SERVICE IMMERSION TRIP IN GUATEMALA

By Fr Robert Karle, S.J.

During the second week of May, a group of eleven SMSP parishioners and I traveled to Guatemala City to participate in a week-long service immersion trip with International Samaritan. IntSam was founded by a Jesuit priest and high school students in the early 1990s and has projects in garbage dump communities Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Jamaica, Ethiopia, and soon to be Kenya and Tanzania.

We spent most of our time based at the Family Life Center near the city garbage dump which operates as the IntSam Guatemala office and home base for the Paso a Paso scholarship program. The holistic program supports over 120 teenagers (scholars) who attend high school and navigate the challenges of living in a community where the majority of people live below the poverty line of $2.15 per day. Throughout the week, we accompanied the scholars by listening to their struggles and perseverance. One afternoon we visited the home of one of the scholars named Abner and his mother. They rent a small apartment with no windows and an outdoor shared space with their neighbors where they wash their clothes and cook. It is hard to imagine living in such bleak circumstances, and yet their warmth and hope were infectious. Abner spoke of his appreciation for International Samaritan which is helping him further his education in order to further support his family.

Our main project was painting the Family Life Center, a large warehouse building with cinder block walls. After three days painting the walls and a large section of the floor, we concluded with a ceremony where the 100+ scholars, IntSam staff, and SMSP group painted handprints on the walls with our names. We had lots of fun painting alongside the IntSam staff and young scholars and were able to make the space a much warmer and welcoming place for their community. We also spent time in the Francisco Coll school, an elementary school started and supported by International Samaritan. I celebrated a mass for the students and teachers at the school on our first day there and throughout the week we had the opportunity to teach English, help the teachers, and play with the children.

On Saturday and Sunday, two groups of scholars joined us for excursion days in Antigua and Guatemala City. We participated in a coffee tour, visited the beautiful Guatemalan markets, attended mass at the Cathedral, and had lunch on the rooftop of a tall building in the center of Guatemala City. While riding the elevator to the rooftop restaurant, one of the scholars told me “me da miedo” (it makes me scared) and said it was her first time on an elevator. Our outings with the scholars were unique opportunities for all of us to experience new customs and places in the beautiful country of Guatemala.

Although our contributions were likely minimal, given the great need there, what happened during our week in Guatemala was grace-filled and heart transforming. In some small way, we were able to bring new light and life into the IntSam Guatemala community as they navigate the hardships of extreme poverty and continue to emerge from the compounding difficulty of the pandemic. I am very grateful to have spent a week with such a wonderful group from SMSP representing the diversity of our parish: four undergrads, four Grad/YPs, four resident parishioners (three of whom were native Spanish speakers). It was “one step along the way” of furthering the important work of IntSam as they seek to provide greater access to education, employment, and well-being in communities that are often forgotten, marginalized, and suffer most from the climate crisis.

I hope SMSP can continue to partner with IntSam through ongoing education and dialogue, the IntSam Global 5k in the Fall, and future service immersion trips through the LEARN, SERVE, GROW Partnership Curriculum.

“LEARN, SERVE, GROW PARTNERSHIP CURRICULUM: International Samaritan wants to help cultivate a heart of service in all of our partners. That’s why, beginning in 2020, we’re asking all of our partners to join us for Learn, Serve, Grow, an approach dedicated to taking service and partnership to new heights. The program includes LEARN, a way for partners to learn in-depth about garbage dump communities and extreme poverty – and help our scholars learn as well; SERVE, our maintained core of service both abroad and from home; and GROW, where we ask students to take all they have learned and act as advocates for communities facing extreme poverty worldwide, helping us reach even more individuals and communities who need aid.”

Please pick up a baptism class packet from the Parish Office at least one week prior to the class. You will need to bring this to class.

CENTERING PRAYER (ZOOM)

MONDAYS | 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by His Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God. The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. The meetings are through Zoom. All are welcome.

Contact Regina regorge@umich.edu or Serena serena68@comcast.net to get the Zoom link.

Food insecurity continues to increase. As the federal social support programs of the pandemic continue to be rolled back, many people at the margins are struggling and making difficult choices between rent, food, transportation, and utilities.

We are participating in a Food Drive for Food Gatherers and Salvation Army on Monday, June 5.

Bring your donation of non-perishable items to any of the masses the weekend of June 3 & 4. There will be baskets in the Williams and Atrium entrances. Our donations will be collected and delivered on Monday.

Don't worry if you miss the weekend, you can bring your donation direct on Monday, June 5 from 9:30 to 3:30 at the north doors of the Salvation Army facility at 100 N Arbana. No need to ring the doorbell. Salvation Army will bring in the donations periodically during the day. Food Gatherers' collects the bins at the end of the day.

Items of Need:

- Cases and jars of peanut butter, jelly
- Soups (healthier choices especially)
- Cans of cooked chicken
- Marinara sauce (plastic or bubble-wrapped to prevent breakage)

The summer film series is titled Close Encounters, featuring films focused on encounter or closeness. The Parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-42) teaches us that God's understanding of love involves our hearts breaking open... in close proximity and through our presence emotionally, physically, socially, and spiritual presence.

These three films explore the space of how we are or become close as humans, the children of God, as one facet of how God calls us to love.
