POPE FRANCIS AND THE SYNOD ON SYNODALITY

BY FR. PATRICK CASEY, S.J.

Last Monday was the 10th Anniversary of The Election of Pope Francis. It is celebrated as a public holiday in Vatican City that's observed annually on March 13th. This holiday is marked with a special Mass, both in the Vatican and in many parish churches across the world.

Pope Francis was born Jorge Mario Bergoglio in 1936 in Buenos Aires, Argentina. He would first work as a chemical technologist and a bouncer before deciding to join the Society of Jesus in 1958. He was ordained a priest in 1969, took his final vows in the Jesuit order in 1973, and subsequently served as superior (head) of the Jesuit province of Argentina (1973–79), and in 1998, he would become the Archbishop of Buenos Aires.

In 2001, he was made a cardinal by Pope John Paul II. When Pope Benedict XVI resigned on February 28, 2013, a papal conclave was convened. Bergoglio was elected as the next pope on March 13th. Bergoglio chose Francis as his papal name in honor of Saint Francis of Assisi.

In these years, Pope Francis has visited more than 50 countries, written 3 encyclicals and 20 apostolic letters; he has initiated reforms of the Curia in Rome; included 83 cardinals in the college of cardinals; has treated the crisis of sex abuse in the church, visited and apologized for the church's part in slavery and the abuse of native children in Canada and the United States. And he has convoked a universal synod on synodality.

About this later in a message marking the 60th anniversary of the opening of Vatican II, the organizers of the Synod on Synodality called the Synod of Bishops a "fruit" of the council.

Pope Francis has said the synod was "indeed one of [the Council's] most precious legacies."

"The purpose of the synod was and remains to prolong, in the life and mission of the Church, the spirit of the Second Vatican Council." Speaking of the Church as "synodal" by its nature is something novel. The Vatican said the "synodal process currently underway is also within the Second Vatican Council's wake."

The global three-year synodal process will culminate in a meeting of the Synod of Bishops in Rome in 2024.

The question that the Synod on Synodality is trying to answer is "what is the type of Church that the Holy Spirit is enlightening us to have for today?" Pope Benedict XVI said that the "synodal dimension is constitutive of the Church: it consists of a coming together of every people and culture in order that they become one in Christ and walk together, following him, who said: 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life.'"

May Pope Francis and the Synod on Synodality be frequently in our prayers.

GRAD/YP SPIRITUAL DIRECTIONS

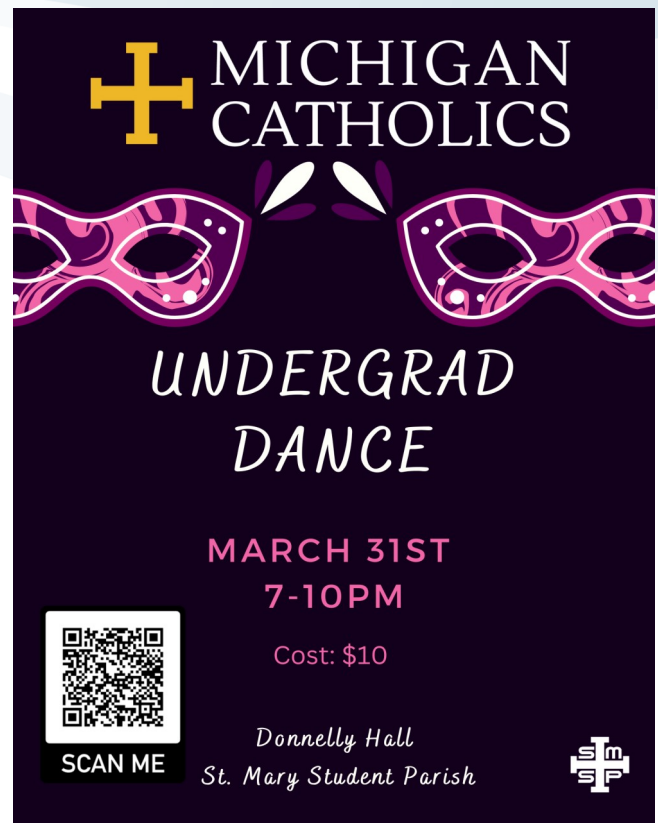

MONDAY, MARCH 20 | 6:30 PM

All Grad Students and Young Professionals are welcome to join us for our Spiritual Directions event: Telling our stories.

The peaks and valleys in our faith journey provide some of the most illuminating lessons of our lives. Inspired by The Moth storytelling feature on NPR and the power of sharing our faith journeys with others, we invite you to an evening of sharing in and learning from the stories of one another's faith journeys.

We will hear from several members of the Grad/YP community as they tell us the story a significant moment in their own faith journeys. After they share, there will be time for discussion and fellowship. We hope that you will join us for this special evening to grow in faith both individually and as a community!

INTO THE LIGHT

Into the Light is a fellowship group, a warm welcoming community, that has been meeting on Saturday mornings during Advent and Lent since the 1970's. Ours is a "Road to Emmaus" style of gathering -- a prayer service using the Sunday's readings and then break fast with a potluck, and round-the-table we each share brief reflections of what stood out in the readings.

We share our spirituality and life journeys towards the celebration of Easter through prayer and companionship.

We will meet through zoom for the last 2 Saturdays: March 25, and April 1.

You need not attend every meeting to participate and enjoy this prayer time. All are welcome.

Contact rlamey@umich.edu for the zoom link.

HELP NEEDED TO FEED OUR STUDENTS

As many of you know, part of our campus ministry for our undergraduate students is a weekly program called Ig.nite consisting of mass, dinner and a speaker on Thursday nights.

We would like to provide an opportunity to our resident parishioners to contribute food for the dinner on Thursday, March 23. This academic year between 40 and 60 students have been attending. This is a lot of food for one family to prepare so we are asking for donations of lasagna, salad, garlic bread and dessert to serve between 10 and 15 people to be dropped off at St Mary by 5:30pm (in other words, we have opportunities for 25 families to participate.) This is our test run and if it is successful we will continue to offer this opportunity. Thank you!

THE STRUCTURAL RACISM OF US IMMIGRATION HISTORY & POLICY

“My ancestors came here legally.”

How often have we heard these statements, or perhaps even said them ourselves? You may be surprised to learn that immigration was not always regulated the way it is today. Early regulation was designed to exclude specific racial or ethnic groups, such as the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882 or the Johnson-Reed Act of 1924, which implemented quotas based on national origin. While the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 ostensibly ended discrimination by national origin, it also significantly cut legal immigration from Mexico and other countries in the Western Hemisphere. This contributed to an increase in unauthorized border crossings.

Although unauthorized entry into the country was common among white, European immigrants in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, it was not criminalized until the mid-20th century, when immigration shifted from primarily white, European countries to countries from the Global South and East, especially Mexico and Latin America. Many of the laws that made it illegal to simply live, work, or exist were targeted at Hispanic and Latino residents.

In the 1930s, in the so-called “Mexican Repatriation” and again in the 1950s with the end of the guest worker (Bracero) program, Mexican-American communities were raided and millions were deported to Mexico – including many who were U.S. citizens. The “unauthorized” migrant that crosses the southern border today may well have had a great-grandparent that was a U.S. citizen!

Before 1971, undocumented migrants could access public benefits in every state. The federal government also ended its long-standing practice of not deporting the parents of U.S. citizen children in the 1970s. There was no federal law against employing unauthorized immigrants until 1986. Immigrants that arrive via an unauthorized border crossing (mostly Hispanic and Latino) do not have any avenue to regularize their immigration status and are barred from re-entry for 10 years; whereas those that overstay a visa have legal avenues to attain permanent residence. All of these policies highlight the bias that today’s immigrant face in relation to those of the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

Note: This is part of a monthly series to help parishioners to learn more about racism, to reflect on our conscious and unconscious attitudes, and to pray that we all work to fully accept, honor, and support all people as children of God.

--- SMSP Anti-racism Working Group

Prayer:

Oh Holy Spirit, you live in the hearts of all to bring about harmony and goodwill.

Strengthen us to welcome those from other lands, cultures, religions, that we may live in human solidarity and hope.

God of all people, grant us vision to see your presence in our midst, especially in our immigrant sisters and brothers.

Give us courage to open the door to our neighbor, and grace to build a society of justice.
