SCC GROUPS FOR FALL; JOIN WITH A FRIEND!

By Rita Zyber, RCIA and Small Church coordinator

Never underestimate the power of a small group. I've discovered this so often from leading and coordinating our groups here at St. Mary's. Good things tend to happen when people are talking about God.

One Michigan pastor describes the small group ministry this way: "Groups can help us develop a greater sense of Christian community in a disconnected age. They help us practice our calling to understand and love each other. As we share and listen to stories, we learn how others are attempting to intersect the common and the sacred life."

Here at St. Mary's, our SCC groups, or Small Church Communities, discuss the Sunday readings and reflections. But they also get a chance to think a little deeper about their faith, and what it means to them. Hopefully, some good questions arise: "How do I live as a child of God? Where do I see God in the things that can be a struggle? What does faith look like in my life? What might be holding me back from a deeper relationship with God?"

Sometimes, people just need a place where they can talk about faith in an increasingly secular world. We hear it from many students – they often feel they don't have any other place where they feel comfortable doing this.

Their faith can feel compartmentalized – something they can practice in church, but not so easily out in the world.

Small Church Communities:

Our fall session begins soon. Groups will meet once a week for eight weeks to discuss the readings. (Note: Another eight-week session is held during Lent). Study packets with reflections, questions and prayers are provided.

Groups are offered at various times to fit most schedules. There are groups for everyone, including grad students and undergrads. (Note: students may also want to join one of our ongoing Men's or Women's Connect Groups.)

Dates: Groups begin meeting the week of September 24 th through November 13 th .

Registration: Sign-up beginning on Sept. 17 (look for the sign-up link in next week's bulletin)!

Questions: Contact me at rzyber@smspnewman.org

Seeking something more?

Remember the old line from late-night commercials? – "But wait, there's more!"

It's a good way to describe the faith journey that many people make each year through the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). As we open ourselves to God's nudges, we discover that God always provides so much more than we ever dreamed. There is always more when we grow deeper in our relationship with Christ.

For those seeking to be part of the Church, our weekly gatherings of our RCIA group will begin again on September 13. Please consider RCIA if:

- You're an adult who has never been baptized
- You were baptized in another faith and would like to become Catholic
- You were baptized Catholic, but were never confirmed

Feel free to contact me to talk more, or just send an email to let me know you're interested. There's no pressure with these sessions. You are welcome to explore and ask questions as you figure out if God is calling you to "more."

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

WEDNESDAYS | 5:45 PM

"One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least", as if it were a "waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ".

Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him."-Pope Francis

Beginning on August 27, we will have Eucharistic Adoration on Monday (10-11 am), Tuesday (4-5 pm), Wednesday 5:45-9 pm, and Thursday (3:45-4:45 pm)

Sunday Readings

SEPTEMBER 10 - Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Ez	33:7-9
Psalm	Ps	95:1-2, 6-9
Reading II	Rom	13:8-10
Gospel	Mt	18:15-20

May our hearts not be hardened, but may we turn from our sin. In our love for one another, we may be called to confront our sister and brother for the wrong they may be doing.

SEPTEMBER 17 - Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Sir	27:30 — 28:7
Psalm	Ps	103: 1-4, 9-12
Reading II	Rom	14:7-9
Gospel	Mt	18:21-35

As the Lord is kind and merciful, so should we be forgiving toward one another. Our forgiveness is to be without limit and so reflect Christ's eternal love. He alone is Lord.
