HOSANNA

“Hosanna to the Son of David / blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.”

MATTHEW 21:9

“¡Hosanna! ¡Viva el Hijo de David!
¡Bendito el que viene en nombre
del Señor!”

MATEO 21, 9

ENTERING INTO HOLY WEEK

Holy Week begins with Jesus entering triumphantly into Jerusalem. But Jesus must have entered with a heavy heart because it was obvious that authorities were out to get him. So it must have been especially irritating to the authorities to have the people welcome Jesus as a king into Jerusalem. The donkey was the animal a king used when he came in peace. So Jesus enters Jerusalem as the Messiah who brings peace. Even the people recognized this specialness about him. In response they covered the dirt pathway with palm branches and some of their clothing. They sang their Hosannas that is a prayer of petition: "Please save us now."

1. As you begin holy week, what are you going to do to be more conscious of the tragic events surrounding the betrayal, rejection and the crucifixion of Jesus?
2. The crowds were recognizing Jesus as Messiah on Sunday and many of the same people shouted to crucify him five days later. Was it a mob mentality or the fickleness of the human condition? How can I be more consistent in expressing what I believe?
3. What must have been going on in the heart and mind of Jesus with the adulation of the crowds and the threats that awaited him in Jerusalem?
4. Jesus carries with him as Risen Lord the dreadful memories of what happened to him during Holy Week. Do I see in the Risen Lord someone who understands the hurt I feel at times, a sense of betrayal from those I love, the fear of dying, and the physical suffering I experience?

Reflection and questions from Marquette University

Soul of Christ:

Jesus, may all that is you flow into me. May your body and blood be my food and drink. May your passion and death be my strength and life. Jesus, with you by my side, enough has been given. May the shelter I seek be the shadow of your cross. Let me not run from the love which you offer, but hold me safe from the forces of evil. On each of my dyings shed your light and your love. Keep calling to me until that day comes, when with your saints, I may praise you forever. Amen.

RESEARCH STUDY ON THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

My name is Ella Engquist, and I am a Junior studying sociology here at Michigan. I am conducting a pilot study for SOC 310 (Sociological Research Methods) that also serves as preliminary research for my senior honors thesis about the importance of Catholic confession.

As a lifelong Catholic myself, I am curious about others' encounters with confession, and want to understand them from an embodied perspective. Within the next 2-3 weeks, I am hoping to speak with 8 to 10 Catholic students interested in discussing their perspectives on and experiences with reconciliation. These interviews last 30-45 minutes (though more extensive timeframes are more than welcome!) and are semi-structured. Our conversation will simply be a space to talk about confession freely, and explore your experiences with the sacrament in whatever way you see fit! All data will be kept anonymous and confidential.

If you have questions about my research, or are interested in participating, contact: ellengg@umich.edu.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

WEDNESDAYS | 5:45 PM

"One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least", as if it were a "waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ".

Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him."-Pope Francis Eucharistic Adoration will be available each Wednesday in the Church from 5:45pm-9:00pm.

Please sign up as we are in need of 2 adorers per time slot.

On this day of days we offer a joyful sacrifice of praise to the Father who raised his Son from the dead. Let us be intent upon the life Christ offers us, Christ our Passover who has been sacrificed.
