.

As we begin the new calendar year, it is good to ask ourselves where we have been to gain a clearer sense of where we are going. Today we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany, the revelation of Jesus to the Gentiles in the persons of the Magi, and tomorrow we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism, Jesus' baptism by John in the Jordan River. At his baptism he hears the Father assure him of his fundamental goodness as a human person and the importance of his unique vocation.

Have you and I experienced the unique affirmation of the Father? Over the break I met up after many years with a good friend from my days working in the US Government. We had talked extensively about our lives back then, wanting to be sure that we were on the path that would lead us to fullness of life. And in long conversations with him I felt affirmed in my choice to leave the government because I now experience such richness of life, having found Jesus at work in my life inviting me to something better.

The special days in our liturgical year remind us of the key events of Jesus' life, always as invitations into parallel experiences in our own lives, Jesus in his humanity serving as exemplar and guide for us our own human lives. We discover these parallelisms as we reflect on our own experience, asking God to help us find His dynamic presence in our lives.

The new year welcomes us to new experience, new opportunity and new richness. Jesus invites us to a fullness of life we cannot imagine for ourselves. So please join me, all Jesuits - and Carmelites! - everywhere in following Our Lady's example in pondering all things in our hearts.

A dialogue on what Catholic Social Teachings say about responding to this issue will follow the screening.

CENTERING PRAYER

Mondays | 6:15 PM

Centering Prayer is a method of silent, contemplative prayer in which thoughts and feelings are stilled as we simply seek to be with God. It is rooted in centuries-old monastic prayer. The book Open Heart, Open Mind by Fr. Thomas Keating, OCSO is a good introduction.

The first Monday of each month is a special introductory session, during which we listen to an audio tape that describes the method of Centering Prayer session. Otherwise, we typically sit for two 20-minute silent prayer sessions with a short meditative walk in between. All are welcome.

Contact Serena Larsen serena68@comcast.net

PRAY THE ROSARY

FOR CONFIRMATION STUDENTS

St. Teresa of Avila reminds us that we are the hands of Jesus in the world today. We serve God when we help others and live out the work of Christ. So, how are you doing with your service to others?

This month, the parish will have some new service opportunities coming up. One idea is to bake treats or make snacks or sandwiches for our guests in the Daytime Warming Shelter that we are hosting all during January. Or perhaps you could do a little fund-raising for some needed items, such as warm socks, gloves, etc.

"Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks with compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good." (St. Teresa of Avila)

As a diverse community of believers, we respect each person as a unique reflection of God's presence in our midst. We commit ourselves to being a community of care, support, formation, reconciliation, and witness to justice with and among gay and lesbian persons, parents, family members, and friends.

We teach that all love comes from God and focus on helping people reconcile their faith with their orientation. We provide a safe space for discussion, healing, and prayer. Together we reflect on Scripture and listen to the lived experiences of gay and lesbian persons and their allies.
