THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven;
whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." - Jn 6:51

"Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo; el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre. Y el pan que yo les voy a dar es mi carne para que el mundo tenga vida". - Jn 6, 51

BE BOLD : A WORKSHOP OF HISPANIC TEENAGERS

By Elisa Alvarez-Martinez, Teen Confirmation Coordinator

Many of us wonder what is happening with the youth, why it seems or seems that young people are increasingly moving away from the church, but few of us get down to the task of doing something about it, this is how this idea of the Be Bold retreat emerges as an alternative to the long-awaited response of many for the future of our young people, young people who live between two worlds, two cultures and two languages, young people who need to be heard and seen, young people full of ideas and dreams, without a doubt it has been the preparation of this workshop a challenge because it is always difficult to find people committed to the cause but God always has his plans and he gave us a team full of wonderful people.

The Be Bold retreat is based on sharing experiences that help us create a positive environment of trust, since the team opens up intimately telling a very personal experience, becoming an expression of life itself where it is about reaching each participant at their own level of development, encouraging them to open up to new experiences creating a space where young people find themselves, with others and with God, Be Bold is designed as a growth experience.

And it is a mutual growth not only of young people but of all of us who are involved in the process, since talking about our feelings and reactions to the situations and circumstances that we have experienced is never easy; we pour our hearts and minds into this beautiful project where we all have the opportunity to meet ourselves and with God, heal those wounds from the past and reflect on what we were and what we want to be without ever forgetting that we are only an instrument of the Lord.

During our day we had moments of uncertainty thinking about whether we would be able to have participants, moments of joy at seeing the happy faces of our participants, we also had moments of deep tears that helped us reflect on who we are, moments of play and fun, but without a doubt, it was the moments of faith where we were able to meet that God who loves us infinitely just as we are, which made this experience something magical.

Lastly, I would like to take this space to thank Rosa Luz for her tireless work for our community, each one of the team members Nayeli, Osvaldo, Laura, Agnes and Andrea for opening their hearts to this call, Omar my husband and faithful adventure partner and last and not least to all the young people who gave themselves the opportunity to live something different for the first time and some for the second time, thank you because thanks to you we are making a difference and to all those who still do not live this do not miss the experience next time, because in these times we need to be different, be brave, BEBOLD!

GOOD BYE SAINT MARY STUDENT PARISH

In true Irish fashion, I avoided saying good-bye in person and opted to leave quietly without drawing attention to myself. But I feel it necessary to say goodbye because St Mary has meant so much to me over my 16 years in the front office.

I am fortunate enough to be able to retire early and that's my plan. I'll enjoy putzing in our garden, and we will travel a bit and find our dream retirement spot before my husband retires in 1-2 years.

Many of you have made such a positive impact on me by our connections on the phone, in an email or in person. I will cherish these memories and take them with me on my next adventure.

Thanks for the memories!

Carol Konczal

CENTERING PRAYER (ZOOM)

MONDAYS | 6:30 PM

Centering Prayer is a silent practice of prayer that rests on the faith that Christ is present within by His Holy Spirit. It is an excellent preparation for contemplative prayer, which is a grace or gift bestowed by God.

The first Monday of each month we listen to an introduction to centering prayer and then pray for 20 minutes. Otherwise, we typically sit and pray for two 20-minute sessions with a short meditative walk in between. The meetings are through Zoom. All are welcome.

Contact Regina regorge@emich.edu or Serena serena68@comcast.net to get the Zoom link.

2023-2025 IGNATIAN LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

Contemplative Leaders in Action (CLA) is a national leadership program for young adults, rooted in the spirituality tradition of St. Ignatius of Loyola, and now available in 10 major U.S. cities. The world needs Ignatian leaders — passionate “contemplatives in action” discerning God’s movements in their lives and responding out of love as hopeful, joyful people with and for others. This kind of leadership flows from a deep spiritual life and inspired sense of purpose.

CLA is for young adults (24-39), eager to improve their effectiveness as a leader, and willing to put their spirituality into action in service to others. Our ideal cohort is composed of people from diverse backgrounds, professions, and educational experiences. Cohort members engage in 18 monthly meetings along with annual retreats and days of reflection, interacting with inspiring professionals and reflecting on the intersections of career, faith, family and leadership.

Sunday Readings

JUNE 11—The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Reading I	Dt	8:2-3, 14-16
Psalm	Ps	147:12-15, 19-20
Reading II	1Cor	10:16-17
Gospel	Jn	6:51-58

The cup we share, is it not the blood of Christ? And the bread we break, is it not the body? Just as God fed the Israelites with manna from heaven, so too do we feed on the best of wheat, the bread of angels, food from the pilgrim journey.

JUNE 18—Eleventh Sunday In Ordinary Time

Reading I	Ex	19:2-6
Psalm	Ps	100:1-2, 3, 5
Reading II	Rom	5:6-11
Gospel	Mt	9:36, 10:8

Reconciled to God through the blood of Christ, we are a chosen people, “a holy nation”, the sheep of God’s flock. We are called, as were the Twelve, to go forth and bear witness to the reign of God.
